SIP, STAY & EXPLORE: TEXAS WINE MONTH IN GRAPEVINE

GRAPEVINE, TEXAS (October 5, 2026) – Raise a glass to Texas Wine Month in Grapevine, the home of the Urban Wine Trail, where a love of grapes dates back to the wild Mustang grapes that once grew along the Grape Vine Prairie. Today, Grapevine is home to tasting rooms, GrapeFest® – A Texas Wine Experience, the Spring Wine Trail and a growing collection of wine experiences that make it easy to sip, stay and explore.

THE URBAN WINE TRAIL

Grapevine is home to the original Urban Wine Trail, featuring nine Texas winery tasting rooms within walking distance of one another along and around Historic Main Street. Visitors can sip Texas wines, enjoy flights and special tasting experiences, listen to live music and learn more about the people and stories behind each glass.

- Bingham Family Vineyards – 620 S. Main St.
- Bull Lion Ranch & Vineyard – 150 W. College St.
- Cross Timbers Winery – 805 N. Main St.
- Grape Vine Springs Winery – 409 S. Main St.
- Housewife Rebellion – 211 E. Worth St. (ALL NEW!)
- Landon Winery - Grapevine TX – 415 S. Main St.
- Messina Hof Grapevine Winery – 201 S. Main St.
- Red Dirt Cellars – 401 S. Main St.
- Winestein's Tasting Room – 280 N. Main St.

MORE TO DISCOVER

The wine experience continues beyond the Urban Wine Trail, with additional wine-focused businesses offering selections from Texas and around the world.

At Off The Vine Wineshop & Cellar, visitors can learn how to saber a bottle or enjoy a whiskey tasting. Wine Fusion offers $2 Tuesday Happy Hours, giving wine lovers another reason to add a stop to their Grapevine itinerary. At Farina's Winery & Café you can enjoy Spaghetti Pizza with your Chianti.

Between tastings, take time to explore Historic Main Street, where wine lovers can browse boutique shops, discover unique art galleries and enjoy thoughtfully curated cuisine at cafés, restaurants and bistros.
