Fans to Celebrate Banana Ball All Weekend Long (Even Without Tickets)

FARGO, N.D. — Banana Ball is coming to Fargo at the end of the month, and while stadium tickets may be hard to come by, fans still have plenty of opportunities to be part of the excitement throughout Fargo-Moorhead-West Fargo.

The impact of hosting Banana Ball extends far beyond the ballpark. These games bring thousands of visitors to our community, support local businesses, and shine a spotlight on Fargo-Moorhead-West Fargo as a destination capable of hosting world-class events. The Savannah Bananas have built a global phenomenon that transcends baseball, and we're proud to partner in bringing that energy, excitement, and economic impact to our region.

Visit Fargo-Moorhead is encouraging locals and visitors alike to experience Banana Ball weekend through community watch parties, special events, and a new banana-themed passport featuring local businesses and promotions across the region.

Broadway Square Watch Parties

Fans without tickets are invited to gather at Broadway Square in Downtown Fargo for free community watch parties during Games 1 and 2 of the Banana Ball series between the Firefighters and the Clowns.

Watch Party Details

- Friday, June 26 | 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.
- Saturday, June 27 | 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.
- Location: Broadway Square, Downtown Fargo

A built-in weather day is scheduled for Sunday, June 28, if needed.

The Broadway Square activations will feature live game viewing, community gathering space, and local food vendors including Cosmic Treats and Top Dog Hot Dogs.

"These watch parties are a way for the entire community to experience the excitement of Banana Ball, even if they weren't able to secure tickets to the games," said Stephonie Broughton, Director of Sports at Visit Fargo-Moorhead. "We want the community to feel energized all weekend long."

Buffalo Wild Wings Watch Parties

Fans can also catch the games at all three Buffalo Wild Wings locations throughout Fargo-Moorhead-West Fargo. These watch parties offer another fun option for fans to enjoy the games alongside food, drinks, and fellow Banana Ball enthusiasts.

Banana-Themed Passport

To further celebrate the weekend, Visit Fargo-Moorhead is launching a banana-themed passport encouraging fans to explore local businesses, restaurants, and attractions during Banana Ball weekend. Additional details and participating locations will be announced soon.
