The second day of the Premier School League Kabaddi Tournament saw Udgam School march into the quarter-final stage with a convincing 62-33 win over Apollo International School on Wednesday.

BJ Tomar Hindi Prathamik Shala (BJTHPS) continued with their dominant run in the tournament as they brushed aside CN Kishore Vidyalay 62-21 in the biggest win of the day.

In a close match, Gangaba School held on to their nerves as they edged out Pragati School 40-34 to confirm their quarters berth.

In another match at The Arena, Rachana School came out with an impressive display as they ousted Kumkum English Medium School 76-39. In the quarters, Jyoti Vidyavihar will face Udgam School while Gangaba School will lock horns with Diwan Ballubhai English Medium School.

BJTHPS will face Diwan Ballubhai State while Rachana School will vie with SK Tiwari School for a place in the semis.
