

GIBB RIVER ROAD

Kimberley

Destination
KIMBERLEY

The Gibb River Road is one of Australia's most unique 4WD challenges. This legendary 660-kilometre stock route was originally built for droving cattle from Wyndham to Derby. Today, it's an epic adventure exploring the Kimberley's magnificent gorges, authentic outback cattle stations, ancient Indigenous culture and captivating pioneering history.

LEG 1

Derby to Windjana National Park

152 kilometres

- Windjana Gorge National Park is one of the Kimberley's most stunning gorges. Follow the 3.5 km walk trail to explore this ancient reef system formed around 350 million years ago.
- Tunnel Creek National Park is WA's oldest cave system. Take a torch-lit walk through the 750-metre tunnel and its subterranean world of bats and fresh water crocodiles.

LEG 2

Windjana National Park to Bell Gorge / Mount Hart Homestead

133 kilometres

- Bell Gorge is considered to be one of the Kimberley's most spectacular attractions, with a cascading 100-metre waterfall, inviting swimming pools and breathtaking cliff-top views.
- From Mount Hart Homestead, explore the remote ranges of King Leopold Range Conservation Park on foot or in a canoe.

LEG 3

Bell Gorge to Manning Gorge

86 kilometres

- Stop at Galvans Gorge for a bushwalk to spectacular granite outcrops and lily-filled waterways.
- Explore the walk trails and ancient Indigenous rock art sites of Manning Gorge, take a swim beneath the falls, or book a guided walk to Upper Manning Gorge.

LEG 4

Manning Gorge to Drysdale River Station

168 kilometres

- Take a scenic flight over Mitchell Falls and get an eagle's eye view of the coastal canyons of the Prince Regent River.

LEG 5

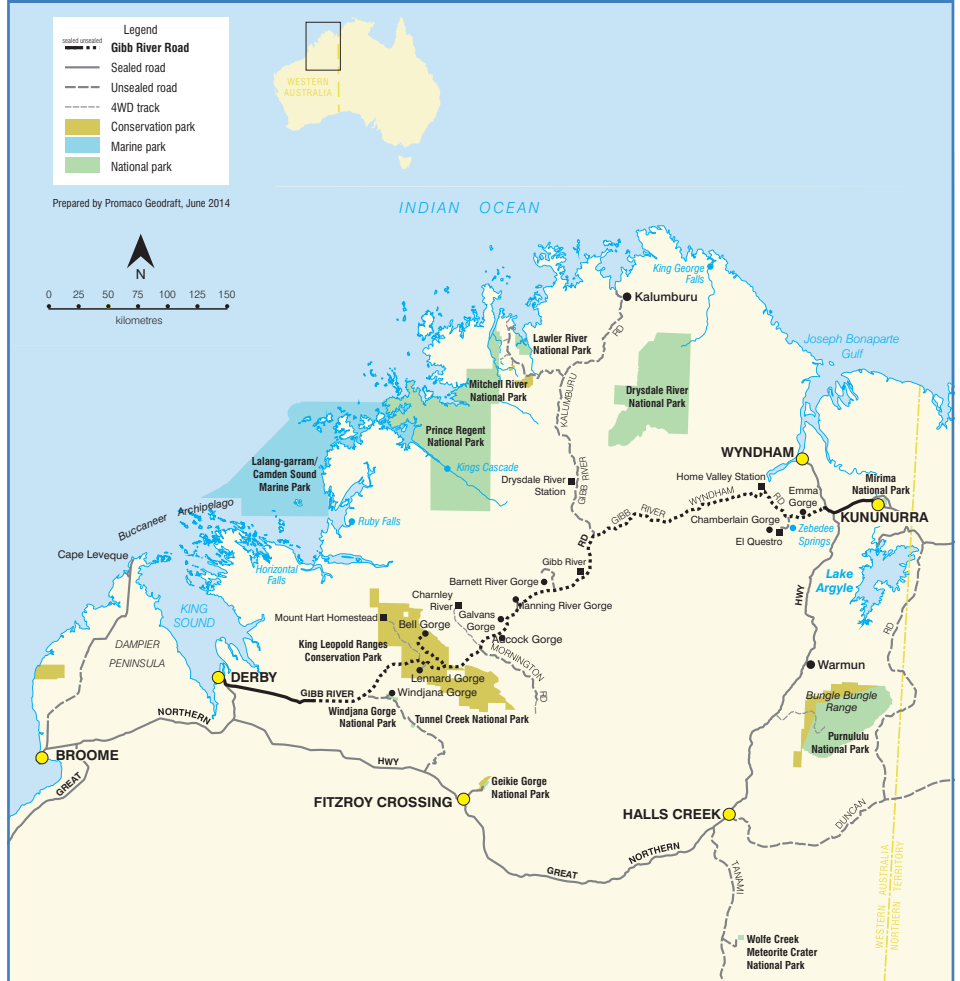

Drysdale River Station to Home Valley Station

136 kilometres

- Ride out with the stockmen and experience an authentic cattle muster at Home Valley Station.
