“Birds of a Feather” returns to Caw Caw this Fall!

[RAVENEL, SC] – Calling all nature enthusiasts and social butterflies: Caw Caw Interpretive Center’s next Birds of a Feather event is set for Saturday, September 26! Enjoy an evening of music, food and exploring nature from 5 – 7 p.m.

Spread your wings and enjoy live music from Connor Hollifield, as well as beer and wine, which is included in the ticket price, all while experiencing the natural beauty of Caw Caw Interpretive Center. Food from Alekos Greek Gyros will be available for purchase.

Guests are also permitted to bring their own food. Valid ID must be presented for alcohol, and outside alcohol is prohibited. Ages 20 and under are welcome free of charge with a paid ticket holder. Non-drinkers are free and do not require a ticket. Dogs and bicycles are not permitted at this event. Guests are encouraged to bring their own chairs.

Caw Caw Interpretive Center is a 654-acre site in Ravenel that is rich in natural, cultural and historical resources. The site is a favored habitat for many different species of birds and animals. Caw Caw features more than seven miles of trails with trailside exhibits, elevated boardwalks through wetlands, historic rice fields, remnants of a former tea farm, and wildlife habitats.

Tickets are $20 per person in advance, or $25 the day of the event if not sold out (credit card only). To purchase tickets, visit <https://endurancecui.active.com/event-reg/select-race?e=95438818> or call 843-795-4386.
