Celebrate two decades of AA meetings at the Arts Centre, Melbourne, where all of August we'll be welcoming new and old members

Get to know our meeting

Q. What was the Arts Centre meeting previously called?

A. The Arts Centre AA meeting. Showbiz was the original name because the groups founder, Irish Bill, worked as an agent for actors and performers. Later a performance became secretary until 2015 when, after a period of inactivity, the current secretary and treasurer activated the meeting.

Q. Did you know we've had International celebrities?

A. The Arts Centre AA meeting. Actors did not want to be openly identified at open meetings. Later an anonymity which was the primary reason for early meetings as OK can't say exactly who because we would breach their right to
