

Atlanta Eats to Feature ATL Airport District in New Episode Airing September 9

Emmy-Award Winning Show to Spotlight District's Vibrant, Dynamic Dining Scene

ATLANTA – (September 8, 2023) – The ATL Airport District, the destination marketing organization for the cities of College Park, Hapeville and Union City, Georgia, today announced that five of its local restaurants will appear in an upcoming Atlanta Eats episode airing Saturday, September 9. The Emmy Award-winning program will showcase the destination's diverse culinary community in an hour-long spotlight on Peachtree TV (WPCH-TV) at 5:30 p.m. and on Atlanta News First (WANF-TV) at 11:30 p.m., and re-airing on Peachtree TV at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, September 17.

"We are thrilled to have the opportunity to showcase our flourishing restaurant community and the stories of some of the District's most unique dining venues on Atlanta's favorite food-focused TV show," said Cookie Smoak, president of the ATL Airport District. "We invite all foodies to tune in for an informative taste of the Southside, celebrating some truly hidden gems that are finally getting the moment in the spotlight that they deserve!"

The Atlanta Eats episode featuring the District will focus on the area's vibrant food scene, filled with artfully inspired dishes and beverages, Black and minority-owned restaurants, innovative dining atmospheres and more. Featured restaurants include Manchester Arms Pub, Aye Tea Elle, JPresso, Restaurant 356 and The Real Milk & Honey.

Atlanta Eats is the city's multi-media platform delivering engaging, entertaining and informative content to help food lovers discover the city's dining scene. The program was founded in 2012 by Steak Shapiro, one of the city's most visible media personalities and well-known food guy. Shapiro serves as the show's host and is also a frequent contributor to the Food Network. Atlanta Eats supports the local restaurant industry by educating both locals and tourists about the value of Atlanta as a food destination through television, digital and social media. The television show has won five Emmy Awards and broadcasts 60-minute segments on Peachtree TV every Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 10:30 a.m. as well as back-to-back 30-minute "Daily Special" segments airing at 9 a.m. on weekdays.

To learn more about the ATL Airport District, call 404-334-7500 or visit ATLdistrict.com. For updates on everything in “The District,” follow @ATLDistrict on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

For more information on Atlanta Eats, visit AtlantaEats.com or follow on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

###

About the ATL Airport District:

The ATL Airport District is the official destination marketing organization for the cities of College Park, Hapeville and Union City, Georgia. Home to the world’s most traveled airport, Georgia’s second largest convention center, more than 7,000 hotel rooms, an abundance of arts and culture, an eclectic mix of great restaurants, and located just minutes from downtown Atlanta, the ATL Airport District offers big-city amenities balanced with Southern charm.

Media Contact:

Cameron Trice, Hemsworth Communications
770-286-2207 or AADPR@HemsworthCommunications.com