

DATA BREACHES

From the United States military to the Filipino government, data breaches can affect companies, public-sector agencies and organisations of all types. This infographic charts some of the most notable hacks in recent history, how they happened and how many records were breached

TYPE OF FRAUD

- Hack
- Insider job
- Leak
- Lost/stolen media

COMPANY/RECORDS BREACHED

- 02 DAILYMOTION
85.2M
E-mail addresses and usernames stolen, some with associated passwords
- 03 FRIEND FINDER NETWORKS
412.2M
Customer details exposed from six adult-only networks; the breach comprised 20 years of historical customer data, including some who had deleted their accounts
- 04 MYSPACE
360M
User login data stolen and sold on an online hacker forum; only accounts created before 2013 were affected
- 05 VK
100.5M
Russian social network hacked and login credentials sold on the dark web
- 06 ANTHEM
80M
Personal information and social security numbers of customers who had been enrolled since 2004 stolen
- 07 COMELEC (PHILIPPINES)
55M
Election information stolen by Anonymous and posted online to highlight vulnerabilities in the voting system
- 08 TURKISH GOVERNMENT
49.6M
Personal information and identification numbers of Turkish citizens leaked online in a politically motivated hack
- 09 DEEP ROOT ANALYTICS
198M
Voter information accidentally stored on publicly accessible server by a firm working for the Republican National Committee
- 10 SECURUS TECHNOLOGIES
70M
Recordings of phone calls from inmates were leaked, possibly by an internal employee, in a massive breach of attorney-client privilege
- 12 eBAY
145M
User records copied after hackers obtain login details from employees
- 13 J.P. MORGAN CHASE
76M
Names, phone numbers, e-mail and physical addresses captured by hackers; the bank claims no financial information was compromised
- 14 TARGET
70M
Hackers installed software on tills in store over Thanksgiving to steal customers' credit and debit card data
- 15 HOME DEPOT
56M
Malware on the retailer's point-of-sale systems compromised customers' credit and debit card details over a five-month period

YEAR

- 2017
- 2016
- 2015
- 2014
- 2013
- 2012
- 2011
- 2009
- 2007
- 2004

ORGANISATION

- WEB/TECHNOLOGY
- SOCIAL MEDIA
- FINANCIAL
- RETAIL
- MISC
- GOVERNMENT
- HEALTHCARE
- GAMING
- MILITARY

COMPANY/RECORDS BREACHED

- 17 TUMBLR
65M
Personal information from user accounts was stolen and put up for sale on the dark web; the hack was not revealed until 2016
- 18 EVERNOTE
50M
Company resets passwords of every single user after hackers gained access to usernames, e-mail addresses and encrypted passwords
- 19 LIVINGSOCIAL
50M
Hackers steal login credentials of user information from the majority of the website's customers
- 20 COURT VENTURES
200M
Vietnamese national poses as client and steals personal, financial and social security data of millions of Americans
- 21 MISCELLANEOUS
160M
Hacking ring steals credit and debit card numbers from banks, payment processors and retail chains over eight years
- 22 LINKEDIN
177M
User credentials hacked and sold on the dark web
- 23 DROPBOX
68.7M
Users' e-mail addresses and passwords were stolen in 2012, and then leaked on hacker trading sites in 2016
- 24 SONY PLAYSTATION
77M
Week-long network outage occurs after an "illegal and unauthorised person" obtains gamers' personal information
- 25 HEARTLAND
130M
Hackers steal the digital information encoded on to magnetic strips of credit and debit cards, allowing them to fashion counterfeits
- 26 US MILITARY
76M
The National Archives and Records Administration sent a defective, unencrypted hard drive for repair without first destroying the data which included veterans' social security numbers dating back ...
- 27 TK/TJ MAXX
94M
Hackers breach retailer's Minnesota store wi-fi to steal credit and debit card information
- 28 AOL
92M
Former software engineer sells customer information to spammers who sent out ...