TRINITY ARTS GUILD’S “MAKING MEMORIES” EXHIBIT COMES TO GRAPEVINE THIS MARCH

GRAPEVINE, TEXAS (March 11, 2026) – A new art show is coming to Grapevine’s Tower Gallery this year, the Trinity Arts Guild’s “Making Memories” exhibit will be on display through the month of March.

Visitors can get a free glimpse at more than 100 art pieces, including acrylics, water media works, photography, sculptures and glass art.

What: Trinity Art Guild “Making Memories” Exhibit

When: Through Friday, April 3

- Mondays – Fridays 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.,
- Saturdays – Sundays 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Where: Grapevine Tower Gallery, 636 S. Main Street

The show features award-winning artists like Joanna Burch, a Dallas-area resident whose work has been on display for more than 20 years and earned multiple awards from the San Antonio Art League and Museum, New Braunfels Art League, Bosque Museum Annual Wildflower Art Exhibition and more. Burch has earned Master Teacher and Master Artist certifications from International Porcelain Artists and Teachers, which is headquartered in Grapevine.

This marks the Grapevine Tower Gallery’s first time hosting a Trinity Arts Guild exhibit. Founded in 1961, the Trinity Arts Guild is a group of artists from the Dallas Fort Worth area that help develop the region’s cultural environment with guild galleries and public forums.

On Saturday, March 28, the show will host a public awards reception for the artists from 1 – 3 p.m.
