EVERY AA GROUP has a voice, have your say at INNER CITY DISTRICT

THE GENERAL SERVICE REPRESENTATIVE QUALIFICATIONS & DUTIES
The General Service Representative (GSR) is the link between the Group and AA as a whole, and is probably the most important single factor in the whole AA structure. The GSR represents the voice of the Group Conscience, reporting the Group's wishes to the Area through the District Committee Member (DCM) and to the Area Delegate through Area Committees and Assemblies, from where it is passed on to the Australian General Service Conference. Whatever authority there is in AA is vested in the Group Conscience and is then conveyed by the GSR and/or the DCM to the wider AA community.

AN EFFECTIVE GSR NEEDS
1. to be open minded and a good listener;
2. to be an information gatherer;
3. to have a keen interest in AA as a whole;
4. to have a willingness to serve AA.

The GSR is required to attend the Group's Group Conscience Meetings and is usually involved in the Group's activities.

The GSR also informs his/her Group of agenda items to be discussed at District meetings and Area Assemblies and makes sure she/he is aware of Group feelings on current AA issues and conveys this to those meetings and Assemblies.

The GSR participates in District and Area Service Meetings as the voice of their AA group.
