Charleston County Parks hosts annual Inclusive Holiday Hoedown on Dec. 2

[NORTH CHARLESTON] – Mrs. Claus cordially invites people with disabilities, along with their families and friends, to a special holiday celebration, the annual Inclusive Holiday Hoedown! This evening of country-style holiday fun will be held at the Park Circle Community Building in North Charleston on Wednesday, Dec. 2 from 6 – 8 p.m.

Attendees are encouraged to dress in their favorite Western gear to welcome in the holiday season country-style.

A DJ will be on site to keep the hoedown rocking, and refreshments including pizza, snacks and drinks will be served. Santa himself as well as Mrs. Claus will be present to help the attendees kick off the holidays in a very merry way.

Tickets are $4 in advance or $5 at the event. Chaperones are required to register, but are free with a participant's registration. Advance purchase is recommended and tickets can be purchased by calling 843-795-4386. If you need financial assistance to attend, please email the Charleston County Parks Foundation for more information at admin@charlestoncountyparks.org.

The Park Circle Community Building is located at 4800 Park Circle in North Charleston and is owned by the City of North Charleston.

The Charleston County Park and Recreation Commission (CCPRC) is committed to creating and promoting inclusion for individuals of all abilities through inclusive recreation programs like the Holiday Hoedown. CCPRC also offers opportunities for inclusive visits with Santa at James Island County Park this holiday season. Other CCPRC Inclusive Recreation programs include Inclusive Swim Nights at the waterparks each summer, the Inclusive Superhero Dance Party in the spring and the Inclusive Prom in August.

For more information on the Holiday Hoedown and other Inclusive Recreation programs offered by Charleston County Parks, visit CharlestonCountyParks.com or call 843-795-4386. This event is hosted by Charleston County Parks, and also supported by the Charleston County Parks Foundation and the City of North Charleston.

The mission of CCPRC is to improve the quality of life in Charleston County by offering a diverse system of park facilities, programs and services. The large park system features over 11,000 acres of property and includes four land parks, three beach parks, four seasonally-lifeguarded beach areas, three dog parks, two landmark fishing piers, three waterparks, a skate park, 19 boat landings, a climbing wall, a challenge course, a historic plantation site, an interpretive center, an equestrian center, cottages, a campground, a marina, as well as wedding, meeting and event facilities. The park system offers a wide variety of recreational services – festivals, camps, classes, programs, and more.
