Pier Dances continue on select Friday nights this summer! Moonlight Mixers on the Folly Pier and Dancing on the Cooper at the Mount Pleasant Pier

(MOUNT PLEASANT) – On select Friday evenings this summer, you are invited to enjoy music and dancing on some of the most beautiful waterfront locations in Charleston! Charleston County Parks' live music series on the Mount Pleasant Pier, Dancing on the Cooper, and the Moonlight Mixers series at the Folly Beach Pier continue throughout the summer.

Both events run from 7 – 10 p.m. Featuring great music from a different local band each month, Dancing on the Cooper at the Mount Pleasant Pier features music from a variety of musical genres throughout the season. The Moonlight Mixers at the Folly Beach Pier feature a DJ or live band each evening. Tickets to each event are $10 per person in advance or $15 on site, if not sold out. Beverages are available for purchase. Chairs are welcome outside of the dance area.

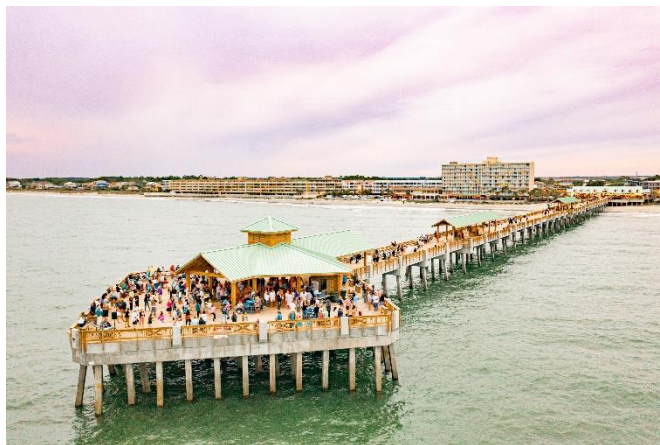

Remaining dates in the Pier Dances schedule this year are:

- Dancing on the Cooper, Friday July 24 – featuring Tommy & the Chucktown Players
- Moonlight Mixer Friday, July 31 - featuring DJ Bill Shelton
- Moonlight Mixer Friday, Aug. 21 - featuring Calhoun's Calling
- Dancing on the Cooper, Friday Sept. 11 – featuring the Cooper River Band
- Moonlight Mixer Friday, Sept. 18 - featuring DJ Bill Shelton

Tickets to Dancing on the Cooper and the Moonlight Mixers are $10 per person in advance and can be purchased by visiting CharlestonCountyParks.com (direct link). Events are expected to sell out, so advance purchase is recommended. If not sold out, tickets can be purchased on site at the event for $15 per person (credit card only).

For more information or to purchase tickets to Dancing on the Cooper, visit the event webpage at CharlestonCountyParks.com (direct link). The Mount Pleasant Pier is located at 71 Harry M. Hallman Jr Blvd. Part of the Memorial Waterfront Park complex, the 1250-foot long Mount Pleasant Pier stretches out into Charleston Harbor under the foot of the Arthur Ravenel, Jr. Bridge. Free parking is limited and first-come-first-served at the Mount Pleasant Pier, so carpooling or ridesharing is recommended. There is a private parking garage available in nearby Ferry Wharf for an additional fee.

For more information or to purchase tickets to Moonlight Mixers, visit the event webpage at CharlestonCountyParks.com (direct link). The 1049-foot-long Folly Beach Pier is 25 feet wide and features concrete pilings and substructure, with a wooden walkway and railings. Amenities at the Folly Beach Pier include restrooms, the Koko's on the Pier Restaurant and Bar, beach access, showers, and the Gangplank Gift & Tackle Shop (which sells gifts, sundry items, refreshments and tackle/bait, and offers rod rentals). The Folly Beach Pier offers accessible parking, restrooms, and water fountains, as well as an accessible ramp to the pier and an accessible route to the event area at the end of the pier. For additional information on the Folly Beach Pier, visit charlestoncountyparks.com.

Managed by the Charleston County Park and Recreation Commission (CCPRC), the Mount Pleasant Pier is located at 71 Harry M. Hallman Jr Blvd. Owned and operated by the Charleston County Park & Recreation Commission (CCPRC), the Folly Beach Fishing Pier is located at 101 East Arctic Avenue on Folly Beach. The mission of CCPRC is to improve the quality of life in Charleston County by offering a diverse system of park facilities, programs and services. The large park system features over 11,000 acres of property and includes six regional parks, three beach parks, four seasonally-lifeguarded beach areas, three dog parks, two landmark fishing piers, three waterparks, 19 boat landings, a skate park, a historic plantation site, a climbing wall, a challenge course, an interpretive center, an equestrian center, cottages, a campground, a marina, as well as wedding, meeting and event facilities.
