The Ins and Outs of getting In or Out of a Home.

What about a lawyer? What about insurance? What about closing costs? What about a little help?
At McGuire Real Estate, we've been selling homes in San Francisco since 1919, and that's a lot of experience.
And with our new Relocation Booklet, we can help make your experience of buying or selling a home, more manageable and much more satisfying.
The booklet includes charts, graphs, a glossary and checklists to help keep the nuts and bolts of buying or selling a house from driving you nuts.
It's all here and it's on the house. Just contact McGuire today for your free copy.

929-1500

An investment you can live with.

New Address
2001 Lombard Street, San Francisco, CA 94123
The Ins and Outs of getting In or Out of a Home.

At McGuire Real Estate, we've been selling homes in San Francisco since 1938, and that's a lot of experience.

And with our new Relocation Booklet, we can help make your experience of buying or selling a home, more manageable and much more satisfying.

The booklet includes charts, graphs, a glossary and checklists to help keep the nuts and bolts of buying or selling a house from driving you nuts.

It's all here and it's on the house. Just contact McGuire today for your free copy.

929-1500

An investment you can live with.

New Address
2001 Lombard Street, San Francisco, CA 94123
DISCOVER a new world right beneath your fingers

Now there is an amazing variety of YAMAHA keyboards

"Portable-synths" FM digital synthesizers and, of course, our magnificent pianos and Electric organs.

WIDEN YOUR HORIZONS!
The joy of creating music will put you on top of the world!

YAMAHA - the future of music

G. Leuenberger
Company
727 Market Street (at Grant)
Sales • Service • Piano Rentals
Tel: (415) 543-1888

AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE
The Geary Theatre
April 1982

CONTENTS
8 In the A.C.T.
16 Who's Who at A.C.T.

Following page 34

Hats Off to Hutchins
PAINTING CHURCHES
Playbill
The Way of Howe
OUR TOWN Playbill
Wilder's World

44 To The Audience
48 A.C.T. Contributors
68 A.C.T. Company, Staff & Administration
70 Geary Theatre Fire Exits

Cover: Peter Durst, Scott Bishop and Annette Beazly in Our Town
Photo: Larry Marks

American Conservatory Theatre Magazine is a Performing Arts Publication. All rights reserved, 1982 by Performing Arts West, Inc. Reproduction from this magazine without permission is prohibited.

IMPORTED
LIQUORE SPECIALITE ANGEN
FRANCE
A. COINTREAU
DISCOVER a new world right beneath your fingers

"Portable-organ" FM digital synthesizers and, of course, our magnificent pianos and Electone organs.

WIDEN YOUR HORIZONS!
The joy of creating music will put you on top of the world!

G. Leuenberger
Company
727 Market Street (at Grant)
Sales • Service • Piano Rentals
Tel: (415) 543-1888

AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE
The Geary Theatre
April 1945

CONTENTS
8 In the A.C.T.
16 Who's Who at A.C.T.

Following page 34

Hats Off To Hutchins
PAINTING CHURCHES
Playbill
The Way of Howe
OUR TOWN Playbill
Wilder's World

44 To The Audience
48 A.C.T. Contributors
68 A.C.T. Company, Staff & Administration
70 Geary Theatre Fire Exits

Cover: Peter Drake; Scott Bishop and Annette Baxing in OurTown.
Photo: Larry Merkle

American Conservatory Theatre Magazine is a Performing Arts Publication. All rights reserved. Copyright 1983 by Performing Arts Network. Reproduction from this magazine without permission is prohibited.
V E R Y , V E R Y
S A N F R A N C I S C O
D I N N E R  A T
P I E R R E .
V e r y
V e r y
S E N S A T I O N A L  C U I S I N E .
V e r y
V e r y
W E L L ,  M E R I D I E N !
H O T E L  M E R I D I E N
S A N  F R A N C I S C O
5 0  T H I R D  S T R E E T  S A N  F R A N C I S C O
C A L I F O R N I A  9 4 1 0 3
P H O N E ( 4 1 5 ) 9 3 8 - 5 4 0 0
F R E E  V A L E Y  P A R K I N G  O N  P R E M I S E S

P E R F O R M I N G  A R T S  N E T W O R K
C A L I F O R N I A ' S  T H E A T R E  & M U S I C  M A G A Z I N E
G I L M A N  K R A F T
P r e s i d e n t
I R W I N  M .  F R I E S
E x e c u t i v e  V i c e  P r e s i d e n t  &  A d m i n i s t r a t i v e  D i r e c t o r
M . E .  M E R R I M A N
V i c e  P r e s i d e n t
M I C H E L  P I S A N I
V i c e  P r e s i d e n t
H A R R Y  S .  L A N D O ,
T o o l  C h a i r m a n
A m a n c h i s E d i t i o n
H E R B E R T  G R E E N
E d i t o r - i n - C h i e f
M I C H E L  P I S A N I
P a s s e s
J E F F R E Y  H I R S C H
A m e r i c a n  C o n s e r v a t o r y  P h o t o
F r e e n  E d i t o r
F L O R E N C E  Q U A R T A R A D O
A d v e r t i s i n g  M a n a g e r
M A R I T A  D O R S E N B E C H E R
A s s i s t a n t  E d i t o r
F R A N  G E A N A R
A s s o c i a t e  E d i t o r
K A T H E R Y N  B U R N E T T
A d v e r t i s i n g  A s s o c i a t e
M A R I A N  J O H N S O N
M a n a g i n g  E d i t o r
K A R E N  W A T T S
A r t  D i r e c t o r
E D W A R D  O R T H
P r o d u c e r  M a n a g e r
E L L E N  M E L T O N
A d v e r t i s i n g  C a n d i d a t e

P e r f o r m i n g  A r t s  N e t w o r k ,  I n c .,  p u b l i s h e r  o f  P e r f o r m i n g  A r t s  M a g a z i n e ,  i n  t h e  f o l l o w i n g  c i t i e s :
L a s  V e g a s ,  N V ( 7 0 2 ) 3 4 4 - 8 8 0 0
A u t h o r i z e d  A b s t r a c t  E d i t o r
H a a n  A s s o c i a t e s
T H E  C E N T E R  C O N S E R V A T O R Y
E d i t o r
E d w a r d  O r t h
P r o d u c e r  M a n a g e r
E l l e n  M e l t o n
A d v e r t i s i n g  C a n d i d a t e d r a m a  i n  T h r e e  A c t s

F r o m  o u r  c o l l e c t i o n  o f  i m p o r t a n t  p r e c i o u s  s t o n e s ,  r i n g s w o r t h y  o f  c e n t e r  s t a g e .  S e t  w i t h  d i a m o n d s  i n  p l a t i n u m  a n d e i g h t e e n  k a r a t  g o l d .  F r o m  l e f t :  s a p h i r e ,  e m e r a l d ,  r u b y .

T I F F A N Y & C O .
S A N  F R A N C I S C O  •  2 5 2  G R A N T  A V E N U E  •  9 4 1 0 2
C O M P L E E  O R D E R  C A L L  4 1 5 - 7 8 1 - 7 0 0 3  •  F T  & C 2 3 0 8 5

R e p r o d u c i t i o n  f r o m  t h e s e  m a g a z i n e s  w i t h o u t  w r i t t e n  p e r m i s s i o n  i s  p r o h i b i t e d .
A l l  r i g h t s  r e s e r v e d  1 9 8 8  b y  P e r f o r m i n g  A r t s  N e t w o r k ,  I n c .
R e p r o d u c t i o n  f r o m  t h e s e  m a g a z i n e s  w i t h o u t  w r i t t e n  p e r m i s s i o n  i s  p r o h i b i t e d .
A l l  r i g h t s  r e s e r v e d  1 9 8 8  b y  P e r f o r m i n g  A r t s  N e t w o r k ,  I n c .
R e p r o d u c t i o n  f r o m  t h e s e  m a g a z i n e s  w i t h o u t  w r i t t e n  p e r m i s s i o n  i s  p r o h i b i t e d .
IN THE A.C.T.

News of the American Conservatory Theatre

has operated his authentic soda fountain and sweet shop for almost as long as Our Town has been performed—since 1940. (The store itself was built in 1918.) Does Donat's skill at concocting bubbly concoctions equal that of veteran counterman Christie's? You'll have to visit the St. Francis to judge for yourself!

SPRING PLAYS PROLOGUED
This season's final two Prologues are scheduled for Monday, April 8, when director Janice Hutchins will discuss Painting Chance, and Monday, May 6, when William Ball offers commentary on Man Appal. Both are at 5:30 p.m. at the Geary Theatre. Seating for these lively discussions is unreserved and free of charge. All are welcome.

A SWEET STORY
In Our Town, the role of the Stage Manager has many duties, not the least of which is the drawing of strawberry sodas for high school sweethearts George and Emily. Peter Donat, who does cap and apron to play a soda jerk in a scene from Thornton Wilder's landmark drama, pantomimes the action with amazing accuracy. But where did he learn the rudiments of this lost art?

At 24th and York Streets, home of the St. Francis Candy Store, Donat and cast members Scott Bishop and Annette Benning, along with directors Janice Hutchins and William Ball, traveled to the Mission District shop to prepare for their roles in Our Town and bask in nostalgia. For Donat, it was also an opportunity to pick up a few pointers. Owner Chris Christie

JOBSEARCH '85
Every year about this time, young actors begin polishing their audition material for the benefit of casting directors unfamiliar with their work. A.C.T. Conservatory students are no exception. In recent months, representatives from local theatres, summer stock companies and talent agencies visited A.C.T. to look over the student acting pool. The visitors witnessed what for many students represents their best chance to break into the business.

Veteran A.C.T. actor Sydney Walker, who teaches a class in Audition Technique in the Conservatory, says that while auditioning can be a grueling experience for the young actor, it must be remembered that "Those doing the hiring need talented performers as badly as ambitious
IN THE A.C.T.
News of the American Conservatory Theatre

A SWEET STORY
In Our Town, the role of the Stage Manager has many duties, not the least of which is the drawing of strawberry sodas for high school sweethearts George and Emily. Peter Donat, who does cap and apron to play a soda jerk in a scene from Thornton Wilder’s landmark drama, panto- mimes the action with amazing accuracy. But where did he learn the rudiments of this lost art?

At 24th and York Streets, home of the St. Francis Candy Store, Donat and cast members Scot Bishop and Annette Benning, along with directors Janice Hutchins and William Ball, traveled to the Mission District shop to prepare for their roles in Our Town and bask in nostalgia. For Donat, it was also an opportunity to pick up a few pointers. Owner Chris Christie has operated his authentic soda fountain and sweet shop for almost as long as Our Town has been performed—since 1940. (The store itself was built in 1918.) Does Donat’s skill at concocting bubbly concoctions equal that of veteran counterman Christie’s? You’ll have to visit the St. Francis to judge for yourself.

SPRING PLAYS PROLOGUED
This season’s final two Prologues are scheduled for Monday, April 8, when director Janice Hutchins will discuss Painting Charlie, and Monday, May 6, when William Ball offers commentary on Man Appra. Both are at 5:30 p.m. at the Geary Theatre. Seating for these lively discussions is unreserved and free of charge. All are welcome.

JOBSLEASE ’85
Every year about this time, young actors begin polishing their audition material for the benefit of casting directors unfamiliar with their work. A.C.T. Conservatory students are no exception. In recent months, representatives from regional theatres, summer stock companies and talent agencies visited A.C.T. to look over the student acting pool. The visitors witnessed what for many students represents their best chance to break into the business.

Veteran A.C.T. actor Sydney Walker, who teaches a class in Audition Technique in the Conservatory, says that while auditioning can be a grueling experience for the young actor, it must be remembered that “Those doing the hiring need talented performers as badly as ambitious actors need work.
Second-year student Peter Bradley meets high marks from Stephanie Shriver who is slated to teach dance in A.C.T.’s Summer Training Congress.

While A.C.T. hosts many such auditions, Conservatory students cannot always have the jobs come to them. On March 31, third-year students, who as A.C.T. journeymen have already gained some professional exposure, made a trek to New York where they performed a program comprised of selections from the plays of William Shakespeare and Lanford Wilson at the League of Professional Theatre Program’s Annual Presentation. The twenty-five minute program was subsequently performed by the delegation in San Francisco for A.C.T. benefactors. Congratulations to all those students who participated.

SUMMER SCHOOL AT A.C.T.

A reminder to all those interested in summer offerings in the A.C.T. Young Conservatory: a full range of classes for aspiring performers ages eight to eighteen, including acting technique, scene study, musical theatre, tap dance, improvisation and Shakespeare are now available for sign-up. The first session begins June 17 and ends July 19, and the second session runs from July 22 through August 23, 1985. Registration deadline for the two, five week sessions is May 15. For more information, contact Linda Aldrich at 415-771-3880.

This summer will also feature advanced actor training during A.C.T.’s Summer Training Congress, a ten week, intensive professional theatre course designed for experienced and novice students alike. Dates for the session are June 17 through August 23, 1985. Telephone 415-771-3880, ext. 230 for additional information. Academic credit and financial aid are available.

—Ralph Hopkins

Third-year student Romaric Smith (l) pictured here with Francine Teller in “Our Town”, was among Conservatory students who recently auditioned in New York.
actors need work.”

While A.C.T. hosts many such auditions, Conservatory students cannot always have the jobs come to them. On March 31, third-year students, who as A.C.T. journeymen have already gained some professional exposure, made a trek to New York where they performed a program comprised of selections from the plays of William Shakespeare and Lanford Wilson at the League of Professional Theatre Program’s Annual Presentation. The twenty-five minute program was subsequently performed by the delegation in San Francisco for A.C.T. benefactors. Congratulations to all those students who participated.

SUMMER SCHOOL AT A.C.T.

A reminder to all those interested in summer offerings at the A.C.T. Young Conservatory: a full range of classes for aspiring performers ages eight to eighteen, including acting technique, scene study, musical theatre, tap dance, improvisation and Shakespeare are now available for sign-up. The first session begins June 17 and ends July 19, and the second session runs from July 22 through August 23, 1985. Registration deadline for the two, five week sessions is May 15. For more information, contact Linda Aldrich at 415-771-3860.

This summer will also feature advanced actor training during A.C.T.’s Summer Training Congress, a ten week, intensive professional theatre course designed for experienced and novice students alike. Dates for the session are June 17 through August 23, 1985. Telephone 415-771-3860 ext. 220 for additional information. Academic credit and financial aid are available.

—Ralph Hopkins
San Francisco Chronicle

Things Are in Order At ACT, State Finds

BY JESSE HAMLIN

The American Conservatory Theater, burdened by a $1.5 million deficit and extensive media scrutiny of its finances, has received a clean bill of health from the state Attorney General’s office, The Chronicle learned yesterday.

“We found nothing improper,” said deputy attorney general Joanne Condas, after concluding an informal inquiry.

“The whole thing was a tempest in a teapot,” said Condas. “The investigation was prompted by charges in the media of financial mismanagement at ACT. I think we were had by the media.”

Condas, who monitors nonprofit organizations for the state’s Registry of Charitable Trusts, said she spent “a good deal of my time over the past several weeks” going over ACT’s financial records with a Registry auditor, both at the Registry office in Sacramento and at ACT’s offices on Geary Street. She also interviewed ACT general director William Ball.

Condas declined to list specific areas of inquiry, saying only, “Our policy is not to disclose the details of such an investigation.”

The informal inquiry was begun last month following stories in the San Francisco Examiner that reported on ACT’s finances.

Among the issues raised by the Examiner in recent weeks was Ball’s reported investment of a $450,000 Ford Foundation grant in gold bullion for an administrative pension plan.

Questions were also raised about Ball’s rejection of a $1 million cash gift to the theater company. Ball turned down the donation, offered specifically to help pay off ACT’s mortgage on the Geary Theater, because he wouldn’t comply with the donor’s stipulation that the prorata remaining monies be returned if ACT ever left San Francisco. ACT’s rising administrative expenses also have come under scrutiny.

ACT has consistently refused to comment on these issues, and yesterday ACT spokesman Dennis Powers had “no comment” on the attorney general’s findings.

At the beginning of the ACT season in October, an article in the Chronicle Sunday Datebook detailed the company’s growing deficit and fund-raising difficulties.
San Francisco Chronicle

Things Are in Order At ACT, State Finds

BY JESSE HAMLIN

The American Conservatory Theater, burdened by a $1.5 million deficit and extensive media scrutiny of its finances, has received a clean bill of health from the state Attorney General's office, the Chronicle learned yesterday.

"We found nothing improper," said deputy attorney general Joanne Condas, after concluding an informal inquiry.

"The whole thing was a tempest in a teapot," said Condas. "The investigation was prompted by charges in the media of financial mismanagement at ACT. I think we were had by the media."

Condas, who monitors nonprofit organizations for the state's Registry of Charitable Trusts, said she spent "a good deal of my time over the past several weeks" going over ACT's financial records with a Registry auditor, both at the Registry office in Sacramento and at ACT's offices on Geary Street. She also interviewed ACT general director William Ball.

Condas declined to list specific areas of inquiry, saying only, "Our policy is not to disclose the details of such an investigation."

The informal inquiry was begun last month following stories in the San Francisco Examiner that reported on ACT's finances.

Among the issues raised by the Examiner in recent weeks was Ball's reported investment of a $450,000 Ford Foundation grant in gold bullion for an administrative pension plan.

Questions were also raised about Ball's rejection of a $1 million cash gift to the theater company. Ball turned down the donation, offered specifically to help pay off ACT's mortgage on the Geary Theater, because he wouldn't comply with the donor's stipulation that the pro rata remaining monies be returned if ACT ever left San Francisco. ACT's rising administrative expenses also have come under scrutiny.

ACT has consistently refused to comment on these issues, and yesterday ACT spokesman Dennis Powers had "no comment" on the attorney general's findings.

At the beginning of the ACT season in October, an article in the Chronicle Sunday Datebook detailed the company's growing deficit and fund-raising difficulties.
Imagine a place in which the workday includes face-to-face meetings with colleagues miles, continents, even oceans apart—without so much as stepping out of the office.

That's the way you can do business when you're equipped with videoconferencing.

Videoconferencing is just one of the advanced telecommunication capabilities built into Harbor Bay Business Park—the most remarkable business development in North America.

Harbor Bay Business Park is the headquarters of the new Bay Area Teleport. The Teleport provides instant transmission of voice and data worldwide. And that's only the beginning.

There are data processing and electronic mail networks. High-speed digital microwave transmissions. Satellite uplinks. General signaling for security, fire and life safety, energy management, and building system management.

It's one thing to imagine all this. It's quite another to see it in action. We can show it to you, and it will certainly be worth your while to take a look. Contact Steve Wade at (415) 521-4123, and let us help you arrange a tour. It might be your first, best chance to meet the future.

Face to face.
Imagine a place in which the workday includes face-to-face meetings with colleagues miles, continents, even oceans apart—without so much as stepping out of the office.

That's the way you can do business when you're equipped with videoconferencing.

Videoconferencing is just one of the advanced telecommunications capabilities built into Harbor Bay Business Park—the most remarkable business development in North America.

Harbor Bay Business Park is the headquarters of the new Bay Area Teleport. The Teleport provides instant transmission of voice and data worldwide. And that's only the beginning.

There are data processing and electronic mail networks. High-speed digital microwave transmissions. Satellite uplinks. General signaling for security, fire and life safety, energy management, and building system management.

It's one thing to imagine all this. It's quite another to see it in action. We can show it to you, and it will certainly be worth your while to take a look. Contact Steve Wade at (415) 521-4123, and let us help you arrange a tour. It might be your first, best chance to meet the future.

Face to face.
WHO'S WHO AT A.C.T

ScoT BISHOP joins the A.C.T. company this season to play the role of George Gibbs in "Our Town." Following two years as a business major, Mr. Bishop left San Francisco State University to enroll in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, where he is currently a second-year student. In A.C.T.'s Workshop productions, he has performed the role of Hamlet, Randall Utterwood in "Northworb House," and Richard Miller in "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Appeared in "Dial M for Murder." Summer Repertory, he played Clown in "Finger Lickin' Good" and the role of Cliff in "The Woolgathering," also presented earlier this season as a special event for A.C.T. benefactors.

Kate BRICKLEY, a native of Sturgoen Bay,
WHO'S WHO AT A.C.T

ANNETTE BENING joined the A.C.T. company in 1982 after completing the Advanced Training Program. She holds a bachelor's degree from San Francisco State University and has appeared as a leading actress with the San Diego Repertory Theatre and at Shakespeare festivals in San Diego, Saratoga, Colorado and Berkeley. In addition to roles in "Ars and the Man", "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and "The Sleeping Prince" for A.C.T. last season, she has appeared in the company's productions of "The Three Sisters", "The Cakewalk", "A Christmas Carol". For other resident theatres, Miss Bening has acted in "Timon of Athens", "The Lysistrata", "Romeo and Juliet", "Antony and Cleopatra", "All's Well That Ends Well", "The Winter's Tale", "Two Gentlemen of Verona", "King John" and "Hamlet". She has also performed on "Parent-Teacher's Meeting", a PBS national television series. This season Miss Bening appears in "The School for Wives", "Belle in A Christmas Carol", "Lady Macbeth in Macbeth" and "Emily in Our Town".

SCOT BISHOP joins the A.C.T. company this season to play the role of George Gibbs in Our Town. Following two years as a business major, Mr. Bishop left San Francisco State University to enroll in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, where he is currently a second-year student. In A.C.T.'s Workshop productions, he has performed the title role in Hamlet, Randall Utterwood in 10th Avenue House and Richard Miller in "A Midsummer Night's Dream". He appeared in "The Second Year of Youth" for Sunnyvale Summer Repertory, he played Clive in "Five Finger Exits" and the role of Clive in "The Wedgefillers", also presented earlier this season as a special event for A.C.T. benefactors.

JOSEPH BIRD is now in his 16th season with A.C.T. Educated at Penn State College and having studied with Lee Strasberg, he became a featured actor in New York's APA-Phoenix Repertory productions. Mr. Bird has spent much of his career performing at the Lyceum Theatre on Broadway, at the San Diego Shakespeare Festival's Old Globe and in numerous East Coast summer stock productions. His A.C.T. credits include "Paradise Lost", "Peer Gynt", "Merchant of Venice", "Travesties", "A Midsummer Night's Dream". Much Ado About Nothing, Richard II, "The Three Sisters", "A Christmas Carol" and "A Midsummer Night's Dream". Mr. Bird has also appeared on Broadway in "The Show-Off" with Helen Hayes and in "Hamlet" with Ellis Rabb.

KATE BRICKLEY, a native of Sturgeon Bay,
Wisconsin, was educated at the University of Wisconsin before continuing her training at A.C.T. She is now a company member and a voice instructor in the Advanced Training Program. A.C.T. fans have seen her previously in "Ondine" and "Peri Cont" on the Geary stage and in studio productions of "The Cherry Orchard," "The Sfins for Saalai and Trelawny of the Wells." At the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts, Miss Bickley appeared in "Romeo and Juliet," "Camelot" and "The Other Glory of Morning Hall."

GEORGE DELAY made his A.C.T. debut as Denzil in the 1963 production of "Lady." Born in Uruguay and raised in Salt Lake City, he attended the University of Utah before embarking on his theatrical career. His extensive dramatic experience includes Broadway, television, stock, repertory and regional stage work. He toured the U.S. and Canada as Jamie Lockhart in "The Robber Bridegroom," played Clarice in "The Imaginary Invalid," at the Cincinnati Playhouse on the Park and was seen on the ABC comedy series, "The Odd Couple." In 1983, he played Orlando to Deborah May's Rosalind in "As You Like It," the inaugural production of San Diego's Old Globe Theatre. They were married in 1983.

BARBARA DIRCKSON attended A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. Prior to the three-year course of study, she attended the Perry

GEORGE DELAY made his A.C.T. debut as Denzil in the 1963 production of "Lady." Born in Uruguay and raised in Salt Lake City, he attended the University of Utah before embarking on his theatrical career. His extensive dramatic experience includes Broadway, television, stock, repertory and regional stage work. He toured the U.S. and Canada as Jamie Lockhart in "The Robber Bridegroom," played Clarice in "The Imaginary Invalid," at the Cincinnati Playhouse on the Park and was seen on the ABC comedy series, "The Odd Couple." In 1983, he played Orlando to Deborah May's Rosalind in "As You Like It," the inaugural production of San Diego's Old Globe Theatre. They were married in 1983.

BARBARA DIRCKSON attended A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. Prior to the three-year course of study, she attended the Perry

Wisconsin, was educated at the University of Wisconsin before continuing her training at A.C.T. She is now a company member and a voice instructor in the Advanced Training Program. A.C.T. fans have seen her previously in Oddilo and Pier Cot in the Geary stage and in studio productions of The Cherry Orchard, The School for Scandal and Treason of the Wits. At the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts, Miss Blakley appeared in Romeo and Juliet, Candide and The Other Glory of Marian Hill.

GEORGE DELOY made his A.C.T. debut as Demetrius in the 1983 production of Love's Labour's Lost. Born in Uruguay and raised in Salt Lake City, he attended the University of Utah before embarking on his theatrical career. His extensive dramatic experience includes Broadway, television, stock, repertory and regional stage work. He toured the U.S. and Canada as Jamie Lockhart in The Butler Did It and played Charlie in The Imaginary Invalid at the Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park and was seen on the ABC comedy series, 25 to 5. In 1983 he played Orlando to Deborah May's Rosalind in As You Like It, the inaugural production of San Diego's Old Globe Theatre. They were married in 1983.

BARBARA DICKSON attended A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. Prior to the three year course of study, she attended the Perry Mansfield School of Theatre and Dance in Steamboat Springs, Colorado. Since joining the acting company, Miss Dickson has appeared in over 35 productions on the Geary stage and has toured with the company to Hawaii, Japan and the U.S.S.R. Her work on the Geary stage includes roles in Camino de Borgoña, The Matchmaker (U.S.S.R. tour), By the Reversal, Birdie Child, Another Part of the Forest, The Three Sisters, Uncle Vanya, The flakes and 5th of July. Last season she performed in Dial "M" for Murder, Angels in America and The Dying. Miss Dickson's roles this season include Kate in Old Times and Mags in Painting Churches. Other acting credits include Skuy with Sada Thompson at the Westport Country Playhouse, Sorrows of Stephen and The Importance of Being Earnest with Ellis Rabb at San Diego's Old Globe Theatre and Lou Grant and Incident at Centerpiece for television.

PETER DONAT joined A.C.T. in 1986. He was born in Nova Scotia, attended the Yale Drama School, toured extensively, and spent six seasons with Canada's Stratford Shakespearean Festival. In New York, he has performed both off- and on Broadway, where he received the Theatre World Award for Best Featured Actor of 1997, and with Ellis Rabb's legendary APA Repertory Company. At A.C.T., he has appeared in many productions, including The Merchant of Venice, Hadrian VII, A Doll's House, Camino de Borgoña, Uncle Vanya, and Superman, The Little Fates, Uncle Vanya, The Sleeping Prince and, this season, in The School for Wives, Macbeth and Our Town. Mr. Donat starred in the NBC TV series, Pennsylvania Road. His film credits include The Hudsucker, The Chinese Syndrome, A Different Story, Godfather II and The Big Easy, opposite Lu Ullmann.

GEORGE ELLIOTT joins the A.C.T. company this year as a third-year student in the Advanced Training Program. Graduating with a B.F.A. from the University of Florida, where he was a recipient of the Stoughton Scholarship for acting. Mr. Elliott studied with David Sheldon and Richard Green while appearing in Puck and TuesWit Night. In addition to studio productions of Coriolanus, The Lower Depths and The Mousetrap Builders, Mr. Elliott was seen most recently in The Merchant of Venice and Othello for the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival. He has also performed roles in Romeo and Juliet and The Time of Your Life for the Western Stage. This season, Mr. Elliott is featured in The School for Wives and Translators.

DREW ESHELMAN attended A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program in 1973-74, and first appeared with the company in The Raging Glen as well as in numerous student productions. He was seen most recently in the extended local run of Cloud Nine at the Eureka, Marines' Memorial and Akaar theatres, in addition to a featured role in the film The Right Stuff and a television appearance on Shamam and Partners in Crime. Other major stage productions include Hamlet at the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival and The Tempest and The Taming of the Shrew at San Diego's Old Globe Theatre. Additionally, Mr. Eshelman was a member of the original cast and in the Los Angeles revival of One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Last season at A.C.T., he appeared in A Midsummer Night's Dream.

ILL FINN joins the A.C.T. company for her first season. She attended North Texas State University and trained in A.C.T.'s Intermediate Acting Program with Paul Blake and William Ball. For a year, she toured with the Texas-based Alpha-Omega Players in The World of Carl Sandburg: Aria De Cape Endgame and an Eve in The Diary of Adam and Eve. While at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, she was seen as Muriel McCumber in Ah, Wilderness! and was in a Black Swan Project of Peer/Perch.

SCOTT FREEMAN attains the status of Journeyman this year, following roles in last season's repertory production of The Sleeping Prince and studio productions in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. His training at A.C.T. was preceded by receipt of a B.A. in Drama from California State University at Fullerton, and work in the Summer Conservatory at South Coast Repertory Theatre. In addition to A.C.T., where he performed studio roles in Twelfth Night, Cymbeline, Romeo and Juliet, Barberians and Pencit, he has also performed both major and supporting roles for the Valley Shakespeare Festival, appearing in Love's Labour's Lost and As You Like It. He was seen by Bay Area audiences recently in the Berkeley Repertory Theatre's production of Haruki Mode and appeared in the Parallax Productions film Listening for Serpents.

SCOTT HITCHCOCK returns to A.C.T. after a one-year working hiatus, as a company member and Master of Fine Arts candidate in the Advanced Training Program. Following a B.A. in Theatre from the University of Washington, Mr. Hitchcock entered A.C.T.'s Conservatory in 1981, later appearing in studio productions of Henry IV, parts I and II and Ili: Rome and Juliet: Barbarians and Pencit. He has also performed both major and supporting roles for the Valley Shakespeare Festival, appearing in Love's Labour's Lost and As You Like It. He was seen by Bay Area audiences recently in the Berkeley Repertory Theatre's production of Haruki Mode and appeared in the Parallax Productions film Listening for Serpents.

WENDELL GRAYSON joins the company this season as a third-year student in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. He comes to San Francisco from Ft. Worth, where he performed for the Ft. Worth Shakespeare in the Park. A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin with a B.F.A. in acting, Mr. Grayson has also performed for the Summer Repertory Theatre in Santa Rosa. While at school at A.C.T., he appeared in studio productions of Greek Pot and The Three Sisters. The Lower Depths* and The Lady's Not For Burning. Mr. Grayson claims, as a special skill, the art of one-hand clapping.

JOHANNA JACKSON has been involved with A.C.T. since 1977. She has studied with the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Santa Maria, California, where she also a B.F.A. from the University of Florida, where he was a recipient of the Stoughton Scholarship for acting. Mr. Elliott studied with David Sheldon and Richard Green while appearing in "Picnic" and "Twelfth Night." In addition to studio productions of "Cymbeline," "The Lower Depths," and "The Moon" by Shakespeare, Mr. Elliott was seen most recently in "The Merchant of Venice" and "Othello" for the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival. He has also performed roles in "Romeo and Juliet" and "The Time of Your Life" for the Western Stage. This season, Mr. Elliott is featured in "The School for Wives and Translators." If I were to join the A.C.T. company for her first season. She attended North Texas State University and trained in A.C.T.'s Intermediate Acting Program with Paul Blake and William Ball. For a year, she toured with the Texas-based Alpha-Omega Players in "The World of Carl Sandburg: Are You Cape Endorse and an Eve in "The Diary of Adam and Eve." While at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, she was seen as Meriel in "The Winters Tale" and was in a Black Swan Project of "Pizza/Pair." B.A. in acting. Mr. Grayson has also performed for the Summer Repertory Theatre in Santa Rosa. While a student at A.C.T., he appeared in studio productions of "Golden Age," "Our Town," "The Three Sisters," "The Lower Depths," and "The Lady's Not for Burning." Mr. Grayson claims, as a special skill, the art of one-handed clapping.

DREW ESHELMAN attended A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program in 1973-74, and first appeared with the company in "The Ruling Class," as well as in numerous student productions. He has been seen most recently in the extended local run of "Cloud Nine" at the Eureka, Marines' Memorial and Akaash theatres, in addition to a featured role in the film "The Right Stuff" and a television appearance on "Shamus and Partners in Crime." Other major stage productions include "Hamlet" at the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival, and "The Tempest" at the Shaw Festival at San Diego's Old Globe Theatre. Additionally, Mr. Eshelman was a member of the original cast and in the Los Angeles revival of "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest." Last season at A.C.T., he appeared in "A Midsummer Night's Dream." SCOTT FREEMAN attains the status of journeyman this year, following roles in last season's repertory production of "The Sleeping Prince" and studio productions in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. His training at A.C.T. was preceded by receipt of a Bachelor of Arts from California State University at Fullerton, and work in the Summer Conservatory at South Coast Repertory Theatre. In addition to A.C.T., where he performed studio roles in "Twelfth Night," "Chichken in Yella" and "A Tale Told," his professional experience includes the Carousel Shakespeare Festival, and understudying the role of Mordred in the Old Globe Theatre's production of "Quoiam's Terns." WENDELL GRAYSON joins the company this season as a third-year student in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. He comes to San Francisco from Ft. Worth, where he performed for the Ft. Worth Shakespeare in the Park. A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin with a B.F.A. in acting, Mr. Grayson has also performed for the Summer Repertory Theatre in Santa Rosa. While a student at A.C.T., he appeared in studio productions of "Golden Age," "Our Town," "The Three Sisters," "The Lower Depths," and "The Lady's Not for Burning." Mr. Grayson claims, as a special skill, the art of one-handed clapping.

SCOTT HITCHCOCK returns to A.C.T. after a one-year working hiatus, as a company member and Master of Fine Arts candidate in the Advanced Training Program. Following a B.F.A. in Theatre from the University of Washing- ton, Mr. Hitchcock entered A.C.T.'s Con- servatory in 1991, later appearing in studio productions of "Henry IV, parts I and II" and "Romeo and Juliet;" Barter's "Romeo and Juliet;" and "Romeo and Juliet." He has also performed both major and supporting roles for the Valley Shakespeare Festival, appearing in "Love's Labour's Lost" and "A Midsummer Night's Dream." He was also seen by Bay Area audiences recently in the Berkeley Repertory Theatre's production of "The Three Sisters," and in the Paradox Productions film "Listening for Serenades." JOHANNIA JACKSON has been involved with A.C.T. since 1977. She has studied with the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Santa Maria, California, where she also DINE IN SEASON THIS SPRING Experience our Award-Winning American Seasonal Cuisine, while overlooking everybody's favorite city 52 floors above it all.

Carnelian Room
Bank of America Center
555 California Street
San Francisco
415•433•7500
played roles in its annual Theaterfest, and in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. Miss Jackson has been particularly active as a trainer in the company's Young Conservatory, where she has taught acting and auditioning techniques, musical theatre, voice, and text. This season she continues to teach in A.C.T.'s Academy in the disciplines of dance and intermediate acting, and music in theatre for actors.

For A.C.T., Miss Jackson has appeared in "Another Port of the Forest" (Hawaii tour), "A Christmas Carol," "I Remember Mama," and "Mourning Becomes Electra.

DOUGLAS MARTIN made his local acting debut two summers ago as Drood Mark Dolson in the Sunnyvale Summer Repertory Theatre's production of "Miss Apperl," and will return to the role later this season. As a student in the Conservatory's Summer Training Congress and Advanced Training Program, he appeared in such studio projects as "A Tale Told," "Golden Boy," and "The Lady's Not For Burning." His appearances in the Plays-in-Progress series have included "Mambo and Fat," "Dad Letter," and "AWOL." Additionally, Mr. Martin has done professional modeling and commercial work.

JANE JONES, A.C.T. alumni, leading actress in regional theatres across the country and veteran of Off-Broadway, joins the A.C.T. company in the role of Maze in "Trelawny." From 1978-82 she studied in A.C.T.'s Conservatory, receiving further training from Virginia Commonwealth University and Jeff Corey in Los Angeles. Her extensive regional stage credits include the role of Cecily in the Guthrie Theatre's tour of "The Importance of Being Earnest," directed by Garland Wright; the McCarter Theatre production of "All the Way" and the Philadelphia Drama Guild's production of "The Member of the Wedding," starring with Ester Rolle. While at A.C.T., Miss Jones appeared in "I Remember Mama," "The Adorable Crichton," "Black Comedy," and "Cat Among the Figrins." She has also performed the roles of Emily in "Our Town" for the Oregon Repertory Theatre and has acted with the Playhouse on the Square, the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, and the Pacific Conservatory of Performing Arts, among others.

DOUGLAS MARTIN played the role of Jake in the world premiere of "Homeni at the Capital Rep.

DADIN MATTHEWS came to A.C.T. in 1981. He is an actor, director, playwright, translator, dramaturge and full Professor of English at California State University, Hayward. A founding member of John Houseman's Acting Company and a teacher in the Juilliard Drama Division, Mr. Matthews has also served as Artistic Director of the California Actors Workshop and as a consultant for the San Francisco Mime Troupe.
played roles in its annual Theaterfest, and in A.C.T.’s Advanced Training Program. Miss Jackson has been particularly active as a trainer in the company’s Young Conservatory, where she has taught acting and auditions techniques, musical theatre, voice, and text. This season she continues to teach in A.C.T.’s Academy in the disciplines of basic and intermediate acting, and music in theatre for actors. For A.C.T., Miss Jackson has appeared in Another Part of the Forest (Hawaii tour), A Christmas Carol, I Remember Mama and Mourning Becomes Electra.

DOUGLAS MARTIN made his local acting debut two summers ago as Dacon Mark Dolson in the Sunnyvale Summer Repertory Theatre’s production of Mame Apparel, and will return to the role later this season. As a student in the Conservatory’s Summer Training Congress and Advanced Training Program, he appeared in such studio projects as A Tale Told, Golden Boy and The Lady’s Not For Burning. His appearances in the Plays-in-Progress series have included Mammam and Fat, Dead Letters and AWOL. Additionally, Mr. Martin has done professional modeling and commercial work.

JANE JONES, A.C.T. alumna, leading actress in regional theatres across the country and veteran of Off-Broadway, joins the A.C.T. company in the role of Maire in Trelawny. From 1979-82 she studied in A.C.T.’s Conservatory, receiving further training from Virginia Commonwealth University and Jeff Corey in Los Angeles. Her extensive regional stage credits include the role of Cecily in the Guthrie Theatre production of The Importance of Being Earnest, directed by Garland Wright; the McCarter Theatre production of All the Wilderness; and the Philadelphia Drama Guild’s production of The Member of the Wedding, co-starring with Estelle Parsons. While at A.C.T., Miss Jones appeared in I Remember Mama, The Adorable Crichton, Black Comedy and Cat Among the Pigeons, in addition to several studio roles. She has also performed the role of Emily in Our Town for the Oregon Repertory Theatre and has acted with the Playhouse on the Square, the Oregon Shakespearean Festival and the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts, among others.

Dakin Matthews came to A.C.T. in 1981. He is an actor, director, playwright, translator, dramaturge and full Professor of English at California State University, Hayward. A founding member of John Houseman's Acting Company and a teacher in the Juilliard Drama Division, Mr. Matthews has also served as Artistic Director of the California Actors Institute.
Theatre in Los Gatos and directed A.C.T.'s Conservatory Summer Training Congress in 1982. He has performed roles in thirteen A.C.T. productions, including Uncle Vanya in Remember Me, Llete, Bernard Shaw in Dear John, Sigourney Frei in the P.U.P. production Melon in August, Niles Harris in Angels Fall, Scrooge in A Christmas Carol, and the title role in Uncle Vanya. In other theatres, he has performed Pat in The House and Sir Peter in The School for Scandal with The Acting Company; Bottom in A Midsummer Night's Dream and Hamlet in Henry V for San Diego's Old Globe; Azriel in Cavendish Chalk Circle for FCPA; Brutus in Julius Caesar and the title role in King John for the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival; Falstaff in Henry IV, part I for both the Marin and the California Shakespeare Festival; Dr. Watson in Sherlock's Last Case for Los Angeles Actors' Theatre; and George in Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf and the title role in Excalibur for the California Actors Theatre. Mr. Matthews appeared as a guest star on Kensington this season, performed last summer in the Los Angeles Olympic Arts Festival and is currently Artistic Director of the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival.

CAROLYN MCCORMICK enters her second season as a company member, having appeared on the Geary Stage last year as Arisa in Arms and the Man, Mary in A Christmas Carol and Helena in A Midsummer Night's Dream. A student for three years in the Advanced Training Program, Miss McCormick now holds an M.F.A. from A.C.T.'s newly accredited Conservatory, in addition to her B.A. in theatre from Williams College. She also participated in the Centre d'Etudes Francaises' Avignon Summer Festival in 1978, following two years as a Channel 39 News broadcaster in Houston, Texas. While a student at A.C.T., she appeared in studio productions of The Sorcerer, The Abduction, Henry VI, Part I and The Hotspur, as well as performing at the Valley Shakespeare Festival and the Summit Summer Theatre. She will be appearing in the 20th-Century-Fox film Enemy Mine directed by Wolfgang Peterson and starring Dennis Quad and Lou Gossett Jr., and performs in Measure for Measure this season.

DEBORAH MAY has been associated with A.C.T. for 11 years, playing such roles as Queen in Troilus and Cressida, Elizabeth in The Circle, Roxane in Cyrano de Bergerac, Desdemona in Othello, Alice in You Can't Take It With You, Mrs. Molony in The Matchmaker (which toured the USSR in 1974), Polly Peachum in The Threepenny Opera and Abigail in The Crucible. She has been seen on Broadway in Tom Moore's production of Onas in a Lifetime and Romantic Comedy. During the summer at PCPA in Saksheen, she was seen in the title roles of Holda Gibber and The Unprecedented Molly Brown. She also played leading roles in The Music Man, Brigadoon, The Mikado, Priscilla's Rainbow, Shadrack and Man of La Mancha. At the Old Globe Theatre she played Rosalind in the inaugural production of As You Like It, opposite George Deaky as Orlando. They were married in August 1983.

JUDITH MORELAND becomes a company member this year, attaining the status of

THEN YOU APPEARED...
DRESSED IN APRIL
Spring was just waiting for you. Here, from our Jessica McClintock collection, a two-piece white cotton batiste dress. For sizes 4-12, $15.65. Social Dresses in San Francisco, Marin and Vallejo.
Theatre in Los Gatos and directed A.C.T.'s Conservatory Summer Training Congress in 1982. He has performed roles in thirteen A.C.T. productions, including Uncle Chris in Remember Mama, George Bernard Shaw in Dear Liar, Sir John Falstaff in The Merry Wives of Windsor, and the title role in Uncle Vanya. In other theatres, he has performed in The Hostage and Sir Peter in The School for Scandal with The Acting Company; Bottom in A Midsummer Night's Dream and Hamlet in Henry IV for San Diego's Old Globe; Azard in AAA (American Association of Actors); Brutus in Julius Caesar and the title role in King John for the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival; Falstaff in Henry IV, part I; both the Mark and the California Shakespeare Festival's Dr. Watson in Sherlock's Last Case for Los Angeles Actors' Theatre; and George in Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf and the title role in Excalibur for the California Actors Theatre. Mr. Matthews appeared as a guest star on High Noon this season, performed last summer in the Los Angeles Olympic Arts Festival and is currently Artistic Director of the Berkeley Shakespeare Festival.

CAROLYN MCCORMICK enters her second season as a company member, having appeared on the Geary Stage last year as Lysia in Arms and the Man and the Queen in A Christmas Carol and Helena in A Midsummer Night's Dream. A student for three years in the Advanced Training Program, Miss McCormick now holds an M.A. from A.C.T.'s newly accredited Conservatory, in addition to her B.A. from Williams College. She also participated in the Centre d'Etudes Francaises Avignon Summer Festival in 1978. Following two years as a Channel 39 News Broadcaster in Houston, Texas, while a student at A.C.T., she appeared in studio productions of The Sea Gull, The Awakening, Henry VIII, and The Hot Path in Baltimore. She has worked with Blythe Danner, Christopher Reeve, Ed Harris and Jan Kaczmarek at the Williamsburg Theatre Festival, as well as performing at the Valley Shakespeare Festival and the Summerstock Summer Theatre. She will be appearing in the 20th Century-Fox film Enemy Mine, directed by Wolfgang Peterson and starring Dennis Quaid and Lou Gossett, and performs in Much Ado about Nothing this season.

DEBORAH MAY has been associated with A.C.T. for 11 years, playing such roles as Gertrude in Troilus and Cressida, Elizabeth in The Circle, Roxane in Cyrano de Bergerac, Desdemona in Othello, Alice in You Can't Take It With You, Mrs. Molony in The Matchmaker (which toured the USSR in 1976), Polly Peachum in The Threepenny Opera, and Abigail in The Crucible. She has been seen on Broadway in Tom Moore's production of One in a Lifetime and Romantic Comedy. During the summer at PCPA in Solvang, she was seen in the title role of Hannah Gehrke and The Unsinkable Molly Brown. She also played leading roles in the Music Box, Brigadoon, The Mikado, Finian's Rainbow, Showboat and Man of La Mancha. At the Old Globe Theatre she played Rosalind in the inaugural production of As You Like It, opposite George Deeky as Orlando. They were married in August 1983.

JUDITH MORELAND became a company member this year, attaining the status of

THEN YOU APPEARED...
DRESSED IN APRIL
Spring was just waiting for you. Here, from our Jessica McClintock collection, a two-piece white cotton batiste dress. For sizes 4-12, $166.
Social Dresses in San Francisco, Marin and Vallejo.

EMPORIUM-CAPWELL
Come to Marlboro Country.

MARK MURPHY returns to A.C.T. this season having recently appeared at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, where he played such roles as Hamlet, the clown in The Winter’s Tale, Charles Courtley in London Assurance, and Cornelius in The Matchmaker. In his five previous seasons at A.C.T. he was seen as Ken Talley in 5th of July, Benedick in Much Ado About Nothing, Simon in Ing. Error and Oscar in Another Part of the Forest. He has also appeared on the Geary stage as Tyrunt in Romeo and Juliet and Frank in The Brewing Version. Other theatre credits include the role of Oswald in Glass as the intern at the Alley Theatre in Houston and the role of Romeo in Romeo and Juliet at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival. He is a native of Dallas, Texas, and has a B.A. degree in theatre from Baylor University.

WILLIAM PATTERSON is now in his 18th season with A.C.T., having joined the company in 1967 to play James Tyrone in Long Day’s Journey into Night. A graduate of Brown University, Mr. Patterson served in the army four years before starting his professional acting career in a summer stock company. He appeared for at least part of every season for 20 years at the Cleveland Play House, taking time off for live television, films and four national tours with his own one-man shows which he has performed in 32 states of the Union and at the U.S. Embassy in London. His major roles for A.C.T. include You Can’t Take It With You, Jumpers, The Matchmaker (U.S. tour), The Circle, All the Way Home (Japan tour), Buried Child, Happy Landings, The Gin Game and Dial M For Murder. Presently serves as a member of the San Francisco Arts Commission.

JIM POYNER began his third year as a student in A.C.T.’s Advanced Training Program, with a journeyman status in the acting company. Mr. Poyner began his training at A.C.T. in 1962 following three and one-half years as Dennis Carrington on two NBC daytime soaps, Another World and Trans. He has also appeared in the made-for-TV movies Logan’s Run and Fantastic Journey, and in the Paramount film The Fall. In addition to roles in The Island Builders and The Lady’s Not for Burning at other... journeyman. Educated at Stanford, she is currently a second-year student in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program. During her first two years at A.C.T. she performed in studio productions of Coriolanus, The Rover, Separate Tables and The Three Sisters, the latter under the direction of Eugene Barone. In addition to various roles in A Christmas Carol, Miss Moreland will appear in Much Ado About Nothing for A.C.T. this season.

MARK MURPHY returns to A.C.T. this season having recently appeared at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, where he played such roles as Hamlet, the clown in The Winter's Tale, Charles Courtley in London Assurance, and Coriolanus in The Matchmaker. In his five previous seasons at A.C.T. he was seen as Ken Talley in 5th of July, Benedick in Much Ado About Nothing, Simon in Fany Fores and Ocal in Another Part of the Forest. He has also appeared on the Geary stage as Tybalt in Romeo and Juliet and Frank in The Bremner Version. Other theatre credits include the role of Oswald in Gethseman for the Unitarian Theatre, the role of John Grass in Indians for the Alley Theatre in Houston and the role of Romeo in Romeo and Juliet at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival. He is a native of Dallas, Texas, and has a B.A. degree in theatre from Baylor University.

WILLIAM PATTERSON is now in his 18th season with A.C.T., having joined the company in 1967 to play James Tyrone in Long Day's Journey into Night. A graduate of Brown University, Mr. Patterson served in the army for four years before starting his professional acting career in a summer stock company. He appeared for at least part of every season for 20 years at the Cleveland Play House, taking time out for live television, film and four national tours with his own one-man shows which he has performed in 32 states of the Union and at the U.S. Embassy in London. His major roles for A.C.T. include You Can't Take It With You, Jumbers, The Matchmaker (U.S.R. tour), The Circle, All the Way Home (Japan tour), Buried Child, Happy Landings, The Gin Game and Dial 'M' for Murder. Presently serves as a member of the San Francisco Arts Commission.

JIM POYNER began his third year as a student in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, with journeyman status in the acting company. Mr. Poyner began his training at A.C.T. in 1982. Following three and one-half years as Dennis Carrington on two NBC daytime soaps, Another World and Trans, he has also appeared in the made-for-TV movies Roger's Rim and Fantastic Journey, and in the Paramount film The Flag. In addition to roles in The Island-Builders and The Lady's Not for Burning at other
RAY REINHARDT has been with A.C.T. since 1963. A native of New York City and a 25-year veteran of the stage, he attended the Proctor Dramatic Workshop in Manhattan and the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art. Mr. Reinhardt was invited to join A.C.T. after being spotted in the Broadway production of Edward Albee’s Tiny Alice. Since then, he has performed over thirty major roles with A.C.T., and toured to both Hawaii and the U.S.S.R. as well as having taught in the Conservatory’s Advanced Training Program and Summer Training Congress. Among his A.C.T. roles are Cyrano in Cyrano de Bergerac, Stanley Kowalski in A Streetcar Named Desire, Falstaff in The Merry Wives of Windsor, Astrov in Uncle Vanya, the Narrator in Under Milkwood, Alfred in The Visit, Bottom in A Midsummer Night’s Dream, Marat/Sade in The Rime of the Ancient Mariner, and various roles in the original productions of The Ballad of Sisyphus, Swift, The Return of Pacolet, and In the Times of the Butterflies. Mr. Reinhardt has also served as host and narrator for the San Francisco Opera’s radio broadcasts and appeared with the Opera company as the Major Daroo in Strauss’ Arabella and Native. He is well known in the Bay Area as an outstanding teacher of acting and has made guest appearances on all the major television networks. This season, Mr. Reinhardt appears as Roman in The School for Wives, Lancer in Translations and Mr. Webb in Our Town.

RICHARD RIEHLE joins A.C.T. for the first time this season. He has worked extensively in the West, playing leading roles at the Alaska Repertory Theatre, Arizona Theatre Company, PCTA/Hobking Theatrefest, the Oregon Shakespearean Festivals and, in Seattle, at the Seattle Rep, A Contemporary Theatre, The Empty Space and the Intiman Theatre. He trained at the Universities of Notre Dame and Minnesota as well as at the John F. Kennedy Center for Performing Arts and the University of Washington. His performance credits include over thirty-five roles in twenty-two of Shakespeare’s plays. During the past two years, Mr. Riehle has created roles in such schools as the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts and the University of Washington. His performance credits include over thirty-five roles in twenty-two of Shakespeare’s plays. During the past two years, Mr. Riehle has created roles in the original productions of The Ballad of Sisyphus, Swift, The Return of Pacolet, and In the Times of the Butterflies. Earlier this year, he was featured in the NBC’s Hot Pursuit and will be seen as Gene Hackman’s buddy, Billy, in the upcoming Taxi in a Lifetime.

STEPHANIE SHROYER returns to A.C.T. as a third-year student after a year at the Pacific.
reside in theatre companies. Mr. Puyter's theatre credits include an appearance in the Plays in Progress series during A.C.T.'s 1982-83 season. He will be seen in Machete and Our Town this season.

RAY REINHARDT has been with A.C.T. since 1968. A native of New York City and a 25-year veteran of the stage, he attended the Princeton Dramatic Workshop in Manhattan and the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art. Mr. Reinhardt was invited to join A.C.T. after being spotted in the Broadway production of Edward Albee's Tiny Alice. Since then, he has performed over thirty major roles with A.C.T. and toured to both Hawaii and the U.S.S.R., as well as having taught in the Conservatory's Advanced Training Program and Summer Training Conserva. Among his A.C.T. roles are Cyrano in Cyrano de Bergerac, Stanley Kowalski in A Streetcar Named Desire, Falstaff in The Merry Wives of Windsor, Astrov in Uncle Vanya, the Narrator in Under Milkwood, Alfred in The Visit, Bottom in A Midsummer Night's Dream, Marat in The Rose Tattoo, The Miser in The Miser, Krapp in Krapp's Last Tape, and Eubie in Doozie Under the Stars. Mr. Reinhardt has also served as host and narrator for the San Francisco Opera's radio broadcasts and appeared with the Opera company as the Mage Dionysus in Strauss' Ariadne and Naxos. He is well known in the Bay Area as an outstanding teacher of acting and has made guest appearances on all the major television networks. This season, Mr. Reinhardt appears as Enrique in The School for Wives, Laney in Translations, and Mr. Webb in Our Town.

RICHARD RIEHLE joins A.C.T. for the first time this season. He has worked extensively in the West, playing leading roles at the Alaska Repertory Theatre, Arizona Theatre Company, PCPA/Bobbing Theatrefest, the Oregon Shakespearean Festival and, in Seattle, at the Seattle Rep, A Contemporary Theatre, The Empty Space and the Intiman Theatre. He trained at the Universities of Notre Dame and Minnesota as well as at the John F. Kennedy Academy of Dramatic Art and has taught acting at such schools as the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts and the University of Washington. His performance credits include more than thirty-five roles in twenty-two of Shakespeare's plays. During the past two years, Mr. Riehle has created roles in the original productions of The Ballad of Snowy Smiff, The Return of Proctor, the English-language premiere of Through the Lenses and the West Coast premieres of Nque Off and Fifty R & E. Earlier this year, he was featured in NBC's Hot Pursuit and will be seen as Gene Hackman's buddy, Billy, in the upcoming Twelve in a Lifetime.

STEPHANIE SHROYER returns to A.C.T. as a third-year student after a year at the Pacific...
ROSEMARIE SMITH joins the A.C.T. company this season as a journeyman and instructor in vocal production. She graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Brown University and has attended the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London, where she was born. In addition to studio roles in The Three Sisters and Twelfth Night while a student at A.C.T.'s Conservatory, she has appeared in Bad Habits, When You Come Back, Red Ryder, and Ten Little Indians for the Brown Summer Theatre in Providence, R.I., and appeared as the voice of Pat in Annisia at the Olympic Arts Festival. While pursuing her B.A., she performed roles in The Playboy of the Western World, In the Broom Room, Old Times, Curse of the Starving Class, The Bacchae, and The Birthday Party for the Brown University Theatre. Miss Smith will be appearing on the Geary stage in Translations and in Dear Liar with the Troubadour Program.

FRANCINE TACKER, a returning company member, has been widely seen in a variety of television and stage roles. After receiving her bachelor’s degree in speech and theatre from Emerson College, Miss Tacker attended the A.C.T. Advanced Training Program before going on to post-graduate studies in the classics at the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art. She has performed with the San Diego Shakespeare Festival and the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts. During her first seasons on the Geary stage, Miss Tacker appeared in Equus, Per Capitum, This Is (An Entertainment), General Georgeous, Man and Superman, Valentine and Valentine, and A Christmas Carol. At other resident theatres she has appeared in such plays as The Merchant of Venice, King Lear, and The Cherry Orchard. Her television credits include roles on The Paper Chase and Good Time Girls and numerous guest star appearances.

BERNARD VASH began his association with A.C.T. fourteen years ago. As a company member he is active as an instructor of phonetics and vocal training in the Conservatory, and now as an actor on the Geary stage in Much Ado. His previous acting credits include the role of Don Armado in Love’s Labours Lost, Captain Hook in Peter Pan and Sir in The Rivals at The Geary—an Of Mice and Men, and The Price of the Crown, all for the San Francisco Artistic Theatre, where he is a founding member; and, as a student in A.C.T.’s Advanced Training Program (1979-80), the role of Ben Hubbard in Another Part of the Forest. While a drama student at Carnegie-Mellon University, Mr. Vash studied under Edith Skinner for two years, continuing the association as Miss Skinner’s personal assistant at A.C.T. He is now active as a voice and speech trainer with his wife, Heather Bostian-Vash, together they form the “Tongue Tamers” and have served as dialect coaches for Berkeley Rep. Your room—the qualities of a suite. With a rare spaciousness and attention to detail, Seattle's Four Seasons Olympic Hotel. In the style of Four Seasons.
Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Santa
Mona, where she performed a number of roles, among them Hypatia in Miss juliet, the Bride
in Blood Wedding and Jenny Hill in Major Barbara. Her studio productions at A.C.T. include the roles of Juliet in Romeo and Juliet, Dorothy Folger in The Country Wife, and Busy in
The Man of Mode. Miss Smyer also has an extensive dance experience, having worked in an M.F.A. in dance at Florida State University.
She is an instructor in dance for A.C.T.'s Conservatory.

ROSEMARIE SMITH joined the A.C.T. company this season as a stage manager and instructor in vocal production. She graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Brown University and has attended the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London, where she was born. In addition to studio roles in The Threepenny Opera and Twelfth Night while a student at A.C.T.'s Conservatory,
she has appeared in Bad Habits: When You Come Back, Red River!, and Ten Little Indians
for the Brown Summer Theatre in Providence, R.I., and appeared as the voice of Pat in Annie at the Olympic Arts Festival. While pursuing her B.A., she performed roles in The Playboy of the Western World, In the Room Room, Old Times, Curse of the Starving Class, The Bacchae, and The Birthday Party for the Brown University Theatre. Miss Smith will be appearing on the Geery stage inTranslations and in Dear Liar with the Troubadour Program.

FRANCINE TACKER, a returning company member, has been widely seen in a variety of teachers' television and stage roles. After receiving her bachelor's degree in speech and theatre from Emerson College, Mrs. Tacker attended the
A.C.T. Advanced Training Program before going on to pursue graduate studies in the classics at the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art. She has performed with the San Diego
Shakespeare Festival and the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts. During her first seasons on the Geery stage, Miss Tacker appeared in Equus, The Cripple of Inishmaan, A Christmas Carol, and The Man of Mode. At other residential theatres she has appeared in such plays as
The Merchant of Venice, King Lear and The Cherry Orchard. Her television credits include roles on The Paper Chase and Good Time Girls and numerous guest star appearances.

BERNARD VASH began his association with A.C.T. fourteen years ago. As a company member he is active as an instructor of phonetics and ear training in the Conservatory, and now as an actor on the Geery stage in Merle He's previous acting credits include the role of Don Armado in Love's Labour's Lost, Captain Hook in Peter Pan and The Year in the Country—the Smell of the Crowd; all for the San Francisco Artichoke, where he is a founding member; and, as a student in A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program (1979-80), the role of Ben Hubbard in Another Part of the Forest. While a drama student at Carnegie-Mellon University, Mr. Vash studied under Edith Skinner for two years, continuing the association as Mrs. Skinner's personal assistant at A.C.T. He's most active in an exercise and speech trainer with his wife, Heather Bostian-Vash;
together they form the "Tongue Tamers" and have served as dialect coaches for Berkeley Rep.

Your room—the qualities of a suite.

With a rare spaciousness and attention to detail. Seattle's Four Seasons Olympic Hotel.

In the style of Four Seasons.

Four Seasons
Olympic Hotel
SEATTLE

Seattle's only AAA
Five Diamond Hotel.
411 University,
Seattle, WA 98101
206-623-1700 or contact your travel agent.
productions of A Touch of the Poet, The Merry Wife, Filament and The Way of the World. Mrs. Vash has also taught voice workshops at The Bloomsburg Theatre Ensemble and voice production at Temple University and the Summer Training Congress at A.C.T., where he is also a founding member of the Young Conservatory.

SYDNEY WALKER is a forty-year veteran of stage, film and television, having performed in some 216 productions since 1946. The Philadelphia native trained with Jasper Derrer at the Hedgerow Theatre in Maylan, Pennsylvania, and from 1963 to 1969 was a leading actor with the APA Repertory Company in New York City under the direction of Ellis Rabb. He also appeared for three seasons with the Lincoln Center Repertory Company under John Houseman. In 1974, Mr. Walker joined A.C.T. and has since performed in forty-seven productions including The Matchmaker (U.S.S.R. tour), Pat Capot, The Circle, The National Health, A Christmas Carol, The Chalk Garden, Lost Angels, Fell and the current season’s The School for Wives and Translations. He has appeared on television in such series as The Golden Child and The Storyteller, acted in the film Love Story, and performed the voice of Papa Evok in the television movie, The Enchanted. Mr. Walker is narrator for the KQED-TV series New York’s Master Chef and teaches Auditioning Psychology in A.C.T.’s Conservatory.

MARRIAN WALTERS, a native of Montana, attended the University of Washington before beginning her theatrical career. A veteran of more than 600 productions, she was seen most recently on the Geary stage in last season’s The Sleeping Prince. She made her Broadway debut with Donald Cook in Made in Heaven and appeared on Broadway with Robert Preston and Ken Hunter in The Tender Trap. Mrs. Walters has also played leading roles in many regional theatre, dinner theatre and touring productions, as well as in film and television. San Francisco audiences will remember her in Under the Yarn Yarn Tree which played for fourteen months at the On Broadway Theatre, and in Private Lives, which had a nine-month run at the Little Fox Theatre. In 1973, Mrs. Walters received the Joseph Jefferson Award as best actress of the year for her portrayal of April in The Hotel at the Franchere Theatre in Chicago. The following year she joined A.C.T., where she has appeared in thirty-one productions, including The Matchmaker (U.S.S.R. tour), The Circle, Hey There, and Bared Child. With her husband, director Michael Ferrall, and daughter, Gina, she is currently co-owner of and designer for Joseph Kobe, Ltd. at Pier 39.

J. STEVEN WHITE has been with A.C.T. for nine seasons, in a variety of capacities. He has excelled as an actor, teacher, choreographer, administrator and director. Mr. White traveled with A.C.T. to the Soviet Union in 1976 and to Japan in 1978. As an actor, he is a veteran of twenty-seven A.C.T. productions, as a teacher and administrator, he has been active in A.C.T.’s Conservatory, most recently as director of the 1994 Summer Training Congress. He is currently Assistant Conservatory Director. In addition to teaching stage combat, Mr. White has been the fight choreographer for

The Hibernia Bank has been steadfastly exploring new directions since 1859.
Today, more new thinking than ever is underway in four strong groups.
We’ve added new international capabilities,
a network of business banking centers,
a bold new merchant banking approach to real estate, and we’ve revitalized our relationship with personal banking customers.
All of which makes The Hibernia Bank both a traditional and a progressive bank.

Let us show you.

THE HIBERNIA BANK

How did we become San Francisco’s only Mobil Five Star and AAA Five Diamond hotel?
In a word… service.

Four Seasons Clift Hotel
OSARY AT TAFF, SAN FRANCISCO, CA 775-4700
productions of A Touch of the Poet, The Margaret Girl, Filimenos and The Way of the World. Mr. Vash has also taught voice workshops at The Bloomsburg Theatre Ensemble and voice production at Temple University and the Summer Training Congress at A.C.T. where he is also a founding member of the Young Conservatory.

SYDNEY WALKER is a forty-year veteran of stage, film and television, having performed in some 216 productions since 1946. The Philadelphia native trained with Jasper Deeter at the Hedgerow Theatre in Media, Pennsylvania, and from 1963 to 1969 was a leading actor with the APA Repertory Company in New York City under the direction of Ellis Rabb. He also appeared for three seasons with the Lincoln Center Repertory Company under John Guare. In 1974, Mr. Walker joined A.C.T. and has since performed in forty-seven productions including The Matchmaker (U.S.R.R. tour), The Carol's Choice, The National Health, A Christmas Carol, The Chalk Garden, Lost Angels and the current season's The School for Wives and Translations. He has appeared on television in such series as The Twilight Zone and McCloud. He was the voice of Papa Ewok in the television movie, The Ewok Adventure. Mr. Walker is narrator for the KQED-FOX series New York's Master Chef and teaches Auditioning Psychology in A.C.T.'s Conservatory.

MARRIAN WALTERS, a native of Montana, attended the University of Washington before beginning her theatrical career. A veteran of more than 600 productions, she was seen most recently on the Geary stage in last season's The King's Speech. She made her Broadway debut with Donald Cook in A Man for All Seasons and appeared on Broadway with Robert Preston and Ken Hunter in The Tender Trap.

Walters has also played leading roles in many regional theatre, dinner theatre and touring productions, as well as in film and television. San Francisco audiences will remember her in Lone Star, The Year of the Cat, which played for fourteen months at the Orpheum Theater, and in Private Lives, which had a nine-month run at the Little Fox Theater. In 1973, Miss Walters received the Joseph Jefferson Award as best actress of the year for her portrayal of April in The Hotel at the Orpheum Theatre in Chicago. The following year she joined A.C.T. where she appears in a thirty-one production, including The Matchmaker (U.S.R.R. tour), The Carol's Choice, The National Health, and The School for Wives and Translations. He has appeared on television in such series as The Twilight Zone and McCloud. He was the voice of Papa Ewok in the television movie, The Ewok Adventure. Mr. Walker is narrator for the KQED-FOX series New York's Master Chef and teaches Auditioning Psychology in A.C.T.'s Conservatory.

J. STEVEN WHITE has been with A.C.T. for nine seasons, in a variety of capacities. He has excelled as an actor, director, producer, administrator and director. Mr. White traveled with A.C.T. to the Soviet Union in 1976 and to Japan in 1978. As an actor, he is a veteran of twenty-seven A.C.T. productions, as a producer and director, he has been active in A.C.T.'s Conservatory, most recently as director of the 1994 Summer Training Congress. He is currently Assistant Conservatory Director. In addition to teaching stage combat, Mr. White has been the fight choreographer for

---

The Hibernia Bank has been steadfastly exploring new directions since 1859. Today, more new thinking than ever is underway in four strong groups. We've added new international capabilities, a network of business banking centers, a bold new merchant banking approach to real estate, and we've revitalized our relationship with personal banking customers. All of which makes The Hibernia Bank both a traditional and a progressive bank.

Let us show you.

THE HIBERNIA BANK

---

How did we become San Francisco's only Mobil Five Star and AAA Five Diamond hotel? In a word...service.

Four Seasons Clift Hotel

OASIS AT TAYLOR, SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94102-4700
HATS OFF TO HUTCHINS:
THE DEBUT OF A NEW DIRECTOR

Janice Hutchins

Dateline ... San Francisco ... Janice Hutchins explodes onto the A.C.T. scene! ... Hutchins closes out A.C.T.'s 19th season! ... The Geary Theatre—A Hutchins Hat-Trick!!!

Tempting declarations all, but closer examination reveals a truer story; the deliberate rise of an irrepresible talent which nurtured by A.C.T.'s multi-dimensional theatre experience, flowered not a moment too soon, not a moment too late.

While Hutchins, who directs the final three shows of the current repertory season, may seem to have taken her place as one of A.C.T.'s most radiant stars overnight, the truth of the matter is a bit more involved. Hutchins began her work with A.C.T. ten years ago as an actress and teacher. Over the years she has trained as a director under such respected masters as William Ball, Allen Fletcher, Nagle Jackson and Tom Moore and served an invaluable apprenticeship staging many student projects and Plays-in-Progress works. With recent directorial

by RALPH HOSKINS

A.C.T.1

BRUCE WILLIAMS made his A.C.T. debut nine seasons ago in Mars and Superman and since then has appeared in twenty-eight A.C.T. productions including Another Part of the Forest, Morning's at Seven, The Three Sisters, A Christmas Carol and last season's The Dolly. He has also been involved in readings for the Play-in-Progress Program, as a director and teacher in A.C.T.'s Conservatory and as a member of the Hawaii tour. Mr. Williams played Stanley Kowalski in A Streetcar Named Desire for the Oregon Shakespearean Festival and recently was seen as Stanley Harrington in 5 Fingers Exercise at the Sunnyside Summer Repertory. For other regional theatres, he has performed roles in The Devil's Disciple, Henry VI (Parts 2 and 3), Much Ado About Nothing and Sweet Eros. For television, Mr. Williams appeared in the A.C.T./ABC production of A Christmas Carol and PBS' The Race that Ended the West. Mr. Williams trained at the University of Texas at Austin under Jaganka Zyzh.

HENRY WORONICZ joins A.C.T. for his first season after six years of professional acting and directing. He has worked predominantly with the Boston Shakespeare Company, where his credits include title roles in Hamlet, Richard III, Romeo and Juliet and Petrovich in The Taming of the Shrew; as well as supporting and leading roles in more than thirty-five other productions.

WILLIAM BALL (General Director) founded the American Conservatory Theatre (A.C.T.) in 1965 and remains its general director. Beginning in the theatre as a designer, he turned to acting and appeared with regional companies and Shakespeare festivals across the country. He made his New York directorial debut with an Off-Broadway production of Chekov's Ivanov which won the Obie and Vernon Rice Drama Desk Awards for 1956. He subsequently directed at Houston's Alley Theatre; San Francisco's Actor's Workshop; Washington, D.C.'s Arena Stage; San Diego's Old Globe Theatre; and staged several New York City Opera productions. His 1989 Off-Broadway production of Under Milk Wood won both the Lila A'ommen and the Outer Circle Critics' Awards, and in 1982 his Str Chiaractors in Satchel at an Author proved another multiple-award winner and enjoyed an extended New York run. After directing at Canada's Stratford Festival, Mr. Ball returned to New York to write the libretto continued on p. 40

61

61
HATS OFF TO HUTCHINS: THE DEBUT OF A NEW DIRECTOR

Janice Hutchins

Tempting declarations all, but closer examination reveals a truer story: the deliberate rise of an irreplaceable talent which nurtured by A.C.T.'s multi-dimensional theatre experience, flowered not a moment too soon, not a moment too late.

While Hutchins, who directs the final three shows of the current repertory season, may seem to have taken her place as one of A.C.T.'s most radiant stars overnight, the truth of the matter is a bit more involved. Hutchins began her work with A.C.T. ten years ago as an actress and teacher. Over the years she has trained as a director under such respected masters as William Ball, Allen Fletcher, Nagle Jackson and Tom Moore and served an invaluable apprenticeship staging many student projects and Plays-in-Progress works. With recent directorial

by RALPH HOSKINS

A.C.T. 1
Hutchins developed her own system to manage the extraordinary workload that for several weeks had her simultaneously rehearsing three plays and that required her to make innumerable artistic decisions every day. As far back as last October, when she received her directing assignments, she read and re-read the plays she would be staging. During her meticulous study of the scripts, she kept a journal of her thoughts and feelings. “One never knows,” she explains, “where those initial, intuitive reactions may later prove useful.”

A thorough understanding of each character in the three plays grew out of Hutchins’ stream-of-consciousness journal entries. Armed with this insight and her “director’s score”—a binder containing her script and all the notes she had taken on the play—she met with her designers to develop the physical world of each play. This work under way, Hutchins was at last ready to begin actual rehearsals.

Because of the demands placed on A.C.T.’s acting company by the theatre’s recurring repertoire performance schedule, Painting Churches had a protracted ten-week rehearsal period, nearly double the usually given shows. The cast came to call the expanded time-frame “Russian Rehearsals” after the practice made famous by Konstantin Stanislavski and the Moscow Art Theatre of developing plays over long and intensive periods. But a long rehearsal period, advantageous in many respects, also poses unusual challenge.

“One challenge we faced,” Hutchins observes, “was the possibility of peaking too early. Another was the danger of rehearsal burn-out which is especially great with a small cast play. Fortunately, I was working with three real pros. Barbara, Bill, and Marrian have all worked together before and did a great job of pacing themselves.”

In fact, the Dirckson-Paterson-Walters team has previously worked together many times. The Matchmaker, Man and Superman, The Circle, All the Way Home,
Hay Fever, Burial Child and Uncle Vanya are only some of the A.C.T. shows that have featured the popular trio. This month audiences will have the pleasure of seeing them together again, this time
under the guidance of Janice Hutchins,
A.C.T.’s newest—and busiest—director.
successes at several other Bay Area theatres to her credit, Hutchins this month makes her Geary Theatre debut with Painting Churches, featuring Barbara Dickson, William Paterson and Mariam Walters.

But Painting Churches is not the only show with which Hutchins is now represented at A.C.T. Continuing a collaboration with William Ball that began three years ago at the Sunnyvale Summer Repertory Theatre, Hutchins shares co-directing responsibility with A.C.T.'s General Director on the currently playing American classic: Our Town and on Mass Appeal, the story of a brush seminarist's challenge to a conservative parish priest which opens at the Geary Theatre on May 7.

Painting Churches Hutchins' first solo directing effort to be seen on A.C.T.'s mainstage, is a small jewel of a play, rich in emotional resonance. In this recent work by Tina Howe, a young liberated artist who is experiencing the first blush of success returns to her ancestral Bandon Beach Hill home to paint a portrait of her parents.

To Hutchins, "It is a story of flowering and decay. The cycle of life is both beginning and ending. Painting Churches opens on a time of transition, but doesn't develop in the typically linear fashion of, say, Our Town. Nor is it revealed in episodes, like Mass Appeal. It is impressionistic, presenting a variety of perspectives. "Howe paints her play like a landscape." says Hutchins. "There is little exposition in the first act. It is like a tapestry. It leaves you with a sense of Oh, I see..." In Mass Appeal, however, it's clear what is at stake at all times. The conflict is posed very early on, leaving the question in the viewer's mind, 'How will this end, how will it be resolved?' Even more directly, Our Town has a character, the Stage Manager, come forward and tell the audience who wrote the play and what's going to happen. Now that's exposition!"

Hutchins developed her own system to manage the extraordinary workload that for several weeks had her simultaneously rehearsing three plays and that required her to make innumerable artistic decisions every day. As far back as last October, when she received her directing assignments, she read and re-read the plays she would be staging. During her arduous study of the scripts, she kept a journal of her thoughts and feelings. "One never knows," she explains, "where those initial, intuitive reactions may later prove useful."

A thorough understanding of each character in the three plays grew out of Hutchins' stream-of-consciousness journal entries. Armed with this insight and her director's score—a binder containing her script and all the notes she had taken on the play—she met with her designers to develop the physical world of each play. This work under way, Hutchins was at last ready to begin actual rehearsals.

Because of the demands placed on A.C.T.'s acting company by the theatre's revolving repertory performance schedule, Painting Churches had a protracted ten-week rehearsal period, nearly double that usually given shows. The cast came to call the expanded time-frame "Russian Rehearsals," after the practice made famous by Konstantin Stanislavski and the Moscow Art Theatre of developing plays over long and intensive periods. But a long rehearsal period, advantageous in many respects, also poses unusual challenges.

"One challenge we faced, " Hutchins observes, "was the possibility of peaking too early. Another was the danger that the rehearsal burn-out which is especially great with a small cast play. Fortunately, I was working with three real pros. Barbara, Bill and Mariam have all worked together before and did a great job of pacing themselves."

In fact, the Dickson-Paterson-Walters team has previously played together many times. The Matchmaker, Man and Superman, The Circle, All the Way Home, Hay Fever, Burial Child and Uncle Vanya are only some of the A.C.T. shows that have featured the popular trio. This month audiences will have the pleasure of seeing them together again, this time under the guidance of Janice Hutchins, A.C.T.'s newest—and busiest—director.
THE AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE

presents

PAINTING CHURCHES
(1983)
by Tina Howe

The Cast
Fanny Sedgewick Church Marrian Walters
Gardner Church William Paterson
Margaret Church (Mags) Barbara Dirickson

Directed by Janice Hutchins

Scenery by Richard Goodwin
Costumes by Dawn Line
Lighting by David Percival
Sound by Christopher Moore
Hairstyles by Rick Echols

Beacon Hill, Boston, Mass.

Act I
Scene 1: A bright spring morning.
Scene 2: Two days later.
Scene 3: Twenty-four hours later.

Act II
Scene 1: Three days later.
Scene 2: The last day.

There will be one twelve-minute intermission.

UNDERSTUDIES
Fanny—Johanna Jackson; Gardner—Sydney Walker; Mags—Janice Hutchins
THE AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE

presents

PAINTING CHURCHES

(1983)

by Tina Howe

The Cast
Fanny Sedgewick Church  Marrian Walters
Gardner Church  William Paterson
Margaret Church (Mags)  Barbara Dirickson

Directed by Janice Hutchins

Scenery by  Richard Goodwin
Costumes by  Dawn Line
Lighting by  David Percival
Sound by  Christopher Moore
Hairstyles by  Rick Echols

Beacon Hill, Boston, Mass.

Act I
Scene 1: A bright spring morning.
Scene 2: Two days later.
Scene 3: Twenty-four hours later.

Act II
Scene 1: Three days later.
Scene 2: The last day.

There will be one twelve-minute intermission.

UNDERSTUDIES
Fanny—Johanna Jackson; Gardner—Sydney Walker; Mags—Janice Hutchins
THE WAYS OF HOWE
An Interview with Tina Howe

Like Mags, the prodigal daughter in Painting Churches, Tina Howe comes from a grand old New England family. Both sets of her grandparents were of Boston Brahmin stock and as aristocratic in their achievements as in their ancestry. Howe’s paternal grandfather, Mark Antony DeWolfe Howe, was the author of over fifty books, a celebrated poet, critic and Pulitzer Prize winning biographer. Uncle Mark DeWolfe Howe was an eminent Harvard Law School professor, and Aunt Helen wrote popular novels in the thirties and forties. Tina Howe’s father, Quincy, was a broadcast journalist who distinguished himself as a radio and television commentator, teacher and author. And Howe’s mother, a grande dame of legendary eccentricity, dabbed at watercolor painting.

Howe began to carve out her own place in the family pantheon while studying at Sarah Lawrence College. She wrote her first play there and saw it successfully directed by classmate (and now noted actress) Jane Alexander. Other plays followed, each more ambitious than the last. Museum (1979) is set in the gallery of a “major American museum of modern art” and demands a cast of forty-four. The Art of Dining (1979) requires only nine actors to perform but calls for enormous quantities of food to be elaborately prepared and consumed onstage.

Painting Churches, Howe’s most recent play, though less demanding in terms of its casting and staging requirements, is perhaps the playwright’s most emotionally complex work to date. Her fifth play to be seen in New York, it premiered at the Second Stage in 1983. The production transferred to the Lamb’s Theatre Off-Broadway the following year and earned Howe an Obie Award for Distinguished Playwriting and the Rosamund Gilder Award for Outstanding Creative Achievement in the Theatre.

We recently spoke by telephone with Tina Howe at the New York home she shares with her husband, novelist Norman Levy, and their two children, Eben, a seventeen year old musician, and Dara, a fourteen year old aspiring actress. At the center of this artistic whirlwind, not unlike the one in which she was raised, Howe writes on an old manual typewriter at the family dining room table. She is currently at work on a screenplay about which she declined to comment. (“I’ve sort of been told not to talk about it.”) She was otherwise quite candid in her conversation and more than a little charming.

by Jeffrey Hirsch

A.C.T.6

A.C.T.7

A.C.T.: Did you have a particular image in mind when you began writing Painting Churches?

TH.: Painting Churches took me a long time to write. I knew from the start that I wanted those parents in it and that I wanted it to be about a child trying to come of age artistically within a super-talented family in which she was greatly outshone. But for a long time I tried to make the daughter musical. I had a pernicious notion that it would be interesting to create a nonverbal character. So for three years I struggled to see if I could pull it off. The story was that Mags was a pianist preparing for her debut. Whenever the going got rough in the living room, she would go to the piano and express herself at the keyboard. It just didn’t work because I found it impossible to make her as interesting as the people who speak.

I finally abandoned the idea of making her musical and then I had to find another art form for her. I didn’t want her to be a writer because it’s very hard to dramatize what a writer goes through. When I got the idea that she should be a portrait painter, I knew I had what I needed. The trick of painting a portrait is getting the subject to pose. The dramatic dilemma created when Mags asks her parents to hold still so that she can paint them provided me with an open field for chaos. Once I got that device, I finished the play in eight months.

A.C.T.: Do you recall your first experiences of looking at art?

TH.: It’s always been very much a part of my life. I grew up in Manhattan, three blocks away from the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Back in those days, admission was free and the museum was where I would go to play on rainy days. It was like a funhouse to me. The main floor has all of that great stuff: the armor, the Egyptian tombs and Roman tubs, the statues without any heads.
THE WAYS OF HOWE
An Interview with Tina Howe

Like Mags, the prodigal daughter in Painting Churches, Tina Howe comes from a grand old New England family. Both sets of her grandparents were of Boston Brahmin stock and as aristocratic in their achievements as in their ancestry. Howe's paternal grandfather, Mark Antony DeWolfe Howe, was the author of over fifty books, a celebrated poet, critic and Pulitzer Prize winning biographer. Uncle Mark DeWolfe Howe was an eminent Harvard Law School professor, and Aunt Helen wrote popular novels in the thirties and forties. Tina Howe's father, Quincy, was a broadcast journalist who distinguished himself as a radio and television commentator, teacher, and author. And Howe's mother, a grande dame of legendary eccentricity, dabbled at watercolor painting.

Howe began to carve out her own place in the family pantheon while studying at Sarah Lawrence College. She wrote her first play there and saw it successfully directed by classmatess (and now noted actress) Jane Alexander. Other plays followed, each more ambitious than the last. Museum (1979) is set in the gallery of a "major American museum of modern art" and demands a cast of forty-four. The Art of Dining (1979) requires only nine actors to perform but calls for enormous quantities of food to be elaborately prepared and consumed en masse.

Painting Churches, Howe's most recent play, though less demanding in terms of its casting and staging requirements, is perhaps the playwright's most emotionally complex work to date. Her fifth play to be seen in New York, it premiered at the Second Stage in 1983. The production transferred to the Laban's Theatre Off-Broadway the following year and earned Howe an Obie Award for Distinguished Playwriting and the Rosamund Gilder Award for Outstanding Creative Achievement in the Theatre.

We recently spoke by telephone with Tina Howe at the New York home she shares with her husband, novelist Norman Levy, and their two children, Ethan, a seventeen year old musician, and Dana, a fourteen year old aspiring actress. At the center of this artistic whirlwind, not unlike the one in which she was raised, Howe writes on an old manual typewriter at the family dining room table. She is currently at work on a screenplay about which she declined to comment. ("I've sort of been told not to talk about it.") She was otherwise quite candid in her conversations and more than a little charming.

by Jeffrey Hirsch

A.C.T.: What are you finding to be the differences between writing for the stage and writing for film?

TINA HOWE: The main difference is that in the theatre I've never written more than nine scenes to comprise a whole piece. Now, all of a sudden, I'm having to write 200 scenes. It's quite different to write all kinds of fancy visual and verbal tricks into a play. It's quite different to write a story that is as complicated and involved as a screenplay.

A.C.T.: Do stage pictures come to you when you're writing a play?

TH: Very much so. I always start with an image of the setting. To me, it's everything. That's where I always begin, with the possibility that any given setting offers for visual fireworks.

A.C.T.: Did you have a particular image in mind when you began writing Painting Churches?

TH: Painting Churches took me a long time to write. I knew from the start that I wanted those parents in it and that I wanted it to be about a child trying to come of age artistically within a super-talented family in which she was greatly outshone. But for a long time I tried to make the daughter musical. I had a pernicious notion that it would be interesting to create a nonverbal character. So for three years I struggled to see if I could pull it off. The story was that Mags was a pianist preparing for her debut. Whenever the going got rough in the living room, she would go to the piano and express herself at the keyboard. It just didn't work because I found it impossible to make her as interesting as the people who speak. I finally abandoned the idea of making her musical and then I found another art form for her. I didn't want her to be a writer because it's very hard to dramatize what a writer goes through. When I got the idea that she should be a portrait painter, I knew I had what I needed. The trick of painting a portrait is getting the subject to pose. The dramatic dilemma created when Mags asks her parents to hold still so that she can paint them provided me with an open field for chaos. Once I got that device, I finished the play in eight months.

A.C.T.: Do you recall your first experiences of looking at art?

TH: It's always been very much a part of my life. I grew up in Manhattan, three blocks away from the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Back in those days, admission was free and the museum was where I would go to play on rainy days. It was like a funhouse to me. The main floor has all of that great stuff: the armor, the Egyptian tombs and Roman ruins; the statues without any heads.
And my mother was herself a painter, a watercolorist. She had a very whimsical eye and was always making trompe l'oeil artifacts and leaving them around the house. So I grow up in a kind of crazy quilt environment full of my mother's objects and paintings.

A.C.T.: Who are your favorite painters?
TH.: When I was a little girl, I loved the Renaissance painters, Botticelli and Fra Angelico. Then in college I went through a ferocious surrealist stage. Now I like the French Impressionists most. And I like to go to current shows of new artists. I go to the galleries a lot and see the new work that's being done. I'd have to say that my taste keeps changing.

Joseph Cornell, though, is an artist who I remain passionate about. The first time I saw a show of his shadowboxes, well, I had a fever anyway, but I practically had to be carried out of the gallery. His pieces are like tiny stage sets. What strikes me about them more than anything is that they all seem to have been inhabited at one time. I can almost hear dying footfalls and ticking clocks and beating of birds' wings when I look at Cornell boxes. They seem so alive.

A.C.T.: What do you think comprises a great portrait?
TH.: It must evoke the style and the personality and the aura of the subject. It can't simply be a likeness. A great portrait captures something that is ineffable and larger than life.

A.C.T.: Did you have one particular Renoir painting in mind as you wrote the final scene of Painting Church?
TH.: I didn't want to fasten the final image of the play onto one particular painting so I made it a composite of many of Renoir's outdoor cafe scenes. I kept embroidering the image in my mind as Fanny and Gardner do. They start to imagine Japanese lanterns and an orchestra and lights twinkling in the trees and the image becomes denser and denser in their minds' eye. There is no single Renoir painting that is filled with as much detail as that which they describe. I made a deliberate choice to describe an imaginary painting.

A.C.T.: What is depicted in that imaginary painting?
TH.: It's the last dance. The last dance under a starry sky. It's magical and it's not quite real in just the way of those Renoir paintings of dancing couples. And it's clear in the picture that life is never going to be this wonderful for these people again. The moment is beautiful but it is laced with sadness.

A.C.T.: Would you say that you write in an Impressionistic style?
TH.: Yes, absolutely. People tell me that I'm a "feminine" writer. I ask, "What does that mean?" and they say, "Oh, your writing is circular and associative." I don't know what those descriptions mean or if they're even important. But I know that I
And my mother was herself a painter, a watercolorist. She had a very whimsical eye and was always making tromp l'oeil artifacts and leaving them around the house. So I grew up in a kind of crazy quilt environment full of my mother's objects and paintings.

A.C.T.: Who are your favorite painters?

T.H.: When I was a little girl, I loved the Renaissance painters, Botticelli and Fra Angelico. Then in college I went through a ferocious surrealist stage. Now I like the French Impressionists most. And I like to go to current shows of new artists. I go to the galleries a lot and see the new work that's being done. I'd have to say that my taste keeps changing.

Joseph Cornell, though, is an artist who I remain passionate about. The first time I saw a show of his shadowboxes, well I had a fever anyway, but I practically had to be carried out of the gallery. His pieces are like tiny stage sets. What strikes me about them more than anything is that they all seem to have been inhabited at one time. I can still hear the whistling footfalls and ticking clocks and beating of birds' wings when I look at Cornell boxes. They seem so alive.

A.C.T.: What do you think comprises a great portrait?

T.H.: It must evoke the style and the personality and the aura of the subject. It can't simply be a likeness. A great portrait captures something that is ineffable and larger than life.

A.C.T.: Did you have one particular Renoir painting in mind as you wrote the final scene of Painting Churches?

T.H.: I didn't want to fasten the final image of the play onto one particular painting so I made it a composite of many of Renoir's outdoor cafe scenes. I kept embroidering the image in my mind as Fanny and Gardner do. They start to imagine Japanese lanterns and an orchestra and lights twinkling in the trees and the image becomes denser and denser in their minds' eye. There is no single Renoir that is filled with as much detail as the one they describe. I made a deliberate choice to describe an imaginary painting.

A.C.T.: What is depicted in that imaginary painting?

T.H.: It's the last dance. The last dance under a starry sky. It's magical and it's not quite real in just the way of those Renoir paintings of dancing couples. And it's clear in the picture that life is never going to be this wonderful for these people again. The moment is beautiful but it is laced with sadness.

A.C.T.: Would you say that what you write in an impressionistic style?

T.H.: Yes, absolutely. People tell me that I'm a "feminine" writer. I ask, "What does that mean?" and they say, "Oh, your writing is circular and associative." I don't know what those descriptions mean or if they're even important. But I know that
The 1985 Continental.
Its looks raise your expectations.
Its luxury and technology fulfill them.

You're prepared to be treated superbly inside a Continental, and you're not disappointed. This car is a prime example of how high technology can heighten the levels of automotive luxury, as well as your sense of security.

For instance, the Givenchy model shown here, like all V-8 powered Designer Series Continentals, is equipped with an Anti-Lock Brake System. This advanced brake technology, offered only by Lincoln among domestic carmakers, was designed to prevent wheel lock-up during braking. This helps the driver maintain lateral stability and steering control in emergency stops as well as providing, generally, shorter stopping distances.

Further, the civilizing effect of Continental's high technology is very apparent in the ride provided by its electronically controlled air suspension. And in the smoothness and responsiveness of its computer-monitored V-8 engine.

The 1985 Continental. It raises your expectations. And then gives you more than you expected.

Get it together—build up.
The 1985 Continental.
Its looks raise your expectations.
Its luxury and technology fulfill them.

You're prepared to be treated superbly inside a Continental, and you're not disappointed. This car is a prime example of how high technology can heighten the levels of automotive luxury, as well as your sense of security.

For instance, the Givenchy model shown here, like all V-8 powered Designer Series Continentals, is equipped with an Anti-Lock Brake System. This advanced brake technology, offered only by Lincoln among domestic carmakers, was designed to prevent wheel lock-up during braking. This helps the driver maintain lateral stability and steering control in emergency stops as well as providing, generally, shorter stopping distances.

Further, the civilized effect of Continental's high technology is very apparent in the ride provided by its electronically controlled air suspension. And in the smoothness and responsiveness of its computer-monitored V-8 engine.

The 1985 Continental. It raises your expectations. And then gives you more than you expected.

Get it together—buuble up.

LINCOLN
Lincoln-Mercury Division
try to illuminate my subjects through inference. As I structure a piece, I try to stay as open as possible to nuance and suggestion.

When I write, I listen to Glenn Gould's Bach recordings which are really performed in a pitch of ecstasy. I drink a lot of soda and chew several pieces of Juicy Fruit gum. So I'm all sugared up and I've got Glenn Gould going at the pianitas or the Well-tempered Clavier and I'm up around the ceiling. Flying. That's the state I try to write in, with images and impulses coming really fast.

A.C.T.: In the introduction to the published collection of your plays, you speak of the act of writing as being possessed of certain mysterious qualities and you call the process of playwriting "the art of suggestion." How is it so?

T.H.: Playwriting requires you to evoke everything. Once you have a character say straight out how he feels or what he wants, you're doomed. That just isn't the way people behave. In life, everything tends to be blurred; we never quite say what we mean. As a playwright, you have to know where you want your characters to go, but the characters have to be the last ones let in on the secret of where they're headed.

A.C.T.: With which playwrights do you feel the greatest affinity?

T.H.: Beckett, Pirandello and Ionesco. I've always loved the absurdist, they just carry you out of the theatre into another dimension. They're sort of out of favor at the moment, but my heart is really with writers who take you off the canvas completely.

A.C.T.: Is Painting Churches autobiographical or more a work of the imagination?

T.H.: Largely a work of the imagination. It's all true but none of it really happened. My father was not a poet and he never became senile. I didn't grow up in Boston nor have I ever been a painter. My mother was actually much wilder and even more eccentric than Fanny. I think that in writing the play I was fulfilling a fantasy. I was trying to phrase—or rephrase—my own attempts to be recognized by my parents.

A.C.T.: Then the theme of a child seeking her parents' acceptance and approval is something you consciously set out to develop?

T.H.: Yes, that was very real. My parents had such a tremendous influence on me that I felt I couldn't be able to progress as a writer until I'd put them into some kind of artistic perspective. I'm one of those people who, though I have teenage children of my own, still talk about my mother and father as if I were nineteen years old. It's sick. A grown woman isn't supposed to do that! But they still tug and pull at me. And I know that until I had to come to terms with them in my writing, I would never be able to climb out of my artistic adolescence.

A.C.T.: Was it a successful effort?

T.H.: I think so. I was able to give us all a much happier ending than we really had. That was wonderful, particularly being able to rewrite my parents' history. As you know, most old couples don't work off into the twilight. Actually, my mother died first and left my father quite bewildered. He became very ill and his death was horrifying as if that of any parent. I wanted to write Painting Churches to give them both a different ending.

A.C.T.: What is it about old Boston families like the Churches that makes them such appealing literary subjects?

T.H.: They're a dying breed. I didn't grow up in Boston but I did go back there to visit grandparents on both sides of the family. I still stay in touch with a few of my parents' old friends and there are a couple of relatives who are still hanging on. But most members of my generation, as have I, married out of that group. Most of us consciously married not only non-Bostonians but non-Wasps altogether. Part of Gardner and Fanny's charm is that...
try to illuminate my subjects through inference. As I structure a piece, I try to stay as open as possible to nuance and suggestion.

When I write, I listen to Glenn Gould's Bach recordings which are really performed in a piano recital. I drink a lot of soda and chew several pieces of Juicy Fruit gum. So I'm all sugared up and I've got Glenn Gould going at the pianos or the Well-Tempered Clavier and I'm up around the ceiling. Blah. That's the state I try to write in, with images and impulses coming really fast.

A.C.T.: In the introduction to the published collection of your plays, you speak of the act of writing as being possessed of certain mysterious qualities and you call the process of playwriting "the art of suggestion." How is it so?

T.H.: Playwriting requires you to evoke everything. Once you have a character say straight out how he feels or what he wants, you're doomed. That just isn't the way people behave. In life, everything tends to be blurred; we never quite say what we mean. As a playwright, you have to know where you want your characters to go, but the characters have to be the last ones let in on the secret of where they're headed.

A.C.T.: With which playwrights do you feel the greatest affinity?

T.H.: Beckett, Pirandello and Ionesco. I've always loved the absurdist, they just carry you out of the theatre into another dimension. They're sort of out of favor at the moment, but my heart is really with writers who take you off the canvas completely.

A.C.T.: Is Painting Churches autobiographical or more a work of the imagination?

T.H.: Largely a work of the imagination. It's all true but none of it really happened. My father was a poet and he never became senile. I didn't grow up in Boston nor have I ever been a painter. My mother was actually much wilder and even more eccentric than Fanny. I think that in writing the play I was fulfilling a fantasy. I was trying to phrase—or rephrase—my own attempts to be recognized by my parents.

A.C.T.: Then the theme of a child seeking her parents' acceptance and approval is something you consciously set out to develop?

T.H.: Yes, that was very real. My parents had such a tremendous influence on me that I felt I couldn't be able to progress as a writer until I'd put them into some kind of artistic perspective. I'm one of those people who, though I have teenage children of my own, still talk about my mother and father as if I were nineteen years old. It's sick! A grown woman isn't supposed to do that! But they still tug and pull at me. And I know that until I had come to terms with them in my writing, I would never be able to climb out of my artistic adolescence.

A.C.T.: Was it a successful effort?

T.H.: I think so. I was able to give us all a much happier ending than we really had. That was wonderful, particularly being able to rewrite my parent's history. As you know, most old couples don't walk off into the twilight. Actually, my mother died first and left my father quite bewildered. He became very ill and his death was horrifying as is that of any parent. I wanted to write Painting Churches to give them both a different ending.

A.C.T.: What is it about old Boston families like the Churches that makes them such appealing literary subjects?

T.H.: They're a dying breed. I didn't grow up in Boston but I did go back there to visit my grandparents on both sides of the family. I still stay in touch with a few of my parents' old friends and there are a couple of relatives who are still hanging on. But most members of my generation, as have I, married out of that group. Most of us consciously married not only non-Bostonians but non-Wasps altogether. Part of Gardner and Fanny's charm is that... they are a vanishing breed. Families like the Churchills really don’t exist anymore. Oh, there may be some remnants left somewhere, but most of the sons and daughters of those families left home and married out of the fold, thank God.

A.C.T.: What qualities of that Beacon Hill world characterize it for you?

TH.: The password I grew up with was “plain living and high thinking.” New Englanders like Fanny and Gardner are more concerned with ideas than they are with money. Ideas and letters matter tremendously to them. Gardner’s world is the world of the imagination and of great poetry and Fanny, too, has a fanciful imagination. Even though they’re part of a grand old family they aren’t that concerned with money.

A.C.T.: Is that why you cast Gardner as a poet and have him reciting verse throughout the play?

TH.: In my imagination, I conceived Gardner to be a cross between Robert Frost and Robert Lowell. He would of course love all the poets he recites from. When I was growing up, both my parents read aloud all the time. My father was one of those people who memorize a lot of poetry. All of a sudden in the middle of dinner he would start reciting a Yeats or Keats or e. cummings poem. It was very much in the household.

A.C.T.: Why did you choose Chopin for incidental music in the play?

TH.: My mother’s mother was a wonderful musician. She was a pianist; in fact I inherited her piano. She was a great Chopin player. As a little girl I remember spending hours sitting in the parlor listening to her play Chopin polonaises and waltzes. I guess that when I began writing about Boston, my grandmother’s old Chopin waltzes floated back into my mind. When you hear them, you’ll see that they are perfect for the play. They’re so wistful. Again, it’s the dying football, the lost romance.

A.C.T.: Is it more difficult to write comedy or drama?

TH.: They’re interchangeable to me. I don’t know the difference.

A.C.T.: What makes you laugh?

TH.: I have a very low level sense of humor. Sight gags make me laugh. People walking into doors, people slipping on banana peels, that sort of thing. Anything having to do with food I also find hilarious. I don’t know why, but I just find food hysterically funny.

A.C.T.: What is your relationship to Painting Churches, now, two years after you wrote it?

TH.: I’ve said goodbye to it certainly. It’s been done all over the place and I find that very gratifying. Theatres ask if I’ll come out and see it and I tend not to want to do that simply because I’ve already had the experience of watching the play come to life. I think it’s very dangerous to hold on to old work. And it’s so easy to do. I got a lot out of Painting Churches. I learned a lot about my own gifts and drawbacks as a writer. But now I’m very restless and moving on to new areas.

A.C.T.: What’s next?

TH.: Most writers start with the family and then they take on more far-reaching subject matter. I did the other way around, starting with much vaster canvases in Monitor and The Art of Living and then shrinking back to end up in the living room with Painting Churches. It was probably inevitable; every writer has to touch down there sooner or later. But I plan to make a fast retreat from the living room! My next play is going to take place in the most opposite setting you can imagine. I’m going back to working on larger canvases and I hope that as I get older, I’ll become more and more courageous. Maybe if I play my Glenn Gould records loud enough and chew enough gum I’ll just roost off into another stratosphere altogether.

THE AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE

OUR TOWN

by Thornton Wilder

(1938)

The Cast

Stage Manager

Peter Donat

Assistant Stage Manager

Wendell J. Grayson

Doctor Gibbs

Richard Riehle

Joe Crowell, Jr.

Matt Beiser

Hewie Nemoone

J. Steven White

Mrs. Gibbs

Roumarie Smith

Mrs. Gibbs

Francine Tacker

Mrs. Webb

Scott Bishop

George Gibbs

Jostine Turner

Rebecca Gibbs

Brian Rawson

Wally Webb

Annette Bening

Emily Webb

Johanna Jackson

Professor Willard

Ray Reinhardt

Mr. Webb

Sydney Walker

Mrs. Webb

Marian Walters

Mme. Webb

Henry Woroniez

Constable Warren

Bruce Williams

Sam Craig

Paterson

for Stebbins

Townsperson of Grover’s Corners

Nikos Dukas, Marty Piscione

Marcia Pizzo, Stephen Pratt

Jill Romero, Ken Watt

Directed by Janice Hutchins

and William Ball

Costumes by

Dawn Line

Lighting by

David Percival

Associate Director

Lucas Donat

The entire play takes place in Grover’s Corners, New Hampshire.

The first intermission will be twelve minutes; the second, five minutes.

UNDERSTUDIES

Doctor Gibbs—Bruce Williams, Mrs. Gibbs—Kate Brickley; Mrs. Webb—Johanna Jackson; Mrs. Webb—J. Steven White; Emily Webb—Janice Hutchins; Professor Willard—Peter Donat; Mr. Webb—Lawrence Hecht; Mrs. Sower—Linda Aldrich; Constable Warren—Bernard Vasth; Mrs. Webb—Brenda Kolar; Mr. Webb—Brendan Murphy; Mrs. Sower—Tricia Cusick; Mr. Sower—Will Cusick

This production is made possible by a generous gift from the Xerox Corporation.
they are a vanishing breed. Families like the Churchills really don’t exist anymore.
Oh, there may be some remnants left somewhere, but most of the sons and dughters of those families left home and married out of the fold, thank God.
A.C.T.: What qualities of that Beacon Hill world characterize it for you?
T.H.: The password I grew up with was "plain living and high thinking." New Englanders like Fanny and Gardner are more concerned with ideas than they are with money. Ideas and letters matter tremendously to them. Gardner’s world is the world of the imagination and of great poetry and Fanny, too, has a fanciful imagination. Even though they’re part of a grand old family they aren’t that concerned with money.
A.C.T.: Is that why you cast Gardner as a poet and have him reciting verse throughout the play?
T.H.: In my imagination, I conceived
Gardner to be a cross between Robert Frost and Robert Lowell. He would of course love all the poets he recites from.
When I was growing up, both my parents read aloud all the time. My father was one of those people who memorize a lot of poetry. All of a sudden in the middle of dinner he would start reciting a Yeats or Keats or e.e. cummings poem. It was very much in the household.
A.C.T.: Why did you choose Chopin for incidental music in the play?
T.H.: My father’s mother was a wonderful pianist. She was a pianist in fact. I inherited her piano. She was a great Chopin player. As a little girl I remember spending hours sitting in the parlor listening to her play Chopin polonaises and waltzes. I guess that when I began writing about Boston, my grandmother’s old Chopin waltzes floated back into my mind. When you hear them, you’ll see that they are perfect for the play. They’re so wistful. Again, it’s the dying football, the lost romance.
A.C.T.: Is it more difficult to write comedy or drama?
T.H.: They’re interchangeable to me. I don’t know the difference.
A.C.T.: What makes you laugh?
T.H.: I have a very low level sense of humor. Sight gags make me laugh. People walking into doors, people slipping on banana peels, that sort of thing. Anything happening, to do with food I also find hilarious.
I don’t know why, I just find food hysterically funny.
A.C.T.: What is your relationship to Painting Churches, now, two years after you wrote it?
T.H.: I’ve said goodbye to it certainly. It’s been done all over the place and I find that very gratifying. Theatres ask if I’ll come out and see it and I tend not to want to do that simply because I’ve already had the experience of watching the play come to life. I think it’s very dangerous to hold on to old work. And it’s so easy to do. I got a lot out of Painting Churches. I learned a lot about my own gifts and drawbacks as a writer. But now I’m very restless and moving on to new areas.
A.C.T.: What’s next?
T.H.: Most writers start with the family and then they take on more far-reaching subject matter. I did it the other way around, starting with much wider canvases in Morion and The Art of Chung and then shrinking back to end up in the living room with Painting Churches. It was probably inevitable; every writer has to touch down there sooner or later. But I plan to make a fast retreat from the living room! My next play is going to take place in the most opposite setting you can imagine. I’m going back to working on larger canvases and I hope that as I get older, I’ll become more and more couragous. Maybe if I play my Glenn Gould records loud enough and chew enough gum I’ll just zoom off into another stratosphere altogether.

THE AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE

premises

OUR TOWN
(1938)
by Thornton Wilder

The Cast

Stage Manager
Peter Donat

Assistant Stage Manager
Wendell J. Grayson

Doctor Gibbs
Richard Riehle

Joe Crowell, Jr.
Matt Beinzer

Hersie Gershon
J. Steven White

Mrs. Gibbs
Rosemarie Smith

Mrs. Webb
Francine Tacker

George Gibbs
Scott Bishop

Rebecca Gibbs
Jostine Turner

Wally Webb
Brian Rawson

Emily Webb
Annette Bening

Professor Willard
Johanna Jackson

Mr. Webb
Ray Reinhardt

Simeon Stimson
Sydney Walker

Mrs. Stimson
Markus Walters

Constable Warren
Henry Wersonic

Sam Craig
Bruce Williams

for Stoddard
William Paterson

Townsfolk of Grover’s Corners

Nile Soukas, Marty Pistone,
Marcia Pizzo, Stephen Pratt,
Jill Romero, Ken Watt

Directed by Janice Hutchins

and William Ball

Costumes by Diane Line

Lighting by David Pecival

Associate Director
Lucas Donat

The entire play takes place in Grover’s Corners,
New Hampshire.

The first intermission will be twelve minutes; the second, five minutes.

UNDERSTUDIES

Doctor Gibbs—Bruce Williams, Mrs. Gibbs—Kate Brickley; Mrs. Webb—Johanna Jackson;

George Gibbs—J. Steven White; Emily Webb—Janice Hutchins; Professor Willard—Peter Donat;

Mr. Webb—Lawrence Hecht; Mrs. Stimson—Linda Aldrich; Constable Warren—Bernard York;

Assistant Stage Manager, Simeon Stimson—for Stoddard—Frank Ottwell

This production is made possible by a generous gift from the Xero Corporation.
time and show the human soul its portay to be part of a never-ending, universal cycle: to juxtapose, in no less a context that of eternity, the life of a New Hampshire village against the life of the stars in the heavens.

Although Our Town stands hardly on its own, to its author attention should be paid. Thornton Wilder was, in his lifetime, among America’s leading men of letters. At the height of his fame, in the thirties and forties, he was ranked in importance with Hemingway and Fitzgerald, who were then a couple of his best pals. In his world travels, he had audiences with Popes at the Vatican, dined in Vienna with Sigmund Freud and in London with Bernard Shaw; and when in France, lodged at the villa of Gertrude Stein and Alice B. Toklas. He appeared on the cover of Time magazine, was called upon to write a movie for Hitchcock (Shadow of a Doubt) and collaborated with composer Paul Hindemith on an operatic version of his play The Long Christmas Dinner. His books sold well enough to provide private support and also earned him, along with an international reputation, three Pulitzer Prizes. The only other writer ever to be similarly thrice honored was Eugene O’Neill, recognized in all instances, of course, for his playwriting. Wilder—and here is a measure of the position he held in the literary community—was not only an award-winning dramatist but a Pulitzer Prize novelist as well.

Thornton Niven Wilder was born in Madison, Wisconsin, on April 7, 1897, the surviving member of a set of twin boys. He was named for his mother, the former Isabella Thornton Wilder, a Presbyterian minister’s daughter. Thornton’s father Amos was a Congregationalist with a Ph.D. in economics from Yale and at the time of his son’s birth was editor of the local newspaper.

Amos Wilder embraced the firm Calvinist attitudes of his New England ancestors and was harshly authoritarian in dealings with his children. He was ever fearful for his brood’s spiritual safety and let no opportunity go by at which he might lecture his two sons and three daughters on how to defend themselves against a world full of temptation. He carefully planned each of the children’s futures but from the start held out little hope for Thornton’s success. The elder Wilder’s disapproving nature strongly influenced his son, who strove all his life in vain to meet his overbearing father’s expectations. “The reason why the world is in such a sloppy state,” Thornton said late in his life, “is that our parents were so stupid.”

Amos’s support of Theodore Roosevelt led, in 1906, to his being posted in Hong Kong as consul general. He took his family with him and enrolled his children in a German-run school where they studied only six months before Amos decided that they should return with their mother to America. Papa remained in China for three years, keeping close tabs on his children’s progress through correspondence.

The Wilder family came to California and settled in Berkeley for a few years until Amos was transferred to Shanghai, where his wife and children rejoined him. Now fourteen, Thornton was enrolled in a boarding school for missionaries at Chiefoo. When he failed (by his father’s measure) to make the grade there, he was shipped back across the sea to the school in Oal, California, that his brother was attending. A year later, he was reunited in Berkeley with his mother and sisters and in 1915 graduated from Berkeley High School where he wrote his first play, a one-act entitled The Russian Princess—An Enchantment.

After high school, Thornton wanted to attend Yale, his father’s alma mater. But Amos thought that the worldliness of New Haven would threaten his son’s well-being. Thornton was enrolled (again, along with his older brother) at Oberlin College in Ohio, an institution desirable not only for its isolated location but also for its religious atmosphere. Thornton, as a child understandably shy and withdrawn, came into his own as a college student. He prospered in his studies, participated in school dramatic productions and found a lifelong mentor in
WILDER'S WORLD
by Jeffrey Hirsch

There is little that need be said about Our Town. Acclaimed a modern masterpiece at the time of its first production in 1938, anthologized in hundreds of drama collections, translated into more than thirty languages, and performed on stages around the world continuously for almost half a century, the play has always spoken very well for itself, forthrightly and in a familiar voice. With folksy appeal and an earnest belief in the dignity of the smallest events in daily life, it portrays America younger and more innocent than our own but does so with such honesty and homely wisdom as to render the picture it presents unimpeachable by time. At Our Town's heart is an artful ability to recapture lost time and show the human souls it portrays to be part of a never-ending, universal cycle to juxtapose, in no less a context than that of eternity, the life of a New Hampshire village against the life of the stars in the heavens.

Although Our Town stands hardly on its own, its author attention should be paid. Thornton Wilder was, in his lifetime, among America's leading men of letters. At the height of his fame, in the thirties and forties, he was ranked in importance with Hemingway and Fitzgerald, who were then a couple of his best pals. In his world travels, he had audiences with Popes at the Vatican, dined in Vienna with Sigmund Freud and in London with Bernard Shaw, and when in France, lodged at the villa of Gertrude Stein and Alice B. Toklas. He appeared on the cover of Time magazine, was called upon to write a movie for Hitchcock (Shadow of a Doubt) and collaborated with composer Paul Hindemith on an operatic version of his play The Long Christmas Dinner. His books sold well enough to provide private support and also earned him, along with an international reputation, three Pulitzer Prizes. The only other writer ever to be similarly thrice honored was Eugene O'Neill, recognized in all instances, of course, for his playwriting. Wilder—and here is a measure of the position he held in the literary community—was not only an award-winning dramatist but a Pulitzer Prize novelist as well.

Thornton Niven Wilder was born in Madison, Wisconsin, on April 17, 1897, the surviving member of a set of twin boys. He was named for his mother, the former Isabella Thornton Wilder, a Presbyterian minister's daughter. Thornton's father Amos was a Congregationalist with a Ph.D. in economics from Yale and at the time of his son's birth was editor of the local newspaper.

Amos Wilder embraced the firm Calvinist attitudes of his New England ancestors and was harshly authoritarian in dealings with his children. He was ever fearful of his brood's spiritual safety and let no opportunity go by at which he might lecture his two sons and three daughters on how to defend themselves against a world full of temptation. He carefully planned each of the children's futures but from the start held out little hope for Thornton's success. The elder Wilder's disappointing nature strongly influenced his son, who strove all his life in vain to meet his overbearing father's expectations. "The reason why the world is in such a sloppy state," Thornton said late in his life, "is that our parents were so stupid."

Amos's support of Theodore Roosevelt led, in 1906, to his being posted in Hong Kong as consul general. He took his family with him and enrolled his children in a German-run school where they studied only six months before Amos decided that they should return with their mother to America. Papa remained in China for three years, keeping close tabs on his children's progress through correspondence.

The Wilder family came to California and settled in Berkeley for a few years until Amos was transferred to Shanghai, where his wife and children rejoined him. Now fourteen, Thornton was enrolled in a boarding school for missionaries at Chefoo. When he failed (by his father's measure) to make the grade there, he was shipped back across the sea to the school in Oat, California, that his brother was attending. A year later, he was reunited in Berkeley with his mother and sisters and in 1918 graduated from Berkeley High School where he wrote his first play, a one-act entitled The Russian Princess—An Estrangement!

After high school, Thornton wanted to attend Yale, his father's alma mater. But Amos thought that the worldliness of New Haven would threaten his son's well-being. Thornton was enrolled (again, along with his older brother) at Oberlin College in Ohio, an institution desirable not only for its isolated location but also for its religious atmosphere. Thornton, as a child understandably shy and withdrawn, came into his own as a college student. He prospered in his studies, participated in school dramatic productions and found a lifelong mentor in
Charles H.A. Wager, a professor of literature, with Wager's encouragement, Wilder submitted several short plays to the Oberlin Literary Magazine and gained his first publication credits.

At the end of his second year at Oberlin, Wilder was once again uprooted at his father's whim. Amos had come back to America and was settled in New Haven. Now he wanted his sons at Yale, and so to Yale they went. The outbreak of World War I came at the end of Thornton's first year at the university and, like many of his classmates, he left school to enlist in the armed services. Extreme nearsightedness, however, limited his participation to a stint in the Coast Artillery Corps, at Ford Adams, Rhode Island. Following the Armistice, Wilder returned to Yale, where he contributed a number of stories and plays to the Yale Literary Magazine while serving on the publication's editorial board. In 1920, he received his undergraduate degree from Yale and prepared to embark on the career as a writer that he had chosen for himself.

But his father had other plans for him. School teaching would provide him with the secure means of support needed by a young man of the limited talents Amos thought his sons to possess. (When a Yale professor informed Amos that Thornton had a genius for writing, Mr. Wilder took the man to task for "putting my boy up way beyond his parts.") To better prepare Thornton for his life as a pedant, Papa sent him to the American Academy in Rome where he could brush up his Latin by studying archaeology. Thornton basked in Rome for nine months before he received his next order, a cable advising him that he was soon to assume a teaching position already arranged for him (by guess who?) at the Lawrenceville School for Boys in Princeton, New Jersey.

Wilder spent the next six years teaching French while many of his contemporaries were actually living in France. "I am the only American of my generation," he observed with a hint of regret many years later, "who did not go to Paris."

When not correcting French exercises or patrolling dormitory of which he was master, Wilder continued work on the novel he had begun in Rome. He received a scholarship to attend the MacDowell Colony in Peterborough, New Hampshire, in 1924 and during the first of many summers he was to spend at the famous artist's retreat (the New Hampshire village in Our Town is based on Peterborough), he completed his first novel. Published in 1926, The Cabal is the story of a group of modern-day Roman aristocrats whose resemblance to the ancient gods is unmistakable. The feat of time-tripping—combining past and present worlds—that Wilder effected to critical acclaim in The Cabal—which is one of the charming features of Our Town—earned him at the American Academy, "If you have ever wielded an archaeologist's picks," he claimed, "you are never the same again. You see Times Square as if it were an archaeological specimen two thousand years from now."

Wilder's second novel, The Bridge of San Luis Rey, was, like many of his books, based on a combination of fact and novel, suggested to him by another writer's work. "I do borrow from other writers, shamelessly," he once admitted, "I can only say in my own defense that I am a woman brought before the judge on a charge of shoplifting. I do steal, but, your Honor, only from the very best stores!"

Borrowing, in this instance, from a play by Prosper Merimée, Wilder fashioned what remains his most popular work of fiction. With its well-known first line—"On Friday noon, July the twentieth, 1714, the finest bridge in all Peru broke and precipitated five travelers into the gulf below"—The Bridge of San Luis Rey addresses themes that recur in Our Town: the vagaries of fate, the precariousness of mortal life and the importance of appreciating fully all experience. The novel was widely popular, received the 1927 Pulitzer Prize for fiction and made of its author a financially secure man. It also had the unexpected effect of forcing the Peruvian government to find a real-life counterpart for the bridge Wilder had invented.

Flush with success and overtaken by international celebrity, Wilder retired from Lawrenceville and began life as a full-time writer. He built a home for his parents in Hamden, Connecticut, just outside of New Haven, and toured Europe with his sister Isabel who devoted her adult life to serving as his confidante, traveling companion and amanuensis. Wilder completed his third novel, The Woman of Andros (based on a play by Terence), while on holiday and saw it published a few months after his first collection of short plays appeared in 1928.

When Wilder returned to the United States in early 1929, he discovered that his father's Connecticut newspaper business had recently failed, making him the family's sole means of support his brother had gone into the ministry. In order to insure continued prosperity, he accepted a half-time position at the University of Chicago with which to supplement his earnings from writing and lucrative lecture tours.

It was seemed about to settle into a comfortable pattern, Wilder was shaken by an attack on his work that appeared in the New Republic: referring to Wilder as the "Emile Zola of Culture" and the "Prophet of the Centeal City," the Communist critic Michael Gold took the writer to task for not addressing himself to the needs of the proletariat in his novels. "Where are the modern streets of New York, Chicago and New Orleans in these little novels?" Gold demanded, incredulous that in the midst of America's depression Wilder was writing about the effete carryings on of ancient Grecians. Although Gold's attack was more emotionally rousing than intellectually sound, it stirred up a literary controversy which along with the lukewarm critical reception given to Howen's My Destination (1934), Wilder's fourth novel, was sufficient to affect adversely his reputation as a novelist and cause him to look in a different direction for future artistic expression.

It was the theatre to which Wilder turned. Over the next dozen or so years, on the strength of only three full-length plays and a handful of one-acts, he easily resuscitated his ailing reputation and became one of America's most admired playwrights. "Druma is the form of writing that comes nearest to expressing life," he asserted as he moved from fiction to playwrighting. "On the stage it is always now."

The Long Christmas Dinner & Other Plays in One Act, published in 1931, contains several sketches in which Wilder developed the ideas of nonrealistic theatre that he would soon enlarge upon in Our Town. The title work of the collection spans a period of ninety years as succeeding generations of a family gather around the dinner room table (on an otherwise empty stage) for their Christmas feast. Characters enter from a portal representing birth on one side of the stage and exit through the opposite door beyond which it's understood lies death. All is orderly as one generation makes way for the next, time taking the casualties it can claim through old age, war or illness. The family perseveres and survives it all, passing its legacy on down the line into the future.

Another play in the collection, Pulcinella Car Histoire, employs the figure of a stage manager to introduce the audience to the play's other characters and to set its scenes verbally—again there is no scenery but for a few chairs. This amiable fellow strolls through the action of the play, frequently commenting on the story as it unfolds and occasionally taking a role for himself. He turns up again in The Happy Journey to Trenton and Camden, a third one-act in the volume, this time reading his lines from a script he holds in his hand. In tone and technique this short play is very much like Our Town and, of course, the stage manager is a close cousin to the one who appears in Wilder's first full-length play.

A.C.T.-15
Charles H.A. Wager, a professor of literature, With Wager's encouragement, Wilder submitted several short plays to the Oberlin Library Magazine and gained his first publication credits. At the end of his second year at Oberlin, Wilder was once again uprooted from his father's whim. Amos had come back to America and was settled in New Haven. Now he wanted his sons at Yale, and so to Yale they went. The outbreak of World War I came to the end of Thornton's first year at the university and, like many of his classmates, he left school to enlist in the armed services. Extreme nearsightedness, however, limited his participation to a stint in the Coast Artillery Corps, at Fort Adams, Rhode Island. Following the Armistice, Wilder returned to Yale, where he contributed a number of stories and plays to the Yale Literary Magazine while serving on the publication's editorial board. In 1920, he received his undergraduate degree from Yale and prepared to embark on the career as a writer that he had chosen for himself.

But his father had other plans for him. School teaching would provide one of the more secure means of support needed by a young man of the limited talents Amos thought his sons to possess. (When a Yale professor informed Amos that Thornton had a genius for writing, Mr. Wilder took the man to task for "putting my boy up way beyond his parts.") To better prepare Thornton for his life as a pedant, Papa sent him to the American Academy in Rome where he could brush up his Latin by studying archaeology. Thornton basked in Rome for nine months before he received his next order, a cable advising him that he was soon to assume a teaching position already arranged for him (by guess who?) at the Lawrenceville School for Boys in Princeton, New Jersey. Wilder spent the next six years teaching French while many of his contemporaries were actually living in France. "I am the only American of my generation," he observed with a hint of regret many years later, "who did not go to Paris." When not correcting French exercises or patrolling the dormitory of which he was master, Wilder continued work on the novel he had begun in Rome. He received a scholarship to attend the MacDowell Colony in Peterborough, New Hampshire, where he resided in 1924 and during the first of many summers he was to spend at the famous artist's retreat (the New Hampshire village in Our Town is based on Peterborough), he completed his first novel. Published in 1926, The Caball is a story of a group of modern-day Roman aristocrats whose resemblance to the ancient gods is unmistakable. The feat of time-tripping—combining past and present worlds—that Wilder effected to critical acclaim in The Caball, which is one of the charming features of Our Town, he learned at the American Academy. "If you have ever wielded an archaeologist's pickax," he claimed, "you are never the same again. You see Times Square as if it were an archaeological specimen two thousand years from now."

Wilder's second novel, The Bridge of San Luis Rey, was, like many of his earlier novels, and novels, suggested to him by another writer's work. "I do borrow from other writers, shamefully," he once admitted, "I can only say in my defense that this woman brought before the judge on a charge of shoplifting. I do steal, but, your Honor, only from the very best stores!" Borrowing, in this instance, from a play by Prosper Merimée, Wilder fashioned what remains his most popular work of fiction. With its well-known first line—"On Friday noon, July the twentieth, 1714, the finest bridge in all Peru broke and precipitated five travelers into the gulf below"—The Bridge of San Luis Rey addresses themes that recur in Our Town: the vagaries of fate, the preciousness of mortal life and the importance of appreciating fully all experience. The novel was wildly popular, received the 1927 Pulitzer Prize for fiction and made of its author a financially secure man. It also had the unexpected effect of forcing the Peruvian government to find a real-life counterpart for the bridge Wilder had invented.

Flush with success and overtaken by international celebrity, Wilder retired from Lawrenceville and began life as a full-time writer. He built a home for his parents in Hamden, Connecticut, just outside of New Haven, and toured Europe with his sister Isabel who devoted her adult life to serving as his confidante, traveling companion and amanuensis. Wilder completed his third novel, The Woman of Andros (based on a play by Terence), while on holiday and saw it published a few months after his first collection of short plays appeared in 1928. When Wilder returned to the United States in early 1929, he discovered that his father's Connecticut newspaper business had recently failed, making him the family's sole means of support (his brother had gone into the ministry). In order to insure continued prosperity, he accepted a half-timber position at the University of Chicago with which to supplement his earnings from writing and lucrative lecture tours. It was at this point that he seemed about to settle into a comfortable pattern. Wilder was shaken by an attack on his work that appeared in the New Republic: Referring to Wilder as the "Emile Zola of Culture" and the "Prophet of the Gentile Christ," the Communist critic Michael Gold took the writer to task for not addressing himself to the needs of the proletariat in his novels. "Where are the modern streets of New York-Chicago and New Orleans in these little novels?" Gold demanded, incredulous that in the midst of America's depression Wilder was writing about the effete carriages on of ancient Grecians. Although Gold's attack was more emotionally rousing than intellectually sound, it stirred up a literary controversy which along with the lukewarm critical reception given to Our Town's My Destination (1934), Wilder's fourth novel, was sufficient to affect adversely his reputation as a novelist and cause him to look in a different direction for future artistic expression.

It was the theatre to which Wilder turned. Over the next dozen or so years, on the strength of only three full-length plays and a handful of one-acts, he easily resuscitated his ailing reputation and became one of America's most admired playwrights: "Drama is the form of writing that comes nearest to expressing life," he asserted as he moved from fiction to playwriting. "On the stage it is always now."

The Long Christmas Dinner & Other Plays in One Act, published in 1931, contains several sketches in which Wilder developed the ideas of nonrealistic theatre that he would soon enliven in Our Town. The title work of the collection spans a period of ninety years as succeeding generations of a family gather around the dining room table (on an otherwise empty stage) for their Christmas feast. Characters enter from a portal representing birth on one side of the stage and exit through the opposite door beyond which it's understood lies death. All is orderly as one generation makes way for the next, taking the casualties it can claim through cold age, war or illness. The family perseveres and survives it all, passing its legacy on down the line into the future.

Another play in the collection, Railroad Car Histories, employs the figure of a stage manager to introduce the audience to the play's other characters and to set its scenes verbally—again there is no scenery but for a few chairs. This amiable fellow strolls through the action of the play, frequently commenting on the story as it unfolds and occasionally taking a role for himself. He turns up again in The Happy Journey to Trenton and Camden, a third one-act in the volume, this time reading his lines from a script he holds in his hand. In tone and technique this short play is very much like Our Town and, of course, the stage manager is a close cousin to the one who appears in Wilder's first full-length play.
Our Town draws not only on its author’s earlier playwriting efforts but also on his novels and on other writers’ works. There are touches throughout the play drawn from Edgar Lee Masters’ Spoon River Anthology (the poem Lucinda Matlock is directly quoted), and the view of life after death that Wilder offers comes from Dante’s Parapsy. An episode in Wilder’s own The Woman from Andros provided the basis for Our Town’s third act. Emily’s final hymn to life in the play was first heard in only slightly different form in The Cahoe, just as Rebecca’s speech which closes the first act was borrowed from James Joyce’s Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man. And permeating the play is the influence of Wilder’s close friend Gertrude Stein. Her belief in a human consciousness unbounded by time or place—the mind “knows what it knows when it knows it.” She maintained—is given perhaps its most accessible demonstration in the marriage of past, present and future that Wilder makes in Our Town.

I am writing the most beautiful little play you can imagine,” Wilder advised Stein in October, 1937. “It’s a little play with all the big subjects in it and a big play with all the little things of ordinary life impressed into it.” Our Town was begun in June at the MacDowell Colony and completed before Christmas, while Wilder was traveling in Europe. The playwright sent copies of his script off to Hed Harris, the preeminent theatrical director of the day, and to a few trusted readers. Friend and playwright Edward Sheldon responded, “You’ve broken every rule of playwriting. You’ve aroused no suspicion. You’ve prepared no suspense. You’ve resolved no tensions.” But Wilder’s old college professor, Charles Wagar, was unequivocal in his praise for the new play. “Words fail,” Wagar wrote. “You have done the greatest piece of work you’ve ever done and I don’t use the word ‘great’ lightly.”

Jed Harris was no less thrilled by the play and quickly set about putting it on stage. Wilder attended Our Town’s first rehearsal but, disgusted by the shaky readings being given by actors not yet familiar with the script, he never attended another one. The play premiered in Princeton and then went on to Boston for a second round of previews. In neither city was it well received nor did playwrights exactly flock to see it. Wilder blamed the production’s shortcomings on alterations Harris had made in his text. “What happened to my beautiful prose?” the playwright demanded. “Prase don’t play,” replied the director.

With tempers flaring all round, Harris decided to cut the heavy losses he was incurring during Our Town’s unsuccessful Boston tryouts and bring the show into New York without any further ado. The play opened on Broadway at the Henry Miller Theatre on February 4, 1938—a week ahead of schedule—and was immediately recognized as a work of enormously effective theatricality and tremendous emotional power. When the lengthy ovation the play received on opening night, Alexander Woollcott was seen leaving the theatre with tears still in his eyes. Asked his opinion of the new play, he refused to pass judgment. “I’ll rather comment on the 23rd Psalm,” he later explained. “In all my days as a theatre-goer, no play ever moved me so deeply.

A rare opportunity to experience the success of his play at first hand presented itself to Wilder when Frank Craven, the actor who originated the role of the Stage Manager, took a two week vacation after Our Town had been playing for some time. Wilder stepped into the role and although he is reported to have had some difficulty remembering his lines, his was said to be a serviceable performance. Apparently the experience settled well with him; he subsequently played the part in many revivals of Our Town around the country.

Wilder also stayed close to the play when it was sold to Hollywood, writing the screenplay for the 1940 film version, which starred most of the original Broadway cast and has a score composed by Aaron Copland. Among the play’s five television productions the most well known is one done in 1955 which featured Paul Newman as George Gibbs and Eva Marie Saint as Emily Webb. Frank Sinatra played the part of the singing Stage Manager and introduced Jimmy Van Heusen and Sammy Cahn’s now-to-be-popular tune, “Love and Marriage.” Of the play’s innumerable stage revivals over the years, the most warmly remembered is probably the 1969 New York production in which Henry Fonda played the Stage Manager with rare grace and good humor. Our Town will be seen again in New York this season as a musical comedy entitled Fromer’s Corner. Scheduled to open on Broadway May 1, theadaptation is by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt, the folks responsible for The Fantasticks.

Our Town earned Wilder his second Pulitzer Prize (the third in 1942 for The Skin of Our Teeth). In its published form the play sold hundreds of thousands of copies. Wilder included in the volume a preface written just weeks after the play opened. Some years later, in an introduction to a collection of his three full-length plays, (the third being The Matchmaker, produced in 1954 and later made into the hit musical Hello, Dolly! Wilder again looked at Our Town and offered some thoughts on the play. In the earlier essay he describes how he combined his interests in anthropology and sociology to develop the central theme of the play, which he casts as a question: “What is the relation between the countless unimportant details of our daily life, on the one hand, and the great perspective of time, social history and current religious ideas on the other? The second essay amplifies this notion but cautions readers and playwrights not to view the work too literally.

Our Town, Wilder writes, “is not offered as a picture of life in a New Hampshire village or as a speculation about the conditions of life after death. It is an attempt to find a value above all price for the smallest events in our daily life.” In both essays Wilder emphasizes the importance of the script’s expanding view of the world. “The recurrent words in this play,” he notes, “are ‘hundreds,’ ‘thousands,’ and ‘millions.’”

Wilder’s attention remained fixed on dramatic writing until about the time of World War II, in which he served as an Army intelligence officer. After the war, he took up residence at his family home in Connecticut where he lived until the end of his life. He returned to writing novels, publishing The Iles of March in 1948, and to teaching, occupying the prestigious Charles Eliot Norton Chair at Harvard in 1950-51.

Over the remainder of his seventy-eight years, Wilder led a quiet life in New Haven, devoted to long walks and the study of great literature. All manner of honorary degrees, government decorations and literary citations celebrating his lifetime achievement were awarded him, but he rarely appeared to accept them. The last of his nine novels—and the most autobiographical—Thephilan North, was published in 1973, two years before he died at his home in his sleep. “On my grave,” he had predicted, “they will write: Here lies a man who tried to be obligeing.

Obligeing in his art as well as his life, Wilder found wonder in aspects of human consciousness that extend far beyond heath and home. “Something is eternal,” says the Stage Manager in Our Town, “and that something has to do with human beings.” Half a lifetime after he wrote the classic play, Thornton Wilder revealed the artistic agenda that informs it: “I am interested in the drives that operate in society and in every man,” he said. “Pride, avarice and envy are in every home. I am not interested in the ephemeral—such subjects as the addictions of dentists. I am interested in those things that repeat and repeat and repeat in the lives of the millions.”
Our Town draws not only on its author's earlier playwriting efforts but also on his novels and on other writers' works. There are touches throughout the play drawn from Edgar Lee Masters' Spoon River Anthology (the poem Lucinda Mathew is directly quoted); and the view of life after death that Wilder offers comes from Dante's Purgatory. An episode in Wilder's own The Woman from Andros provided the basis for Our Town's third act. Emily's final hymn to life in the play was first heard in only slightly different form in The Cahola, just as Rebecca's speech which closes the first act was borrowed from James Joyce's Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man. And permeating the play is the influence of Wilder's close friend Gertrude Stein. Her belief in a human consciousness unbounded by time or place—the mind "knows what it knows when it knows it." she maintained—is given perhaps its most accessible demonstration in the marriage of past, present and future that Wilder makes in Our Town.

"I am writing the most beautiful little play you can imagine," Wilder advised Stein in October, 1937. "It's a little play with all the big subjects in it; and it's a big play with all the little things of the everyday world of life impressed into it." Our Town was begun in June at the MacDowell Colony and completed before Christmas, while Wilder was visiting Europe. The playwright sent copies of his script off to Bert Harris, the preeminent theatrical producer of the day, and to a few trusted readers. Friend and playwright Edward Sheldon responded, "You've broken every rule of playwriting. You've aroused no suspicion. You've prepared no suspense. You've resolved no tensions." But Wilder's old college professor, Charles Warger, was unequivocal in his praise for the new play. "Words fail," Warger wrote. "You have done the greatest piece of work you've ever done and I don't use the word 'great' lightly."

Jed Harris was no less thrilled by the play and quickly set about putting it on stage. Wilder attended Our Town's first rehearsal but, disconcerted by the shaky readings being given by actors not yet familiar with the script, he never attended another one. The play premiered in Princeton and then went on to Boston for a second round of previews. In neither city was it well received nor did playwrights exactly flock to see it. Wilder blamed the production's shortcomings on alterations Harris had made in his text. "What happened to my beautiful prose?" the playwright demanded. "Prose don't play," replied the director.

With tempests flaring all round, Harris decided to cut the heavy losses he was incurring during Our Town's unsuccessful Boston tryouts and bring the show into New York without any further ado. The play opened on Broadway at the Henry Miller Theatre on February 4, 1938—a week ahead of schedule—and was immediately recognized as a work of enormously effective theatricality and tremendous emotional power. When the lengthy ovation the play received on opening night, Vincent Alexander Woolcott was seen leaving the theatre with tears still in his eyes. Asked his opinion of the new play, he refused to pass judgment. "I'd rather comment on the 23rd Psalm," he later explained. "In all my days as a theatregoer, no play ever moved me so deeply."

A rare opportunity to experience the success of his play at first hand presented itself to Wilder when Frank Craven, the actor who originated the role of the Stage Manager, took a two week vacation after Our Town had been playing for some time. Wilder stepped into the role and although he is reported to have had some difficulty remembering his lines, his was said to be a serviceable performance. Apparently the experience settled well with him; he subsequently played the part in many revivals of Our Town around the country. Wilder also stayed close to the play when it was sold to Hollywood, writing the screenplay for the 1940 film version, which starred most of the original Broadway cast and has a score composed by Aaron Copland. Among the play's five televised productions (all produced without Wilder's direct involvement) was a 1955 musical version, featuring Paul Newman as George Gibbs and Eva Marie Saint as Emily Webb. Frank Sinatra played the part of the singing Stage Manager and introduced Jimmy Van Heusen and Sammy Cahn's now-too-popular tune, "Love and Marriage." Of the play's innumerable stage revivals over the years, the most warmly remembered is probably the 1969 New York production in which Henry Fonda played the Stage Manager with rare grace and good humor. Our Town will be seen again in New York this season as a musical comedy entitled Our Town: Country. Scheduled to open on Broadway May 1, the adaptation is by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt, the folks responsible for The Fantasticks.

Our Town earned Wilder his second Pulitzer Prize (the third in 1942 for The Skin of Our Teeth). In its published form, the play sold hundreds of thousands of copies. Wilder included in the volume a preface written just weeks after the play opened. Some years later, in an introduction of a collection of his three full-length plays (the third being The Matchmaker, produced in 1954 and later made into the hit musical Hello, Dolly!), Wilder again looked at Our Town and offered some thoughts on the play. In the earlier essay he describes how he combined his interests in archaeology and sociology to develop the central theme of the play, which he casts as a question: "What is the relation between the countless unimportant details of our daily life, on the one hand, and the great perspective of human beings?" Half a lifetime after he wrote the classic play, Thornton Wilder revealed the artistic agenda that informs it: "I am interested in the drives that operate in society and in every man," he said. "Pride, avarice and envy are in every home. I am not interested in the ephemeral—such subjects as the addictions of dentists. I am interested in those things that repeat and repeat and repeat in the lives of the millions."
continued from p. 34
for an opera, "Notafay Petrona," with composer
Lee Hoby, based on A Month in the Country.
In 1964 he directed Tartuffe and Hamlet at Shakespeare at Lincoln Center, and then crossed the Atlantic where he recruited his showing of Six Characters.
A native of New Rochelle and a graduate of Carnegie-Mellon University, Mr. Ball has been the recipient of a Fulbright scholarship, a Ford Foundation directorial grant, and an NBC/RCA director's fellowship. Among the first plays he directed for A.C.T. were Tartuffe, Six Characters in Search of an Author, Under The Wood, Tiny Alice, and King Lear. They were followed by Youth Night, The American Dream, Hamlet, Othello, The Three Sisters,
The Tempest, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead, Caesar and Cleopatra, The Conjuror, Cyrano de Bergerac, The Crucible, The Taming of the Shrew, The Cherry Orchard, Richard III, Jekyll and Hyde, The Barber of Seville, and
The Winter's Tale and Miss Appleg.
He has directed three of his productions for PBS television, including The Taming of the Shrew, for which he was nominated by the Television Critics' Circle as Best director of the year. In June 1979, Mr. Ball accepted the Antoinette Perry ('Tony') Award voted to
A.C.T. for its outstanding work in repertory performance and advanced theatre training. In the same year, Carnegie-Mellon University presented him with an honorary degree as Doctor of Fine Arts. He is active as a teacher and director in A.C.T.'s conservatory training programs. Mr. Ball's book, A Sense of Direction:
Some Observations on the Art of Directing, was LAWRENCE HECHT (Conservatory Director) returns to A.C.T. this year as head of A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program and as resident director. Last year he served as resident director and Director of Actor Training for the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Santa Maria, California, where his directing credits include Hurry,
Major Barbara and Bus Stop. This will be
Mr. Hect's 12th season with A.C.T. A graduate of the University of San Francisco and A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program, Mr. Hect has directed numerous productions for the Plays-in-Progress Series, as well as last season's Geery Theatre production of The Diary. Mr.
Hect is also a member of the acting company and has performed in more than 25 productions with A.C.T. including The National
Hand, The Visit, Burial Child, Night and Day,
The Three Sisters, Happy Endings, and The
Hedda, among others.
BENJAMIN MOORE (Managing Director)
has played an integral role in A.C.T.'s development since his arrival 14 years ago.
With a B.A. in English and drama from Dartmouth and an M.F.A. in Theatre Administration from the Yale School of Drama, he served as General Manager of the Westport Country Playhouse before joining A.C.T. as Production Manager in the fall of 1970. In that capacity, he supervised all departments involved in the physical presentation of A.C.T.
plays, producing over 70 productions in nine years. These include The Merchant of Venice,
The Conjuror, A Doll's House, The Matchmaker, Pillars of the Community, Peer Gynt, Desert Under the Elm, 3rd of June, A.R.
Wildervanck, All the Way Home, Knuck Knack,
Cyrano de Bergerac, The Taming of the Shrew,
Street Scene and The Music Man. In addition,
Mr. Moore coordinated the televised adaptations of Cyrano de Bergerac and The Taming of the Shrew, and produced A Christmas Carol for PBS television. He was largely responsible for developing A.C.T.'s complex repertory system and has taught theatre administration through our Academy. In 1979, he became General Manager for the company, overseeing all operations on a daily basis with special attention to budget and financial management.
He has been fundamental in developing the company's touring programs to the western states, Hawaii, Japan, the U.S.S.R. and currently, mainland China and the long-term
Touring Program program presently underway.
Mr. Moore became A.C.T.'s Managing Director
last fall.
EUGENE BARONE (Company Coordinator) is a charter member of A.C.T. who began his career as stage manager for the company. For the past 16 years, he has served as Associate Director on many of William Ball's productions, and has been largely responsible for revivals of Cyrano de Bergerac, The Taming of the Shrew, Hay Fever, The Circle, Private Lives and Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead. After receiving his bachelor of arts degree in music, he directed the famous Red Diamond
Chorus in the Army, and since has assisted Gower Champion, Ellis Rabb and Frances Ford
Coppola. Known to the company as "The Minister of Mirths," Mr. Barone has directed the Plays-in-Progress program and worked on the televised adaptations of Cyrano de Bergerac.
continued from p. 34

for an opera, Natalie Porter, with composer

Lee Hoiby, based on A Month in the Country.

In 1964 he directed Tartuffe and Hamlet at Shakespeare at Lincoln Center, and then traveled to London where he directed his staging of Six Characters.

A native of New Rochelle and a graduate of Carnegie-Mellon University, Mr. Ball has been the recipient of a Fulbright scholarship, a Ford Foundation directorial grant, and an

NBC-RCA directorial fellowship. Among the first plays he directed for A.C.T. were Tartuffe,

Six Characters in Search of an Author, Under Milk Wood, Tiny Alice, and King Lear. They were followed by Youthful Night, The American Dream, Hamlet, Oedipus Rex, The Three Sisters,

The Tempest, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead, Caesar and Cleopatra, The Conjuror,

Cyrano de Bergerac, The Crucible, The Taming of the Shrew: The Cherry Orchard, Richard III,

He has directed three of his productions for PBS television, including The Taming of the Shrew, for which he was nominated by the Television Critics' Circle as best director of the year. In June 1979, Mr. Ball accepted the

Antoniette Perry ("Tony") Award voted to A.C.T. for its outstanding work in repertory performance and advanced theater training. In the same year, Carnegie-Mellon University presented him with an honorary degree as Doctor of Fine Arts. He is active as a teacher and director in A.C.T.'s conservatory training programs. Mr. Ball's book, A Sense of Direction:

Some Observations on the Art of Directing, was published in September, 1984.

LAWRENCE HECHT (Conservatory Director) returns to A.C.T. this year as head of

A.C.T.'s Advanced Training Program and as associate director. Last year he served as resident director and Director of Actor Training for the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts in Santa Barbara, California, where his directing credits include Hurry, Major Barbara and performed. This will be Mr.

Hecht's 12th season with A.C.T. A graduate of the University of San Francisco and A.C.T.'s

Advanced Training Program, Mr. Hecht has directed numerous productions for the Plays-in-Progress Series, as well as last season's Geary Theatre production of The Dolls. Mr.

Hecht is also a member of the acting company and has performed in more than 25 productions with A.C.T. including The National

Hand, The Visit, Burial Child, Night and Day, The Three Sisters, Happy Landings and The Holiday, among others.

BENJAMIN MOORE (Managing Director) has played an integral role in A.C.T.'s development since his arrival 14 years ago. With a B.A. in English and drama from

Dartmouth and an M.F.A. in Theatre Administration from the Yale School of Drama, he served as General Manager of the Westport Country Playhouse before joining A.C.T. as Production Manager in the fall of 1970. In that capacity, he supervised all departments involved in the physical presentation of A.C.T. plays, producing over 70 productions in nine years. These include The Merchant of Venice, The Conjuror, A Doll's House, The Match-

maker, Pillars of the Community, Por Gost, Desire Under the Elms, 8th of July: At Aril, Wilderness, All the Way Home, Knack, Knack, Cyrano de Bergerac, The Taming of the Shrew,

Street Scene and The Music Master. In addition, Mr. Moore coordinated the televised adaptations of Cyrano de Bergerac and The Taming of the Shrew, and produced A Christmas Carol for PBS television. He was largely responsible for developing A.C.T.'s complex repertory system and has taught theatre administration through our Academy. In 1979, he became

General Manager for the company, overseeing all operations on a daily basis with special attention to budget and financial management. He has been fundamental in developing the company's touring programs to the western states, Hawaii, Japan, the U.S.S.R. and, currently, mainland China and the long-term Troubadour program presently underway. Mr.

Moore became A.C.T.'s Managing Director last fall.

EUGENE BARCONE (Company Coordinator) is a charter member of A.C.T. who began his career as stage manager for the company. For the past 16 years, he has served as Associate Director on many of William Ball's productions, and has been largely responsible for the revival of Cyrano de Bergerac, The Taming of the Shrew, Hay Fever, The Circle, Private

Lives and Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead. After receiving his bachelor of arts degree in music, he directed the famous Red Diamond Chorus in the Army, and since has assisted Composer Champion, Ellis Rabb and Francis Ford Coppola. Known to the company as "The Minister of Mirths", Mr. Barcone has directed the Plays-in-Progress program and worked on the televised adaptations of Cyrano de Bergerac,

The Taming of the Shrew and A Christmas Carol. Recently he celebrated his 50th production with A.C.T., and this season will again direct A.C.T.'s expanding Technicolor Program.

JANICE HUTCHINS (Director) joined A.C.T. nine seasons ago, after receiving her B.A. and M.A. degrees from San Jose State University. A Chicago native, she has studied directing with William Ball and with the late Edith Skinner. Miss Hutchins, who will direct her first repertory production, Pastime Charleston, next season after co-directing Our Town with William Ball, is also the producing director of the ongoing Plays-in-Progress series, has served as associate director to Nagle Jackson, Elizabeth Huddell and Allen Fletcher and has co-directed The Wolfpath and Miss Appley with William Ball at Sunnyvale Summer Repertory. In addition to directing, she is an actress and teaches acting in the Advanced Training Program. For PIP, she directed the premiere of Lizzy Baker in the Late Afternoon, AWOL and Dial Letters, as well as directing numerous studio productions. Miss Hutchins has toured with A.C.T. to Hawaii and Japan, and last year represented the company on an unprecedented theatre tour of the People's Republic of China. As an actress, Miss Hutchins has appeared in among other plays, Eauen, The Winter's Tale, Ak, Wilder's, The Merry Wives of Windsor, Hay Fever, The Rivals, The Little Foxes, A Christmas Carol, and A Midsummer Night's Dream.

DESIGNERS

RICHARD R. GOODWIN (Scenery) designs his first Geary stage production with Pastime Charleston. His work as Resident Design Associate has been seen in every A.C.T. repertory production for the past two seasons, principally under the direction of Ralph Funicello and Richard Segur. In addition to his work at A.C.T., Mr. Goodwin’s other theatre design credits include scenery for Divisio Street, The Avenue of the Americas, and Inherit the Wind, all at the Center Stage in Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. Goodwin has also done stock work at the Williamsburg Theatre Festival. He is a graduate of Dickinson College and has attended the Maryland Institute College of Art, where he studied painting and sculpture.

DREW LEE (Costumes), a native of the Bay Area and a graduate of the Fashion Institute of Design in San Francisco and Los Angeles, will have her work appear on the Geary stage for the first time in Our Town. Beginning at A.C.T. as an intern, Miss Lee has been head of non-upset wardrobe here for the past three seasons. In that capacity, she supervised the costuming for the Plays-in-Progress series and all special events, and designed the costumes for Dial Letters, a 1983 PIP offering, and a studio production of Uncle Vanya. In addition to her work at A.C.T., she was costume designer for Cypri for Contra Costa Musical Theatre and What the Butler Saws, Miss Appley, The Wolfpath, A Plague Display, A Thousand Crows and Devittis all for Sunnyvale Summer Repertory. For television, Miss Lee has worked on the Lucasfilm production of The Enchanted Garden, and ABC’s Partners in Crime.

DAVID PERCEVAL (Lighting) returns for his second season with A.C.T. Last season he recreated the lighting for A Christmas Carol, the Peninsula Repertory productions, and A.C.T.’s Hawaii tour of Miss Appley and Dial “M” for Murder. Prior to joining the design staff, he was a lighting intern at the Conservatory of Music and had studied under Dan Sevigny. Mr. Perceval’s other work includes the San Francisco tour of Willy Wonka, B.B.A., featuring James Whitmore; the San Jose Repertory Company’s productions of The Tempest and How the Other Half Lives; and a number of productions for the Oregon Contemporary Theatre, including Lost and A Kit Wilh Calvin.

RICHARD SEGUR (Scenery) returns for a tenth season as Resident Designer with A.C.T. Among his credits are The Three Sisters, The Hound, Hotel Paradiso and The Little Foxes, as well as The Thief of Baghdad, MacAdams About Nothing, The Trojan War Will Not Take Place, Buried Child, The Girl of the Golden West, The Winter’s Tale, 5th of July, The Visit, The Bourgeois Gentlemen, Cat Among the Pigeons and Something’s Afoot, which premiered at the Marines’ Memorial Theatre and went on to Broadway. A graduate of Chicago’s School of the Art Institute, Mr. Segur also created sets for the Broadway production of Butterflies Are Free and several off-Broadway productions. Mr. Segur’s other credits include the Old Globe Theatre’s productions of The Country Wife, The Blue Bird, Eurydice, Rosalind, and The Importance of Being Earnest; the Ahmanson Theatre’s production of Hay Fever, and the 50th anniversary season production of La Traviata for the Central City Opera Association in Central City, Colorado.
The Taming of the Shrew and A Christmas Carol. Recently he celebrated his 50th production with A.C.T, and this season will again direct A.C.T's expanding New Work Program.

JANICE HUTCHINS (Director) joined A.C.T. nine seasons ago, after receiving her B.A. and M.A. degrees from San Jose State University. A Chicago native, she has studied directing with William Ball and with the late Edith Skinner. Miss Hutchins, who will direct her first repertory production, Pasting Charlie, this season after co-directing Our Town with William Ball, is also the producing director of the ongoing Plays-In-Progress series, has served as associate director to Nagle Jackson, Elizabeth Huddleston and Allan Fletcher and has co-directed The Wolfpacker and Miss Appell with William Ball at Sundevale Summer Repertory. In addition to directing, she is an actress and teaches acting in the Advanced Training Program. For PIP, she directed the premiere of Lizzie Borden in the late Afternoon, A World and Deid Letters, as well as directing numerous studio productions. Miss Hutchins has toured with A.C.T. to Hawaii and Japan and last year represented the company on an unprecedented theater tour of the People's Republic of China. As an actress, Miss Hutchins has appeared in numerous plays, The Winters Tale, Ab Wilderose, The Merry Wives of Windsor, The Humor, The Little Foxes, A Christmas Carol and A Midsummer Night's Dream.

DESIGNERS

RICHARD R. GOODWIN (Scenery) designs his first Geary stage production with Painting Charleys. His work as Resident Design Associate has been seen in every A.C.T. repertory production for the last three seasons, principally under the direction of Ralph Fusco and Richard Seger. In addition to his work at A.C.T., Mr. Goodwin's other theatre design credits include scenery for Divisso Street, The Askan Center and Interior Wind, all at the Center Stage in Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. Goodwin has also done work at the Williamstown Theatre Festival. He is a graduate of Dickenson College and has studied painting and sculpture. DAWN LIN (Costumes), a native of the Bay Area and a graduate of the Fashion Institute of Design in San Francisco and Los Angeles, will have her work appear on the Geary stage for the first time in Our Town. Beginning at A.C.T. as an intern, Miss Lin has been head of make-up wardrobe here for the past three seasons. In that capacity, she supervised the costumes for the Plays-In-Progress series and all special events, and designed the costumes for Dead Letters, a 1983 PIP offering, and a studio production of Uncle Vanya. In addition to her work at A.C.T., she was costume designer on Copys for the Castelli/Rome Musical Theatre and What the Butler Says, Miss Appell, The Wolfpacker, The Humor, The Little Foxes, The Merry Wives of Windsor, The Humor, The Little Foxes, A Christmas Carol and A Midsummer Night's Dream.

DAVID PERCEIVAL (Lighting) returns for his second season with A.C.T. Last season he recreated the lighting for A Christmas Carol, the Peninsula Repertory productions, and A.C.T.'s Hawaii tour of Miss Appell and Dial "M" for Murder. Prior to joining the design staff, he served as Lighting Design Intern, designing for the Plays-In-Progress series and the studio productions for the Conservatory. Mr. Perceival's other work includes the San Francisco tour of The Three Sisters, The Taming of the Shrew and A Christmas Carol and A Midsummer Night's Dream.

RICHARD SEGER (Scenery) returns for a tenth season as Resident Designer with A.C.T. Among his credits are The Three Sisters, The Trojan War Will Not Take Place, The Devil's Advocate, The Tailor, the Golden West, The Winter's Tale, 5th of July, The Visit, The Bourgeois Gentlemen, Born in the Pigeon, Something's Afoot, which premiered at the Marines’ Memorial Theatre and went on to Broadway. A graduate of Chicago's School of the Art Institute, Mr. Seger also created sets for the Broadway production of Butterflies Are Free and several off-Broadway productions. Mr. Seger's other credits include the Old Globe Theatre's productions of The Country Wife, The Importance of Being Earnest: the Haberdasher's Theatre's production of A Christmas Carol, and the 50th anniversary season production of To Tell the Truth for the Central City Opera Association in Central City, Colorado.

Louis Vuitton

Louis Vuitton chez Louis Vuitton.

Since 1854, the luggage and accessories of Louis Vuitton have been the expression of a unique tradition. The "Carreaux" is an entirely leather-lined shoulder bag. It is both elegant and functional. It is trimmed with naturally tanned cowhide, and stitched with the utmost care.

This attention to detail is the mark of an authentic Louis Vuitton bag.

Fortunately, there is a place where the art and tradition of the master trunk-makers can be found.

Louis Vuitton.
HOW TO BUY TICKETS
Tickets-by-Telephone—Call (415) 673-6440 and charge your tickets to AMEX, Visa, or MasterCard ($1 service charge per order).
Window Sales—Visit A.C.T.'s Geary Theatre Box Office at Geary and Mason Streets.
Box Office Hours: 10 a.m. through the first intermission of the evening performance.
For information call 673-6440.
Mail Orders—Write A.C.T. at 450 Geary Street, San Francisco 94102, or sign up for A.C.T.'s mailing list in the Geary Theatre lobby.
Ticket Agencies—Most ticket agencies handle tickets for A.C.T. (service charges vary). If you buy through your local agency, you get either tickets (BASS or Ticketron) or a receipt to present prior to the performance at the Geary Theatre in exchange for your tickets.
NOTE: If tickets are held for you at the box office, it is best to pick them up at least one half-hour prior to the performance.

BOX OFFICE TICKET EXCHANGE AND DONATION POLICY
Tickets may be exchanged at the A.C.T. Box Office at least 24 hours prior to show time.
If, as an A.C.T. ticketholder, you are unable to attend a performance, you may make a tax-deductible contribution to the theatre by turning in your tickets at the box office prior to the curtain. Donations are accepted by telephone only on the day of the performance. A receipt for tax purposes will be issued in exchange for the tickets.

LATE ARRIVAL AT THE THEATRE
A.C.T. performances start on time! Curtain times vary so please check your tickets! Latecomers will not be seated until intermission or a suitable break in the performance, so those who have arrived on time are not disturbed.

NOTICES
Please observe the no smoking regulations. The use of cameras or tape recorders is not permitted. Kindly refrain from carrying in refreshments. In respect for the health of our performers it is the policy of this company not to actually light cigarettes during the play. The management reserves the right to change the attraction without prior notice to the patrons.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESS
Boxes are available for wheelchairs the week of the performance at $5 a ticket. A wheelchair accessible restroom is available on the main floor.

A.S.L. AT A.C.T.
A.C.T. has a special series of plays interpreted in American Sign Language for the hearing-impaired. For information call TTY (415) 771-0338 or 771-3880 (Voice). Special thanks to Steven Fritzch Rodser for his hard work and excellent performance in the interpreting of each show.

CHILDREN
Patrons are discouraged from bringing very young children or infants to regular performances. Every person, regardless of age, must have a ticket.
TO THE AUDIENCE

HOW TO BUY TICKETS
Tickets-by-Telephone—Call (415) 673-6440 and charge your tickets to AMEX, Visa, or MasterCard ($1 service charge per order).
Window Sales—Visit A.C.T.'s Geary Theatre Box Office at Geary and Mason Streets.
Box Office Hours: 10 a.m. through the first intermission of the evening performance.
For information call 673-6440.
Mail Orders—Write A.C.T. at 450 Geary Street, San Francisco 94102, or sign up for A.C.T.'s mailing list in the Geary Theatre lobby.
Ticket Agencies—Most ticket agencies handle tickets for A.C.T. (service charges vary). If you buy through your local agency, you'll get either tickets (BASS or Ticketron) or a receipt to present prior to the performance at the Geary Theatre in exchange for your tickets.
NOTE: If tickets are held for you at the box office, it is best to pick them up at least one half-hour prior to the performance.

BOX OFFICE TICKET EXCHANGE AND DONATION POLICY
Tickets may be exchanged at the A.C.T. Box Office at least 24 hours prior to show time.
If, as an A.C.T. ticketholder, you are unable to attend a performance, you may make a tax-deductible contribution to the theatre by turning in your tickets at the box office prior to the curtain.
Donations are accepted by telephone only on the day of the performance. A receipt for tax purposes will be issued in exchange for the tickets.

LATE ARRIVAL AT THE THEATRE
A.C.T. performances start on time. Curtain times vary so please check your tickets! Latecomers will not be seated until intermission or a suitable break in the performance, so those who have arrived on time are not disturbed.

NOTICES
Please observe the no smoking regulations. The use of cameras or tape recorders is not permitted. Kindly refrain from carrying in refreshments. In respect for the health of our performers it is the policy of this company not to actually light cigarettes during the play. The management reserves the right to change the attraction without prior notice to the patrons.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESS
Boxes are available for wheelchairs the week of the performance at $5 a ticket. A wheelchair accessible restroom is available on the main floor.

A.S.L. AT A.C.T.
A.C.T. has a special series of plays interpreted in American Sign Language for the hearing-impaired. For information call TTY (415) 771-0338 or 771-3880 (Voice). Special thanks to Steven Fritsch Rudsor for his hard work and excellent performance in the interpreting of each show.

CHILDREN
Patrons are discouraged from bringing very young children or infants to regular performances. Every person, regardless of age, must have a ticket.
CREDITS
Larry Merkle for A.C.T. photography; special thanks to Herbert Bernard and staff of Herbert's Furs Inc. for fur storage and services; special thanks to Aquinas Whooley, The O'Deyers and Bernard Curran for assistance on production of Translations.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT RATES
Group discounts are available to groups of 15 or more attending A.C.T. productions. Information on all group discounts may be obtained by calling or writing Jacque Jordan at A.C.T., 771-3680.

GIFT IDEAS
Gifts available from A.C.T.: The A.C.T. of Cooking is a collection of recipes from the kitchens of the A.C.T. family, available by mail for $6.00 including postage and handling. The tote bag and apron, specially designed for A.C.T., are off-white with burgundy lettering. The tote bags are $15.75 each and the aprons are $16.75 each; prices include postage and handling. Make checks payable to Friends of A.C.T.

HOME COOKED MEAL WITH A FAMILY
This is what Conservatory students coming to A.C.T. from other parts of the country say they miss the most. Please . . . if you would like to welcome one or two young actors into your home this season for an evening meal, put your name on the Hospitality List now. Call Merbeth or Emilya at the Conservatory office, 771-3680.

ANY DISCARDS?
The A.C.T. props department welcomes the donation of any usable furniture, clothing, books and other household items. Please call the production office, 771-3680.

Add Drama to Your Life!
Bay Area Theatre Week
May 4 - 13 · 1985
CREDITS
Larry Merkle for A.C.T. photography; special thanks to Herbert Bernard and staff of Herbert's Furs Inc. for fur storage and services; special thanks to Aquinas Whodoey, The O'Dowers and Bernard Currant for assistance on production of Translations.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT RATES
Group discounts are available to groups of 15 or more attending A.C.T. productions. Information on all group discounts may be obtained by calling or writing Jacque Jordan at A.C.T., 771-3880.

GIFT IDEAS
Gifts available from A.C.T.: The A.C.T. of Cooking is a collection of recipes from the kitchens of the A.C.T. family, available by mail for $6.00 including postage and handling. The tote bag and apron, specially designed for A.C.T., are off-white with burgundy lettering. The tote bags are $15.75 each and the aprons are $16.75 each, prices include postage and handling. Make checks payable to Friends of A.C.T.

HOME COOKED MEAL
WITH A FAMILY
This is what Conservatory students coming to A.C.T. from other parts of the country say they miss the most. Please... if you would like to welcome one or two young actors into your home this season for an evening meal, put your name on the Hospitality List now. Call Merbeth or Emilya at the Conservatory office, 771-3880.

ANY DISCARDS?
The A.C.T. props department welcomes the donation of any usable furniture, clothing, books and other household items. Please call the production office, 771-3880.

---

Add Drama to Your Life!
Bay Area Theatre Week
May 4 - 13 · 1985

There is a special feel in an Oldsmobile

1985 Olds Ninety Eight Regency.
The remarkable marriage of luxury and precise road management.

That ride is made smooth by Ninety-Eight's road management system: four-wheel independent suspension, electronic level control, rack and pinion steering and front wheel drive. You feel the road—but not the bumps. See your dealer for a test drive.

Oldsmobiles are equipped with engines produced at facilities operated by GM and its subsidiaries or affiliated companies worldwide.
CONTRIBUTORS

The American Conservatory Theatre is grateful for its continuing support from individuals, local and national foundations and corporations, the California Arts Council, the City and County of San Francisco Hotel Tax Fund, and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Our donors make great theatre possible. We salute them by associating their names with the literary giants of our rich dramatic heritage.

SOPHOCLES CIRCLE
($25,000 AND ABOVE)

- BankAmerica Foundation
- Carter Hawley Hale Stores, Inc.
- William Randolph Hearst Foundation
- Stuart and Mabel Hedden Trust
- William and Flora Hewlett Foundation
- James Irvine Foundation
- William C. Irwin Trust
- Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Johnson, C.A.A.
- Louis R. Lazar Foundation
- Andrew W. Mellon Foundation
- National Corporate Theatre Fund
- Shubert Corporation
- The Shubert Foundation, Inc.
- Aina Brooks Walker Foundation

- Mr. Herbert M. Dwight
- Fitchman’s Fund Foundation
- Dr. Margot Hadden Green, C.A.A.
- Hewlett-Packard Company
- Hyerian Foundation
- Mr. Robert M. Moore
- Pacific Telesis Group
- David and Lucile Packard Foundation
- Dr. and Mrs. H. Harrison Saylor, C.A.A.
- L.J. and Mary C. Skaggs Foundation
- Transamerica Corporation
- Tween Company
- Union Pacific Foundation
- Mrs. Alice B. Volckhome
- Wells Fargo Foundation

SHAKESPEARE CIRCLE
($10,000 - $24,999)

- Anonymous
- Anonymous
- Boothby Helping Fund
- Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Getty
- Laykin & Cie
- Mr. Cyril Magrane
- I. Magnin
- Millard Foundation
- Xerox Foundation

WILLIAMS CIRCLE
($5,000 - $9,999)

- Mervyn L. Brenner Foundation
- Mr. and Mrs. Brook H. Byers
- Chevron U.S.A., Inc.
- Comdisco Financial Services Foundation
- Crocker National Bank
- Cyrene Zellerbach Foundation

- Mr. Stephen C. Pratt
- Prudential-Bache Securities
- Edna M. Reicheim Fund
- S.F. Retail Merchants Association
- Emperium-Capwell, Goodrich, Liberty
- House, Macy’s, J. Magnin, Neiman-Marcus
- Saks Fifth Avenue
- Mr. Melvin M. Shwab
- Mr. and Mrs. Gary J. Torre

ONEILL CIRCLE
($2,500 - $4,999)

- Anonymous
- Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Armstrong, C.A.A.
- Carlos Fund
- Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dolby
- Embarcadero Center
- Mr. Vincent Frist
- Richard and Rhoda Goldman Fund
- Mr. Douglas W. Grigg
- Junior League of San Francisco, Inc.
- Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Kahn
- Levi Strauss Foundation
- McKesson Foundation, Inc.
- Mr. and Mrs. Burton J. McMurtry
- Mobil Oil Corporation
- Mr. Stephen C. Pratt
- Prudential-Bache Securities
- Edna M. Reicheim Fund
- S.F. Retail Merchants Association
- Emperium-Capwell, Goodrich, Liberty
- House, Macy’s, J. Magnin, Neiman-Marcus
- Saks Fifth Avenue
- Mr. Melvin M. Shwab
- Mr. and Mrs. Gary J. Torre

WILDER CIRCLE
($1,000 - $2,499)

- Allamont, Inc.
- American Building Maintenance Service
- The John Arrillaga Foundation
- Atwater Family Foundation
- Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Bechtel, Jr.
- Mr. and Mrs. W. Andrew Beckstoffer
- L.W. Bingley, Inc.
- Mr. and Mrs. Johnson S. Bogard
- Robert and Alice Bridges Foundation
- John M. Bryan Family Fund
- Castle & Cooke, Inc.
- Century Electric Construction Company
- The Christensen Fund
- Mr. H. Brooke Clyde
- Columbia Pictures Industries, Inc.
- Cooke Foundation, Ltd.
- Design Workshops
- Dillingham Corporation
- Dinner Luvion Company
- The Distribution Fund
- Eldorado Foundation
- Equistar Financial Group, Inc.
- Mr. Werner Erhard
- Fadley Packaging Corporation
- First Interstate Bank Foundation
- Mrs. Mortimer Fleischhacker
- Mortimer Fleischhaker Foundation
- Genstar Corporation
- Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Ginzton
- Grubb & Ellis
- Walter and Elise Haas Fund
- Hotel Mark Hopkins
- IBM Corporation
- Industrial Indemnity Company
- Mrs. Ada Glover Jackson
- Mr. and Mrs. George F. Jewett, Jr.
- Mrs. Paul B. Kelly
- Mr. Woodward Kingman, C.A.A.
- Kerner Foundation
- KRON-TV
- Ms. Sandra Kottweg
- Lakeside Foundation
- Mr. and Mrs. John Langan
- Mr. and Mrs. Dean S. Lesher
- Mr. Francis A. Martin, III
- Eleanor Ellis Mazer Fund
- Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Meyer
- Mr. and Mrs. Arjay Miller
- Mr. Cal Nickel
- Norland Properties
- Otrich, Harrington & Satchell
- Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Oduber
CONTRIBUTORS

The American Conservatory Theatre is grateful for its continuing support from individuals, local and national foundations and corporations, the California Arts Council, the City and County of San Francisco Hotel Tax Fund, and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Our donors make great theatre possible. We salute them by associating their names with the literary giants of our rich dramatic heritage.

SOPHOCLES CIRCLE
($25,000 AND ABOVE)
Bank of America Foundation
Carter Hawley Hale Stores, Inc.
William Randolph Hearst Foundation
Stuart and Mabel Heddle Trust
William and Flora Hewlett Foundation
James Irvine Foundation
William C. Irwin Charitable Foundation
Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Johnson, C.A.A.
Louis R. Larue Foundation
Andrew W. Mellon Foundation
National Corporate Theatre Fund
Shubert Corporation
The Shubert Foundation, Inc.
Alma Brooks Walker Foundation

Mr. Herbert M. Dwight
Fenian's Fund Foundation
Dr. Marion Hadden Green, C.A.A.
Hewlett-Packard Company
Hypermotion Foundation
Mr. Robert M. Moore
Pacific Telco Group
David and Lucile Packard Foundation
Dr. and Mrs. H. Harrison Sadler, C.A.A.
L.J. and Mary C. Skaggs Foundation
Transamerica Corporation
Tweed Company
Union Pacific Foundation
Ms. Alice B. Vinciokos
Wells Fargo Foundation

ONEILL CIRCLE
($10,000 - $24,999)
Anonymous
Anonymous
Anonymous
Boothcutter Helping Fund
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon P. Getty
Laskin et Cie
Mr. Cyril Maguire
L. Magnin
Millard Foundation
Xerox Foundation

WILDER CIRCLE
($5,000 - $9,999)
Mervyn L. Brenner Foundation
Mr. and Mrs. Brook H. Byrnes
Chevron U.S.A., Inc.
Comdisco Financial Services Foundation
Crocket National Bank
Cynic Zellerbach Foundation

Mr. and Mrs. Brian J. Torre
Mr. Herbert M. Dwight
Fenian's Fund Foundation
Dr. Marion Hadden Green, C.A.A.
Hewlett-Packard Company
Hypermotion Foundation
Mr. Robert M. Moore
Pacific Telco Group
David and Lucile Packard Foundation
Dr. and Mrs. H. Harrison Sadler, C.A.A.
L.J. and Mary C. Skaggs Foundation
Transamerica Corporation
Tweed Company
Union Pacific Foundation
Ms. Alice B. Vinciokos
Wells Fargo Foundation

ONEILL CIRCLE
($2,500 - $4,999)
Anonymous
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Armstrong, C.A.A.
Carson Fund
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dalby
Embarcadero Center
Mr. Vincent Frits
Richard and Rhoda Goldman Fund
Mr. Douglas W. Grigg
Junior League of San Francisco, Inc.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Kahn
Levi Strauss Foundation
McKesson Foundation, Inc.
Mr. and Mrs. Burton J. McMurtry
Mobil Oil Corporation
Mr. Stephen C. Pratt
Prudential-Bache Securities
Edna M. Reichmuth Fund
S.F. Retail Merchants Association;
Emporium-Capwell, Gerdau, Liberty
House, Macy's J. Magnin, Neiman-Marcus
Saks Fifth Avenue
Mr. Melvin M. Sway
Mr. and Mrs. Gary J. Torre

TURK MURPHY AND HIS SAN FRANCISCO JAZZ BAND

WILDEN CIRCLE
($1,000 - $2,499)
Almax, Inc.
American Building Maintenance Service
The John Arrillaga Foundation
Atkinson Family Foundation
Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Bechtel, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Andrew Becksteffer
L.W. Beeler, Inc.
Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bogard
Robert and Alice Bridges Foundation
John M. Bryan Family Fund
Castle & Cooke, Inc.
Century Electric Construction Company
The Christensen Fund
Mr. H. Brooke Clyde
Columbia Pictures Industries, Inc.
Cooke Foundation, Ltd.
Design Workshops
Dillingham Corporation
Dinner Levison Company
The Distribution Fund
Eldorado Foundation
Equus Financial Group, Inc.
Mr. Werner Erhard
Fahley Packaging Corporation
First Interstate Bank Foundation
Mrs. Mortimer Fleishhacker
Mortimer Fleishhacker Foundation
Genstar Corporation
Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Ginzton
Grabh and Ellis
Walter and Elise Haas Fund
Hotel Mark Hopkins
IBM Corporation
Industrial Indemnity Company
Mrs. Ada Glover Jackson
Mr. and Mrs. George F. Jewett, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. B. Kelly
Mr. Woodward Kingsman, C.A.A.
Koons Foundation
KRON TV
Ms. Sandra Korttig
Lakeside Foundation
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lanoe
Mr. and Mrs. Dean S. Lesher
Mr. Francis A. Martin, III
Eleanor Elks Mazer Fund
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Meyer
Mr. and Mrs. Arjay Miller
Mr. Cal Nickel
Norland Properties
Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Osher

Noises Off
5 WEEKS ONLY!

APRIL 2 - MAY 4
Engagement will not be extended unless close order is received prior to tour.
Charge by phone:
(415) 673-4400

CURRAN THEATRE
300 Eddy Street, San Francisco
WWW.CURRANTHEATRE.COM
Phone: 415/391-2500
When the White House asked us to cater a State Dinner for President Reagan and Queen Elisabeth II, we knew the menu had to be as memorable as the occasion itself. So for the grand finale, we created an original dessert especially in honor of the Queen.

Aurora Pacifica, as St. Francis Chef Norbert Brandt proudly named his creation, combined a subtle, orange-accented sauce, a delicate puff pastry filled with ginger sabayon, fresh strawberries and a sprig of fresh mint. Delicate lines of raspberry puree create the effect of a spectacular California sunset.

The St. Francis Catering Staff takes pride in making every event extraordinary. Which is why, for 80 years, San Franciscoans and guests from around the world have chosen us to cater their affairs. Let us make your next party memorable. We'll treat you like royalty, too.

St. Francis Catering, We deliver.

For more information call the Catering Manager at (415) 774-5226.
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Strobin
Simpson Paper Company
Mr. Lawrence B. Smith
Soho Petroleum Company
Mr. Alfred Taubein
Mr. and Mrs. Ian Thomson
Ms. Sylvia Cox Toll
United States Leasing Corporation

Victoria Service Plan
Brayton Wilbur Foundation
C.N. Wilcox Trust
Ms. Dore Williams
Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Youndahl
Mr. and Mrs. Betti Zappaphisposiou, C.A.A.

MOLIERE CIRCLE
($500 - $999)
Mr. Marvin A. Gottschalk
Mr. Milward Allbronda
Arthur Andersons & Co. / Mrs. Dorothy K. Bonet
Mr. and Mrs. Corwin Booth / Mr. Earl D. Brodie
Mr. Carleton Bryan / Mr. Paul T. Burnandt / Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Busson / Mr.
Mr. and Mrs. Park Chamberlain / Mr. and Mrs. T.Z.
Chu / Mr. James C. Clark / Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davis / Mr. and Mrs. Richard Driessen, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Driscoll / EGG Foundation
Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Ebsl / Mr. Gilmore E.
Erickson / Mr. First Myrtle Fund / Mr. and Mrs.
James H. Ford / Friedland Becker, Inc. / Dr. and
Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Friedman / Dr. and Mrs.
Richard Gonzales / Mr. and Mrs. Philip Grover / Mr.
Mr. and Mrs. Neil E. Harlan / Mrs. Mary
Harrington / I.A.T.S.E. Local #16 / Mrs. Dora D.
Ike / Ms. Tola G. Kleinman / Mr. and Mrs.
James P. Lilly, Sr. / Mr. Jack Lemmon / Mr.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Long / Mr. and Mrs.
Merrill Magawish / Matson Navigation Company / Dr.
Joseph Maurizer / Dr. Christopher Meyers / Mr.
Mr. and Mrs. William G. Myers / Mr. and Mrs.
Merrill E. Newman / Mr. and Mrs. John Anthony O'Donnell / Mr. and Mrs. Frank F.

Orr / Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. / Mr. T.
Gary Rogers / Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Schultze
Security Pacific Foundation / Mrs. Maryannama
Shaw / Mr. Suzie S. Thompson / Trans Ocean
Leasing Corporation / Mr. Kent T. Tumlin
Dr. and Mrs. John R. Upton / Mr. and Mrs.
Ronald V. Vanderberghe / Mr. and Mrs. W.
Draiman Van Ness / Dr. and Mrs. H. Hugh
Vincent / Mr. Brooks Walker, Jr. / Mr. and Mrs.
Craig Wallace / Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wertheim

CHIKHOV CIRCLE
($250 - $499)
Mr. Ted Alman / Mr. Howard Allen / Mr. and Mrs. James Michael Allen / Dr. Rick Arthur
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Armstrong / Mr. Thomas E.
Baker / Mr. North Baker / Mrs. William P.
Barrett / Mrs. Courtney M. Basset / Dr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Bettman / Mr. and Mrs. John
H. Beebe / Mr. Dana Brettell / Mr. Vernon
Beck / Mr. and Mrs. Arnold L. Bloom / Mr.
James R. Blunt / Mr. and Mrs. J. Jack Boggs
Ms. Charlotte MacGregor Boggs / Dr. and Mrs. Warren Breidenbach / Mr. Kenneth R.
Brower / Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bryan / Dr.
Arthur C. Cavallaro / Mrs. Bernice H. Connell
Dr. and Mrs. Michael N. Cooper / Mrs. E.
Morris Coss / Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Cosey
Ms. Marjorie Y. Crosby / Mr. and Mrs. Ricky J.
Currie / Mr. Donald K. Davis / Mr. and Mrs.
Reid W. Dennis / Mr. Marshall Dill, Jr. / Mr.
Arthur Dolan, Jr. / Mr. and Mrs. John R.
Dryden / Mr. D. Lee Edmundson / Mr. Delia
Filshticker Ehrlich / Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Finnman / Mr. Albert M. Everett / Leon A.
Feinmane Associates / Mr. and Mrs. C. A.
Foster / Mr. and Mrs. David Filshticker / Mr. Robert
Foley / Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Fowler, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. David E. Francis / Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Frenkler / Mr. David A. Friedman / Mr.
Green, Nakahara & Arnold / Mr. Robert C.
Cousy / Mrs. Isabella Herrick Grant / Dr. and Mrs. Sheldon Goos / Mr. and Mrs. Morgan A.
Garnet / Mr. Lyle L. Halm / Mr. and Mrs.
S. Harnes / Dr. and Mrs. Roger W. Haug / Mr.
Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Hoffman / Mr. and Mrs.
David Jerem inol / Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Kane
Mr. and Mrs. Ida Kaplan / Mr. and Mrs. J. L.
Kingley / Mr. and Mrs. June Knikker / Mr. and Joseph C. Kushner / Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Kane
Dr. Selma Kaplan / Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kingley
Mr. and Mrs. Patie Klinker / Mr. and Mrs.
Ira L. Loeber / Mrs. Dorothy J. Lynch / Dr.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. McCormick / Mr. and Mrs.
R. John McGuire / Mr. and Mrs. Karen E. McGuire / Mr.
and Mrs. Glen McLaughlin / Mrs. Donald G. McNeil / Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mitchell / Mr. Floyd Moore / Mr. Milton J. Monk / Mr. Joseph C. Nagy / Dr. and Mrs. Bernard M. Oliver / Mr. George Grant Ordway / Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Pauley / Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Parsons / Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Peternell / Mr. Thomas B. Porter / Mr. and Mrs. James F. Preston / Mrs. Jacob Rainwater / Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Reynolds / Mr. Norman Rosencstock / Mr. William M. Roth / Rucker Fuller Company / Mr. and Mrs. David W. Rody / F J. Patrol Special Police / Beat 46 / Ms. Barbara Schultz / Mr. Harold E. Snelstad / Ms. Ruth A. Short / Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Simon / Mr. and Mrs. David Slapczynski / Dr. Maurice Sokolow / Mrs. Victor Staadecker / Standard Soup Company / Dr. and Mrs. John R. Stephens / Mr. Daniel E. Stone / Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Strattico / Bernard T. Tash Foundation / Mr. Robert M. Taubman / Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Tedeschi / Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tinkham / Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Tingey / Vista U.S.A., Inc. / Dr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Wallerstein / Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Weaver / Marianne and John Weigel / Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Weisbrod / Mrs. Nancy C. White / Mr. and Mrs. Wil Wong

Barwood / Mrs. Dudley Barnes / Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Baum / Mr. James W. Baum / Mr. Irwin Bear / Mr. and Mrs. James Beaver / Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Beib / Mr. and Mrs. Joaquin R. Benitez / Ms. Donna Beck / Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Beck / Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Beckman / Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Bello / Mr. and Mrs. Dorothy Bell / Mr. Geoffrey A. Bell / Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bell / Mr. Jerry R. Belen / Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bernst / Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Bennett / Ms. Conde Lee Bennett / Mr. Geraldine C. Bennett / Mr. Ron Befkin / Mr. Murphy L. Bennett / Dr. and Mrs. Philip Bernstein / Mr. B. E. Benson / Mr. Victor A. Bertolasi / Mr. Peter J. Benson / Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Bercy / Mr. Paul A. Blackwell / Mrs. Jean D. Binder / Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bisbee / Mr. and Mrs. Nordal F. Blaker / Mr. and Mrs. Anton Bley / Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Boas / Dr. William B. Bolen / Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bolen / Mr. Gene Bones / Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bostock / Mr. Christopher Booth / Mr. D. Power Brown / Mr. and Mrs. Anthony M. Brown / Mr. Richard F. Bowman / Mr. Wayne E. Bowser / Mr. George McNeil Bowles / Ms. Sharon Boulton / Mr. Frances Bradford / Mr. and Mrs. Don Brandenburg / Mr. Stephen Brosow / Dr. John P. Broder / Dr. Dries Todd Brown / Dr. Elmer Brown / Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Brown / Mr. Patti Brown / Mr. Robert E. Brown / Dr. Thomas Brown / Dr. Darrell N. Browning / Mr. I. Joanna E. Bruggemann / Mrs. Robert Brunell / Ms. Gail Bryun / Mr. Alan W. Buch / Ms. Eleanor Buchanan / Mrs. Ellen S. Buben / Andrew L. Bull, M.D., Inc. / Mr. and Mrs. John R. Burgess / Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Burnett / Mr. James A. Burns / Ms. Marie E. Byrne / Mr. Thomas F. Byrnes, Jr. / Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Calkins / Mr. Robert H. Callaghian / Mr. Paul E. Cameron / Ms. Patricia S. Campana / Ms. M.C. Canada / Ms. Mary E. Cantrell / Mr. and Mrs. John Carey / Mr. and Mrs. Moont L. Carlton / Mr. William W. Carman / Dr. Norman P. Carrega / Mr. Charles B. Carington / Mr. Ronaldo Casas / Ms. Anita Casey / Ms. Lynn Catania / Ms. Betta Creeke / Mr. and Mrs. Stewart B. Chace / Mr. Judith C. Cheney / Mr. William A. Cherry / Mr. Blayne Allen Christen / Mr. Richard Chun / Mr. Robert C. Conde / Dr. Paul F. Clayton / Mr. David L. Clayton / Ms. Margarette L. Clements / Robert L. Cloud Associates / Mr. Frederik H. Clough / Ms. June Crane / Mrs. J. P. Claypool / Dr. Albert Cohn /Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cole / Mr. Andrew G. Comings / Dr.

We make this soft, unconstructed, legal size portfolio in six colors of real Glow Tanned Cowhide:
You can order it by mail or telephone, and we will ship it to you from our factory at no extra cost.
Send for our free catalogue.

The Coach Store
114-12 Grant Ave., San Francisco, California 94108
(415) 861-7272

For Popular People...

TINA

The Bay Area's only store featuring contemporary natural fiber apparel for the career woman's complete wardrobe.

3359 Sacramento Street
San Francisco, CA 94118
415-346-2666

IBSN CIRCLE
($150 - $249)

Mrs. Carmen R. Ahluwalia / Mr. Charles C. Adams / Mrs. Edvarda M. Adams / Mr. L. Matthew Adams / Ms. Marilyn F. Adams / Ms. Pauline Austin Adams / Ms. Janice M. Albert / Mr. and Mrs. Wilson J. Albert / Bruce and Betty Alberts / Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Aldrich / Mr. Sydney Allen / Steven and Linda Alger / Mr. Barbara Anne Ams / Mr. John Amsden / Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Anderson / Ms. Glenda A. Anderson / Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson / Ms. Ann Anderson / Mr. Paul Angelo / Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Arbochek / Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Armstrong / Ms. Emily Arnold / Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold / Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Arozon / Mr. Allen J. Arrondo / Ms. Harry Askew / Dr. and Mrs. R. Kirkland Ashley / Mrs. Taylor Ashley / Ms. Margaret S. Aspey / Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atkinson / Ms. Alain A. Augustin / Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Baccetti / Mrs. Towsie Curran Baldwin / Mr. and Mrs. Clifford A. Barbre / Mr. John Barr / Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Baron / Mrs. A.W. Barrows / John Barry and Mary Pen / Mr. and Mrs. Gerald G. Barton / Mr. Ruth Barton / Hal and Barbara

One bite leads to another!
248 Church Street
Three Embarcadero Center (Lobby level)

836 Irving Street
3735 Buchanan Street
(at the Marina)
Texas on Van Ness

Barbeque, Cajun, Creole, Tex-Mex, 864-4288

BULL'S Texas Cafe, 25 Van Ness at Market.
The entire Mediterranean stands at attention for you.
The most attentive of staffs spoils you.
The noblest cities, choicest wines, finest music await you.
Royalty?

Yes. Royal Viking

The Royal Collection of Mediterranean Cruises

For those who collect the best of everything, here's something new to covet. Royal Viking's Royal Collection of 12-day Mediterranean Cruises for the fall. With on board experts in wine, music or current events to interest you.
And affordable prices to interest you as well.

Whichever cruise you choose offers a collector's itinerary. With priceless more port time allotted than other lines!
August has connoisseur Alexis Lichine conducting our Wine Country

Cruise to Bordeaux. September and October sailings to the Black Sea/Greek Isles and the Holy Land are guest hosted by noted diplomats and news correspondents. Also noteworthy: our Open Cruise in August to the Adriatic; our Classical Music Cruise in October to North Africa. For further excitement, combine itineraries. Collect a cruise on the line of Norwegian registry. Right away!
Write: Royal Viking Line, One Embarcadero Center, San Francisco, CA
94111, Dept. MD or call (800) 222-7485. For reservations, see your travel agent.

ROYAL VIKING LINE
World Wide cruising. World Class style.
The entire Mediterranean stands at attention for you. The most attentive of staffs spoils you. The noblest cities, choicest wines, finest music await you. Royalty?

Yes. Royal Viking

The Royal Collection of Mediterranean Cruises

For those who collect the best of everything, here's something new to covet. Royal Viking's Royal Collection of 12-day Mediterranean Cruises for the fall. With on board experts in wine, music or current events to interest you. And affordable prices to interest you as well!

Whichever cruise you choose offers a collector's itinerary. With priceless more port time allotted than other lines. August has connoisseur Alexis Lichine conducting our Wine Country
Victor's Sunset Dinner. Now it pays to be fashionably early.

When you arrive between 5:30 and 6:45 in the evening you can enjoy a special Sunset Dinner that's surprisingly affordable. Unsurpassed cuisine, and a view to match. Victor's, atop the St. Francis on Union Square. For reservations, call 956-7777.

In the tradition of early San Francisco.

Harris' Dine with Beef
Prime Rib • Steaks
Seafood

Dinner nightly from 5 PM
Lunch Monday through Friday
After Theatre Supper 'Till 11

Five minutes North of Civic Center
2100 Van Ness Ave at Pacific
673-1888

VALET PARKING • MAJOR CARDS

Heinrichs / Mr. and Mrs. Scott Heldford / Ms. Michele Helman / Dr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Hendrix / Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hendry / Mr. and Mrs. James Hendry / Mr. Susan S. Herberg / Mrs. Nancy Herbs / Mrs. Christine Herchick / Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hewitt / Ms. Mary H. Heywood / Mr. Shirley Hickam / Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hildebrand / Mr. and Mrs. G. Thomas Hill / Mr. Donald Hill / Mr. Richard Hill / Ms. Doris Hill / Ms. Susan Hilbert / Mr. and Mrs. H.G. Hindigian / Donald and Donna Holberg / Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hollo / Mr. and Mrs. John R. Holman / Hog Heaven Bar-B-Q Restaurant / Mr. Ross Hokeham / Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Hovey / Ms. Nancy Howdy / Mr. Mark F. Hopkins / Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Hopper / Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Horn / Dr. and Mrs. Richard W. Hopping / Hotel St. George / Mr. Joseph C. Houghteling / Mr. Edward E. Howes / Mr. Bruce H. Howard / Mr. and Mrs. John F. Howeand / Ms. Joleen M. Hsu / Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Huber Jr. / Mr. Arnold Hubert / Or. Fred G. Hudson / Jonathan and Michele Hughes / Ms. Violeet L. Hughes / Mr. William H. Hughes / Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Hulsnait / Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Hua / Ms. Janet W. Idaho / International Data Corporation / Mr. and Mrs. G. Tucker Ingham / Mr. Gary M. Irving / Jackkie, Inc. / Mr. Harold E. Jackson / Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Janjigian / Mr. Robert J. Jensen / Mr. and Mrs. H. Anthony Jew / Mr. Jon R. Johnson / Mrs. Abby Johnson / Mr. Andrew R. Johnson, Jr. / Mr. Larry Johnson / Douglas and Kathy Johnson / Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Johnson / Dr. and Mrs. William C. Johnson / Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Johnston / Mr. Douglas Jones, Jr. / Mr. and Mrs. Proctor Jones / Mr. and Mrs. Rodney J. Jones, Jr. / Dr. and Mrs. Albert R. Jonesen / Mr. Carl E. Juklona / John and Veronica Kane / Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kaplan / Mr. and Mrs. Michael Karazan / Dr. and Mrs. Gary C. Kardos / Dr. Jillard II / Katz / Mr. and Mrs. William Kaufmann / Mr. Louis E. Kavanagh / Mr. Hugh C. Keenan / Mr. Douglas M. Kelly / Dr. and Mrs. Paul B. Kelly / Mr. and Mrs. William W. Kelly / Mr. James F. Kemp / Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Kemp / Dr. and Mrs. Richard L. Kempson / Chris Kennedy / Mrs. Hazel B. Kent / Ms. Angie Khadarvane / Mrs. Delrono Kidadi / Mr. Ane Marie Kilty / Ms. Nancy L. Kittel / Kitridge School, Inc. / Ms. Jeaneen Kline / Dr. and Mrs. T. Kletenius / Mr. David Howard Knapfl / Knowlton Realty / Mrs. O.S. Koenig / Mr. Blair Kott / Mr. Theodor Kozak / Dr. Joel J. Kudler / Mr. P. Beach Kuhl / Dr. Robert E. Kulin / Mrs. Warren D. Kunkler / Mr. and Mrs. John O. Kyle / Mr. and Mrs. Stanley P. Lachman / Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Lafrenz / Mr. and Mrs. Gerard B. Lambert / Mr. Richard A. Lambert / Mr. Pringle Lankster / Mr. Michael Langan / Mr. Robert Landau / Dr. Joe L. Lara / Mr. Milton H. LaRue / Mr. Thomas C. Lavon / Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lavaroni / Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lawlor / Mrs. Margaret P. Lawlor / Mrs. Margaret C. Leary / Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Lee / Mrs. Anna K. Letay / Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leonardi / Miss Louise M. Lezzi / Mr. David Levison / Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Levine / Mr. and Mrs. Barry Levine / Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Lewis / Mr. David E. Lidley / Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lilliehal / Dr. James T. Lillien / Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lincke, Jr. / Richard and Patricia Livermore / Mr. John L. Livingston / Mr. and Mrs. Randall L. Livingston / Ms. Marylee Lloyd / Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lobel / Mr. Sally A. Loe / Mr. Marjorie Louis / Mrs. Azalee E. Low / Mr. Thomas Loyd / Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Luten / Ms. Patricia Macie / Mr. and Mrs. William R. Mackey / Mrs. Francis W. MacVeagh / R.H. Macy & Co., Inc. / Mr. and Mrs. Ted N. Major / Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Mahan / Ms. Catherine Mahon / Mr. and Mrs. John Ward Malinard, III / Mr. Thomas / Mr. Fred Malskoff / Mr. Michael E. Malpass / Mr. and Mrs. William H. Malvina / Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Mallett / Mr. John A. Mann / Dr. William C. Mann / Mr. Edmund R. Manse / Jeff and Ruth Marble / Dr. Alexander R. Margulis / Mr. and Mrs. Michael Marston / Ms. Elizabeth W. Martin / Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Martin, Jr. / Mr. Virginia R. Mason / Mr. Leonard Mathewson / Mr. Glen D. Mast / Mr. John B. McCullough / Ms. Jessica G. McGinn / Dr. and Mrs. Roland E. McConaugh / Mr. and Mrs. George G. McDonell / Mr. Bruce McGeorge / Judge Winton McKibben / Mr. J.A. McQuaid / Dr. and Mrs. Sedgwick Mead / Mr. and Mrs. Gary L. Medeiros / Mrs. Marilyn D. Mehring / Mr. and Mrs. Michael L. Meller / Marvick Distributing / Mr. William Meierdierdt / Mr. and Mrs. Darrell W. Meyer / Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Meyer / Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Meyer / Mrs. Jane A. Meyer / Milton Meyer Foundation / Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Meyer / Ms. Beatrice Meyers / Mr. Fritzke K. Michaela / Micro Systems International / Mrs. Hiroko Midori / Mrs. Craig and Natalie Miller / Mr. George A. Mills / Mills & Wilcox / G.D. Mitchell / Mr. Frank H. Mock / Dr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Moffitt / Mr. and Mrs. James F. Like to see another sensational performer? Mill Valley Imports has reserved a seat for you behind the wheel of one of its new BMWs.

TRADER VIC'S
20 Cosmo Place
San Francisco
776-2323

The Original is in Emeryville
9 Anchor Drive
653-3400

Mill Valley Imports
Making all the right moves. Just for you.
500 Ridgeway Hwy, Mill Valley 382-2750
Beside Hwy 101 at the Tiburon turnoff

Leasing a car has never been so easy.

VICTOR'S
VICTOR'S SUNSET DINNER. NOW IT PAYS TO BE FASHIONABLY EARLY.

When you arrive between 5:30 and 6:45 in the evening you can enjoy a special Sunset Dinner that's surprisingly affordable. Unsurpassed cuisine, and a view to match. Victor's, atop the St. Francis on Union Square. For reservations, call 956-7777.

IN THE TRADITION OF EARLY SAN FRANCISCO

HARRIS' DINE WITH BEEF

PRIME RIB • STEAKS
SEAFOOD

DINNER NIGHTLY FROM 5 PM
LUNCH MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY
AFTER THEATRE LUNCH TILL 11

FIVE MINUTES NORTH OF GCW CENTER
2100 VAN NESS AVE AT PACIFIC
673-1888

VALET PARKING • MAJOR CARDS

Heersche | Mr. and Mrs. Scott Helmsford | Ms. Michele Helmer | Dr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Hendrix | Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hennis | Mr. and Mrs. James Hendrix | Ms. Susan S. Herbert | Mrs. Nancy Hersh | Ms. Christine Heubach | Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hewitt | Ms. Mary H. Heyward | Ms. Shirley Hickson | Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hildebrand | Mr. and Mrs. G. Thomas Hill | Dr. John Hiltz | Mr. Richard Hill | Ms. Donna Hill | Ms. Susan Hibbs | Mr. and Mrs. H.G. Hindligen | Donald and Donna Holberg | Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holm | Mr. and Mrs. John R. Holmen | Mr. H. Hauser Bar B-Q Restaurant | Mr. Ross Hocking | Ms. Thomas E. Honey | Ms. Nancy Hook | Mr. Mark E. Hopkins | Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Hooper | Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Horn | Dr. and Mrs. Richard W. Horrigan | Hotel St. George | Mr. Joseph Houghteling | Mr. Edward E. Hovis | Mr. Bruce H. Howard | Mr. and Mrs. John F. Howland | Ms. Jolene M. Huo | Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Huber Jr. | Mr. Arnold Hubert | Dr. Fred G. Hudson | Dr. and Mrs. Michele Hughes | Ms. Violet L. Hughes | Mr. William H. Hughes | Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Hulda | Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Huns | Ms. Janet W. Hudson | International Data Corporation | Mr. and Mrs. G. Tucker Ingham | Mr. Cary M. Irij | Jackliss, Inc. | Mr. Harold E. Jackson | Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Jamiel | Mr. Richard S. Jensen | Mr. and Mrs. H. Anthony Jew | Mr. Jon A. Joanne | Mrs. Abby Johnson | Mr. Andrew R. Johnson, Jr. | Mr. Larry Johnson | Dr. and Mrs. Anthony Johnson | Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Johnson | Mr. and Mrs. William C. Johnson | Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Johnston | Mr. Douglas Jones, Jr. | Mr. and Mrs. Proctor Jones | Mr. and Mrs. Rodney T. Jones | Dr. and Mrs. Albert R. Jones | Mr. Carl E. Jukkola | John and Veronica Kane | Mr. and Mrs. Leonar Kaplan | Ms. Michael Karzak | Dr. and Mrs. Gary G. Kazar | Dr. Hillard J. Katz | Dr. and Mrs. William Kaufman | Mr. Louis B. Kavanagh | Mr. Hugh C. Keenan | Mr. Douglas M. Kelly | Dr. and Mrs. Paul B. Kelly | Mr. and Mrs. James F. Kemp | Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Kemp | Dr. and Mrs. Richard L. Kemper | Mrs. Hiram K. Kent | Mrs. Angeline Kidwell | Mrs. Delores Kilgore | Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Milty | Miss Nancy L. Kettle | Netscaper School, Inc. | Ms. Jeanne Kline | Dr. and Mrs. T. Kirk
Mr. David Howard Knapp | Knowlton Reality | Mrs. O.S. Koeing | Mr. Blair Kott | Mr. Theobald Kave | Dr. Joel J. Kudler | Mr. P. Beach Kuhl | Mr. Robert E. Kulvin | Mr. and Mrs. Warren O. Kunkler | Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kyle | Mr. and Mrs. Stanley F. Lachman | Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Laffrentz | Mr. and Mrs. Gerard B. Lambert | Mr. Richard A. Lambert | Mr. Peasley Lancaster | Mr. Michael Lanigan | Mr. Robert Landes | Dr. Joe L. Lara | Mrs. Miriam H. Lazarow | Mr. Thomas C. Ludgate | Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lavaroni | Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lawlor | Mrs. Margaret P. Laws | Mrs. Margaret C. Laws | Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Lee | Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lefroy | Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lenard | Mr. and Mrs. Barry Levine | Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Lewis | Mr. David E. Liddle | Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Lifshitz | Mr. James T. Lifgren | Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Linnet, Jr | Mr. Richard and Patricia Livernois | Mr. John L. Livingston | Mr. and Mrs. Randall S. Livingston | Ms. Mary Jane Lloyd | Dr. and Mrs. Charles Lobb | Ms. Sally A. Loos | Mr. Marjorie Louis | Mrs. Azoline E. Lowe | Mr. Thomas Loyd | Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Luten | Ms. Patricia Macie | Mr. and Mrs. William R. Macay | Mrs. Frances W. MacVeagh | R.H. Macy & Co., Inc | Mr. and Mrs. Ted N. Magor | Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Mahan | Ms. Catherine Mahon | Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mainland, III | Mr. The Hon. and Mrs. Fred Mahaffey | Mr. Michael E. Maimus | Mr. and Mrs. William H. Malikow | Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Mallon | Mr. John A. Mann | Dr. William G. Mann | Mr. Edmund R. Manseifer | Mr. Jeff and Ruth Marble | Dr. Alexander R. Marquis | Mr. and Mrs. Michael Marston | Ms. Elizabeth L. Marvin | Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Martin, Jr. | Mr. Virginia R. Mason | Mr. Leonard Matsuki | Mr. Glen D. Mason | Mr. John B. McCafferty | Ms. Jessica C. McElroy | Mr. and Mrs. Roland E. McEntire | Mr. and Mrs. George G. McDonald | Mr. Bruce McGregor | Judge Winton McKibben | Mr. J.A. McGowan | Dr. and Mrs. Sedgwich Mead | Mr. and Mrs. Gary L. Medere | Mrs. Marilyn D. Mehring | Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Melzer | Mrs. Edward Jessup | Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Melton | Mr. and Mrs. Jane A. Meyer | Milton Meyer Foundation | Mrs. and Mrs. Otto E. Meyer | Ms. Beatrice Meyers | Mr. Fritzie K. Michaelis | Micro Systems International | Mrs. Hiroko Milinowska | Mrs. Craig and Natalie Miller | Mr. George A. Mills | Mills & Wilcox | G.D. Mitchell | Dr. Frank H. Mock | Dr. and Mrs. P. Herbert C. Moffitt | Mr. and Mrs. James F. Morgan.

Like to see another sensational performer? Mill Valley Imports has reserved a seat for you behind the wheel of one of its new BMWs.

Mill Valley Imports
20 Cosmo Place
San Francisco 776-2323

The Original is in Emeryville
9 Anchor Drive
653-3400

Making all the right moves. Just for you.
9001 Railroad Hwy, Mill Valley 382-2750
Beside Hwy 101 at the Tiburon turnoff

TRADER VIC'S
Moore / Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moore / Mr. Linda Norton / Mr. and Mrs. James C. Morgan / Mr. and Mrs. Stuart W. Moorehead / Mr. and Mrs. Alexander L. Musison / Mr. Michael W. Murphy / Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Murray / Mr. Ed Nafz / Mr. and Mrs. Libert E. Nathan / Mr. Larry B. Nathanson / Mr. and Mrs. William S. Needham / Mrs. Carolyn Negeter / Ms. Claire E. Nelson / Mr. John W. Nelson / Dr. Anthony Negole / Dr. and Mrs. J. Nevin-Smith / Mrs. Marion J. Neizmak / Mrs. Patricia R. Nevelton / Jackie Ng / Mr. Clyde W. Nielsen / Mr. Steven Nightingale / Mr. and Mrs. Russell Niles / Dr. Charles A. Noble / Jr. / The Hon. and Mrs. Allen Norris / Melinda and Richard Norris / Michael and Ann OConnor / Mr. Ronald Ogg / Mr. Donald P. OLeary / Mr. M. Olmstead / Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ornend / Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Oslin / Mr. James R. Overtin / Dr. Charles A. Owen / Mr. Victor L. Owen / Mr. Charles E. Owens / Mr. and Mrs. Clark Palmer / Jr. / Mr. Bradford Parker / Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Parker / Mr. R. Lee Parker / Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Parvin / Mr. and Mrs. Clark Patterson / Lula and Roslyn Payne / Mr. and Mrs. Silas O. Payne / Mr. Eugene H. Peck / Mrs. John Peck / Dr. Alex Peer / Mr. Robert I. Pender / Mr. William Perrone / Mr. Lawrence I. Perriam / Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Perkins / Mr. Leavell G. Perry / Mr. and Mrs. Evan R. Peters / Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Peterson / Jr. / Ms. Helen Petricho / Mr. Thomas Petrone / Mr. William C. Pettit / Reverend David M. Pettingill / Jr. / Nancy Pickell / Mr. Christopher M. Pongrce / Mr. Carl R. Pline / Mr. and Mrs. Tom E. Pollock / Ill. / Mrs. Hans Popper / Mr. Cyril Porter / Mr. William Porter / Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Powers / Dr. and Mrs. William T. Price / The Princeton Inn Restaurant / Mr. Richard Pringle / Mr. Bert From / Mr. and Mrs. H.O. Prowd / Quantum Industries, Inc. / Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Quinn / Mr. and Mrs. George Quest / Mr. Michael Raddke / Mr. Domen Rake / R.T. Rainanide / Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Rall, Jr. / Bayside / Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Rall, Jr. / RAYCO / Mr. James T. Rea / Mr. Jonathan Reid, Jr. / Mr. and Mrs. PJ Reigan, Jr. / Mr. Giovanni L. Reynolds / Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Resnick / Mrs. Gretchen M. Rice / Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Richards / Jr. / Mr. Geoff C. Richards / Mr. H. Michael Richardison / Mr. Nels J. Rigali / Mr. and Mrs. Lila E. Riggs / Mr. and Mrs. S. Dextre Ritchie / Mrs. Derry Eileen Riverside / Mr. Hunter S. Robbins, Jr. / Dr. F.E. Roberts / Mrs. Agnes C. Robinson / Mr. Frank M. Robinson / Mr. and Mrs. Burton Rockwell / Dr. and Mrs. Benson R. Roe / Mr. and Mrs. John G. Rogers / Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Rooney / Mr. and Mrs. Jane S. Roos / Dr. and Mrs. Alan J. Rosenberg / Mr. and Mrs. Joel Rosenberg / Mr. Madii / Mr. Ross / Mr. and Mrs. George Rosenow / Jr. / Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Rossiter / Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Rotner / Ms. Pamela A. Ruth / Mr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Russo / Mr. Ken E. Royce / Ms. Riva Rubenstein / Mr. Robert W. Ryan / Mr. and Mrs. Hubert E. Russell / Mr. Jerry Ruscim / Mr. and Mrs. A. Roy Ryder / Dr. Leonel Saeta / Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Sakat / Mr. and Mrs. Morton L. Saltzman / Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Sampson / Mr. Leland Sanders / Mr. and Mrs. Vito Sandi / Mr. Frank C. Savage / Mr. Igor Szevchik / Mr. Howard Schatz / Dr. and Mrs. J.K. Schaefer / Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Schell / Mr. Kennecott C. Schredig / Mr. Walter Schilling / Mr. Erna I. Schindler / Mr. Robert E. Schireman / Jr. / Mr. Norma Schiwtschek / Mr. Richard M. Schicklen / Jr. / Dr. and Mrs. Rudi Schmid / Mr. and Mrs. Roland F. Schein, Jr. / Mr. R.A. Scholl / Dr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Schrock / Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Schubert / Mr. and Mrs. James B. Schultz / Mr. James H. Schwalbacher, Jr. / Mr. Raymond J. Schweizer / Dr. F. Stanley Seligman / Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Seipp, Jr. / Mrs. Sherman & Seipp / Mr. and Mrs. John C. Selvey / Dr. and Mrs. Edward Siver / Dr. and Mrs. Robert N. Shaffer / Mr. Ralph C. Shattuck / Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sherry / Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Shrubler / Dr. and Mrs. E. Shubin / Mr. Elaine Shubick / Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Shurrleif / Mrs. William Siegel / Mr. and Mrs. John Simey / Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Simmonds / Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sommer / Mrs. Marian A. Sinclair / Mr. Robert E. Sinton / Mr. Noel Slatley / Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Stichter / Mr. Thomas O. Slusser / Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Sloan / Mr. Bruce Carr Smith / Dr. Gilbert I. Smith / Mr. Joseph N. Smith / Mr. and Mrs. Milon Smith / Mr. Judith L. Smell / Mr. and Mrs. David H. Snyder / Mr. and Mrs. William A. Snyder / Mr. H. Richard Soenenschield / Dr. Koekoo Stehikin / Mr. and Mrs. Jack Solomon / Mr. Bradley Sondern / Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Souza / Ms. Jeanette Spackman / Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Sparling / Mr. Robert and Ann Spears / Mr. and Mrs. Core L. Spence / Mr. Boster Spevak / Ms. Emile E. Stirn / Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stanton / Mr. James E. Stark / Dr. and Mrs. Norman C. Staub / Stauffer Chemical Company / Mr. and Mrs. H. Myrl Stearns / Mr. Joseph E. Stell / Mr. and
GOOD NIGHTS START HERE.
An elegant dinner in the Chefs Table Restaurant is the perfect beginning for an evening of shopping or theatre. Our Early Dining Special between 5:30 and 7:00 PM is still only $16.00.

The San Francisco Hilton & Tower
Mason and O’Farrell Streets, San Francisco (415) 771-1400

Mrs. Ellis M. Stephens / Mr. R. Lloyd Stephens / Mr. Robert C. Stevenson / Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Strachan / Dr. and Mrs. Philip G. Strauss / Mrs. Walter S. Stromquist / Mr. Dwight V. Strong / Mr. John A. Sutton, Jr. / Sunner Hill Ventures / Mr. Alvin Swanson, Jr. / Mrs. Jean Sword / Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan P. Sweeney / Mrs. Howard Swig / IRW Foundation / Ms. Marilyn E. Tague / Mr. L. Hugh Taylor / Mrs. Eaton Taylor / Mr. Wayne B. Temple / Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard N. Thuas / Ms. M. L. Thiebaud / Mr. Paul Thode / Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Thomas / Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Thomas, Jr. / Mr. Rob Thomas / Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Thompson / Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Thompson / Mrs. Carolyn R. Thompson / Mr. and Mrs.  H. M. Thompson / Mr. Ann M. Thornton / Dr. William Tipton, Jr. / Dr. and Mrs. Paul Tish / Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Toll / Toronto Dominion Bank of California / Mr. and Mrs. Loris Torrey / Mrs. Sylvia G. Toth / Transamerica Equipment Leasing / Mrs. James E. Treadwell / Mrs. Minot Tripp, Jr. / Mr. Joseph E. Tull / Mr. and Mrs. Ned Turkington / Ms. Cora Turner / Mr. and Mrs. John R. Tuteur, Sr. / United Technologies / Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Vadasz / Mr. and Mrs. Leland H. Van Wyk / Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Vash, Sr. / Mrs. S.W. Veitch / Mr. Masako M. Velasquez / Ms. Patricia Vennstrom / Ms. Shirley A. Vose / Mr. Alexander H. von Hafften / Mr. and Mrs. Gary Robert Wagner / Mr. John Wagner / Mr. Eugene J. Wait / Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Walker / Mr. and Mrs. James J. Walker, Jr. / Mr. and Mrs. James L. Walker / Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Walker / Ms. Sharon E. Walker / Mr. Brent Wallis / Mr. Risa Walliser / Kelly Walsh / Mrs. Joan Baker Watkins / Mrs. Malcolm Watts / Dr. and Mrs. R. Douglas Wayman / Dr. Harry Weinstein / Mr. William R. Weiss / Dr. Irving Weisman / Mr. Harriet Weller / Mr. Jan A. Wells / Mr. Joseph C. Welsh / Mr. and Mrs. Jack K. Weston / Mr. Jay C. West / Westminster House Foundation / Mr. William E. Wheelock / Mr. Christopher S. Whitman / Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Whitman / Mr. Russ M. Willis / Ms. Suzanne M. Wilson / Mrs. Turner G. Wilson / Ms. Marion W. Wilker / Mr. C. Richard Wines / Mr. H.R. Winemonger / Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Winokur / Mr. Carl R. Wittenrous / Dr. M.G. Wittlin / Mr. and Mrs. David Woodlinger / Dr. Stanley Welt / Mr. Sally R. Welt / Mr. and Mrs. Art S. Wong / Mr. Donald Woodhead, III / Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Workman / Mrs. Jean L. Wright / The Wyatt Com-

Pepperdine University
School of Business and Management
Presidential/Key Executive Master of Business Administration
Senior executives with a minimum of ten years of management experience are now being selected for participation in this prestigious MBA degree program.

Sessions are held all day Friday and Saturday, once a month, in northern and southern California.

For further information contact the F/K/E Program Office
Pepperdine University Plaza
3415 Sepulveda Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90034
(213) 306-5541, (213) 306-5514, (413) 306-2090

Howard A. White, President • R. Nolan Young, Chancellor • James R. Albin, Vice President and Dean

The First Act has begun...
Scene i
Smoked Chicken with Watercress
Scene ii
NY smoked Corned Beef 6 Different Marrowbones
Scene iii
Singing Waiters

MAX’S OPERA CAFE
The new chic Deli-Dinner Salon at Opera Plaza, Van Ness Avenue at Golden Gate. Luncheon and dinner daily. Full Bar. Late night desserts.

Where Fine Cuisine is Truly an Art Form
La Mère Duchesne
101 Shannon Alley (415) 776-7000 off Geary between Taylor and Jones
Catering (415) 388-8000

63
GOOD NIGHTS START HERE.
An elegant dinner in the Chefs Table Restaurant is the perfect beginning for an evening of shopping or theatre. Our Early Dining Special between 5:30 and 7:00 PM is still only $16.00.

The San Francisco Hilton & Towers
9 Mason and O'Farrell Streets, San Francisco (415) 771-1400

Mrs. Ellis M. Stephens / Mr. R. Lloyd Stephens / Mr. Robert C. Stevenson / Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Strachan / Dr. and Mrs. Philip G. Strauss / Mrs. Walter S. Stromquist / Mr. Dwight V. Strong / Mr. John A. Strout, Jr. / Sunset Hill Ventures / Mr. Alton Swanson, Jr. / Mrs. Jean Swerd / Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan P. Swersey / Mrs. Howard Swig / IRW Foundation / Mrs. Marilyn F. Taghen / Mr. E. Hugh Taylor / Mrs. Eaton Taylor / Mr. Wayne B. Temple / Mr. and Mrs. Bernardthal N. Thal / Mrs. M.L. Thiebaud / Mr. Paul Thode / Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Thomas / Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Thomas, Jr. / Mr. Rob Thomas / Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Thompson / Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Thompson / Mrs. Germaine K. Thompson / Mr. and Mrs. H.M. Thompson / Mrs. Ann M. Thornton / Dr. William Tipton, Jr. / Dr. and Mrs. Paul Tisch / Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Toll / Toronto Dominion Bank of California / Mr. and Mrs. Loris Torrey / Mrs. Sylvia G. Torp / Transamerica Equipment Leasing / Mrs. James E. Treadwell / Mrs. Minton Tripp, Jr. / Mr. Joseph E. Tull / Mr. and Mrs. Ned Turkington / Mrs. Cora Turner / Mr. and Mrs. John B. Tuttle, Sr. / United Technologies / Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Vadasz / Mr. and Mrs. Leland H. Van Winkle / Mrs. and Mrs. Bernard Vast, Sr. / Mrs. S.W. Veitch / Mrs. Masako. Wadasaki / Mrs. Patrice Vennstrom / Mr. Shirley A. Visco / Mr. Alexander H. Von Hafften / Mr. and Mrs. Gary Robert Wagner / Mr. John Wagner / Mr. Eugene V. Wait / Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Walker / Mrs. Ethan Madison Walker / Mr. James J. Walker / Mr. and Mrs. James L. Walker / Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Walker / Mr. Sharon E. Walker / Mr. Brent Walk / Mr. Elsa Wallmoyer / Kelly Walsh / Mrs. Joan Walker Winters / Mrs. Malcolm Watts / Dr. and Mrs. R. Douglas Wayman / Dr. Harry Weinstein / Mr. William P. Weis / Dr. Irving Weissman / Mrs. Harriet Weller / Mr. Jan A. Wells / Mr. Joseph C. Welsh / Mr. and Mrs. Jack K. West / Mr. Jay C. West / Westminster Electric Fund / Mr. William G. Wheeler / Mr. Christopher S. Whitman / Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Whitman / Mrs. Ruth M. Willis / Mr. Suzanne M. Wilson / Mrs. Turner Wilson / Mr. Marion W. Wille / Mr. C. Richard Wiss / Mr. H.R. Winograd / Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Wissnitzer / Mr. Carl R. Wittman / Mr. and Mrs. David Wooddinger / Dr. Stanley Wohl / Mr. Sally R. Wolf / Mrs. and Mrs. Art R. Wong / Mr. Donald Woodhead, Ill / Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Workman / Mrs. Jean L. Wright / The Wyatt Com

Pepperdine University
School of Business and Management
Presidential/Key Executive Master of Business Administration

Senior executives with a minimum of ten years of management experience are now being selected for participation in this prestigious MBA degree program.

Sessions are held all day Friday and Saturday, once a month, in northern and southern California.

For further information contact the F/AE Program Office
Pepperdine University Plaza
3415 Sepulveda Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90034
(213) 906-5541 (213) 855-3014 (213) 380-2990

Howard A. Meals, President • R. Norman Young, Chancellor • James R. Albers. Vice President and Dean

The First Act has begun...
Scene i
Smoked Chicken with Watercress
Scene ii
NY style Corned Beef 6 Different Céreacoles
Scene iii
Singing Waters

MAX'S OPERA CAFE
The new chic Diner-Bath Salon at Opera Plaza, Van Ness Avenue at Golden Gate. Luncheon and dinner daily. Full Bar. Late night deports.

Where Fine Cuisine Truly Art Form

La Mère Duquenne
101 Shannon Alley (415) 776-7060 off Garey between Taylor and Jones Catering (415) 380-3000

63

FUNDRAISING TEAM FOR A.C.T.

David Anacker
Mr. & Mrs. Samuel H. Armacost, C.A.A.
William Ball
Ron Barrington
Burt Barron
Mr. & Mrs. W. Andrew Bockstofver
Ann Bowers
Mr. & Mrs. Richard Bradley
Sandja Briggs
Mr. & Mrs. Brook H. Byers
Mrs. Charles de Linur, C.A.A.
Mr. & Mrs. Harry de Wildi, C.A.A.
Mr. & Mrs. Ray Dolby
Marjorie Donat
Mr. & Mrs. Myron Du Rain
Mr. & Mrs. Herbert M. Dwight, Jr.
Peter Fairbairns
Arthur Gensler
Mrs. Gordon Getty
Mrs. Edward L. Ginzton
Patricia Glynn
Mr. & Mrs. Leon Goldstein
Dr. Margaret Hadden Green, C.A.A.
Mr. & Mrs. Prentis Cobb Hale
Emily Hall
Sherry Hugi
Marguerite Minzie Jacobs
Mr. & Mrs. Franklin P. Johnson, C.A.A.
Woodward Kingman, C.A.A.
Mr. & Mrs. Robert Lurie

Mrs. John W. Mailliard, III
Mrs. Michael Marsten
Hope McCrum
Albert J. Moorman, C.A.A.
Kenneth E. Nitzberg
Robert Noyce
Mrs. Maurice Oppenheimer, C.A.A.
John B.M. Place
Mrs. James T. Ream
Mrs. Bruce J. Sams, Jr.
Mr. & Mrs. Charles Schwab
Mr. & Mrs. Anthony M. Schuva
Mimi Mae Sexauer
Mrs. Roger B. Stephens
Mrs. Melvin M. Swig
Mrs. Ralph Wallerstein
Mr. & Mrs. Christopher Westover
Jill Weissich
Mr. & Mrs. Renzo Zappitellou, C.A.A.

COMMUNITY ADVISORY COUNCIL FOR A.C.T.

David Anacker
Mrs. Samuel H. Armacost, C.A.A.
Rick Barton
W. Andrew Bockstofver
Ann Bowers
Richard Bradley
Mr. & Mrs. Brook H. Byers
Mrs. Charles de Linur, C.A.A.
Mr. & Mrs. Harry de Wildi, C.A.A.
Mrs. Ray Dolby
Marjorie Donat
Herbert M. Dwight, Jr.
Mrs. Mortimer Fleischacker
Mrs. Gordon Getty
Mrs. Edward L. Ginzton
The Honourable Isabella Grant
Dr. Margaret Hadden Green, C.A.A.
Mr. & Mrs. Douglas Grigs
Mr. & Mrs. Franklin P. Johnson, C.A.A.
Woodward Kingman, C.A.A.
Mrs. Dean Leshner
Mrs. John W. Mailliard, III
Senator and Mrs. Milton Marks
Robert Noyce
Mrs. Maurice Oppenheimer, C.A.A.
Mrs. James T. Ream
Supervisor Louise Renne
Dr. & Mrs. H. Harrison Sandler, C.A.A.
Mr. Michael J. Sanchez
Anthony M. Schwab
Mr. & Mrs. Melvin M. Swig
Mr. Richard Thoerit
Mrs. Ralph Wallerstein
Mr. & Mrs. Renzo Zappitellou, C.A.A.

ROUND MIDNIGHT MENU

Mon.-Sat.
Lunch & Dinner Daily
Sunday Brunch
Piano Jazz Nightly

LA PIRATA

Cocktail Lounge • Lunch • Dinner
285 Burlingame Avenue
Burlingame • 415/343-6844

CHINA STATION

A UNIQUE CHINESE RESTAURANT

Featuring An Extensive Chinese Menu!

AFTER THEATRE DINING UNTIL 1:00 AM
Lunch • Dinner • Late Supper
Banquet • Food to Go
11:30 AM to 1:00 AM Daily
Commercial Street
700 UNIVERSITY AVENUE, BERKELEY

548-7850
THE AMERICAN CONSERVATORY THEATRE

WILLIAM BALL
General Director

LAURENCE HECHT
Conservatory Director

BENJAMIN MOORE
Managing Director

ACTORS AND DIRECTORS

Linda Aldrich
Annette Bening
Joseph Bird
Scott Bishop
Kate Beckley
George Deaky
Barbara DiDonato
Peter Doucet
Geoffrey Elliot
Drew Erblin
Jill Fine
Scott Freeman
Wendell Grayson
Lawrence Hecht
Scott Hitchens
Nancy Houck
Janice Huthcock
Johanna Jackson
Jane Jones

Douglas Martin
Dakin Matthews
Deborah May
Carolyn McCormick
Judith Moreland
Mark Murphy
Frank Ottwell
William Paterson
Jim Poyner
Ray Reinhardt
Richard Rieble
Stephanie Shroyer
Rosemarie Smith
Francine Tacker
Bernard Vash
Sydney Walker
Marvin Walters
J. Steven White
Bruce Williams

Henry Woocinis
Stephen Pratt
Jill Romero
Douglas Sills
Mark Sisson
Karna Wari
Teresa Williams
Alicia Weldon
Taylor Young

SECONd YEAR STUDENTS

Mark Anastasio
Scott Bishop
Michelle Casey
Niki Doukas
Amy Freed
Stephen Hough
Lina Ivory
Todd Jackson
Peter Jacobs
Ray Kasoloske
Brianna Lewis
David Maier
Richard Mason
Elizabeth Padilla
Marty Pistone
Marcia Pizzo

STAGE MANAGEMENT

James Hare, Production Stage Manager
Eugene Barcione
James L. Burke
Karen Van Zandt
Tatiana Teague Watson, Intern
Amy Young, Intern

SCENE SHOP

Ed Raymond, Shop Foreman
William Barr, Assistant Shop Foreman
Dale Haigo, Stage Art
Charley Campbell, Scenic Artist

COSTUMES AND WIGS

Katharine E. Kraft, Supervisor
Julia Weaver, Costumer
Fred Milner, Head Tailor
Sonia Tifftakedian, Head Seamstress
Pam Harris, Stickler
Brett Karel, Stickler
Lynn Goodfellow, Accessories
Ruby Ming, Shopper
Maggie Morgan, Costume Assistant
Rick Zehrs, Wigmaster
Nan Smit, Intern
Laura Coolidge, Intern

PROPERTIES

Oliver C. Ober, Properties Director
Mary Jo Hamilton, Artisan
Rob Frederick, Intern

WARDROBE

Donald Long Hurst, Wardrobe Supervisor
Thea Heintz, Assistant Supervisor
Kristi Olsen, Dresser
Sandy Jenkins, Miss Ray Wondolsky

GEARY THEATRE

BACKSTAGE

Vance DiVittis, Master Carpenter
Daryl Michelakis, Master Drafter
David Blackwell, Property Master
Chuck Ray, Assistant Drafter
Chad Pratt, Costume Technician
Lynn Levine, Costumes

MUSICIANS

Lee Holby, Composer
Richard Hindman, Music Director
Les Caster
Danny Leverstein
John Price

ADMINISTRATION

Adrian Stewart, Administrative Director
Dianne M. Prichard, Marketing/Development Coordinator
Michael Burnier, Operations Manager
Mary Garrett, Assistant to Managing Director
Mary Rose N. Reade, Development Coordinator
Wendy Adler, Business Manager
Sally Braunsfeld, Cheryl Kuhn, Lutz & Carr, C.P.A.s, Accountants
David L. Stone, Livingston, Stone & McGowen, Legal Counsel
Carole Hewitt, Information Systems Manager
Jeffrey Albob, Executive Officer
Beulah Sheen, Receptionist
Eugene Barcione, Technical Director
Linda Graham, Director, Friends of A.C.T.

COMMUNICATIONS & MARKETING

Dennis Petersen, Communications Director
James Block, Marketing Associate
Ralph Hopkins, Public Relations Associate
Ann Bergener, Graphic Design Associate
John Moore, Manager
Cowan Barratt, Phone Room
Diane Holcomb, Data Processor

BOX OFFICE

William N. Koehler, Manager
Richard Bernier, Treasurer
John Dixon, Treasurer
Joe Dufay, Group & Student Sales
Cinda Solve, Clerk
Sarah Tynan, Clerk

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Patty Costa, Manager
Chuck Corbin, Group Sales
Mark Dean

GEARY THEATRE

Tim Flynn, House Manager
Fred Geick, C.A., Doorman
Joshua Adams
Susan Balfour
Leslie Clark
Vanda Cimino
Donald Harvey
Leslie Hoenig
Leonard Lyons
Lisa Molvig
Diana Oren
Allied Davis
Evelyn Ramos
Beverly Saba
Joseph Sansone
Jane Smith
Sandra Tausig
Bill Weissman
If you carry a beeper, watch, or calculator with alarm, please make sure that it is set to the "OFF" position while you are in the theatre to prevent any interruption in the performance.
If you carry a beeper, watch, or calculator with alarm, please make sure that it is set to the "OFF" position while you are in the theatre to prevent any interruption in the performance.
If you smoke, please try Cartton.