The AA Victoria Prison Network aims are:
To organize online bi-monthly meetings of the Prison Network for coordinators of prison visiting centers, active volunteers and interested AA
members to discuss issues, needs and experience in this area of AA Service.
To assist the provision of prison literature orders for coordinators and volunteers to use for carrying the AA message to people in correctional centres.
To monitor and report on the Prison Literature Account maintained by Central Service Office.
To have meetings which are open to all interested AA members who may request to be on the PN contact list.
To provide information for new volunteers about the roles and responsibilities of joining the prison service and linking people with relevant prison coordinators for further information.
To provide reports to Prison Network members,
the AA Victoria CSC and Delegates meetings.
Areas and Districts and interested AA members.
