Sarovar Hotels has signed a new hotel deal in Dahisar, marking the group's strong foothold in the Mumbai market. The group has signed an agreement for a 112 suites hotel, Royal Homotel Suites, Dahisar. Sarovar currently operates over 73 operating hotels across 30 destinations in India and Africa.

Owned by Lion Pencils, Royal Homotel Suites is expected to open in 2018. With a key location, the hotel under development will offer all facilities of an international standard hotel.

Commenting on the development, Anil Madhok, Executive Chairman, Sarovar Hotels & Resorts, said, "We are delighted to sign yet another hotel in Mumbai which is one of our most significant markets. We are already present in Mumbai with all of our three brands Sarovar Premiere, Sarovar Portico and Homotel. With this new addition, we look forward to further growth in this city. It is an important location for us and a significant addition to our portfolio."
