7200SEC High Security Deadlock

FOR AN ADDITIONAL LAYER OF SECURITY

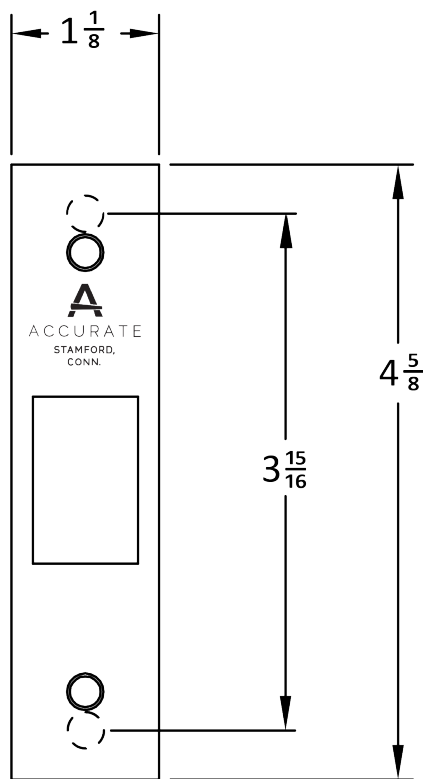

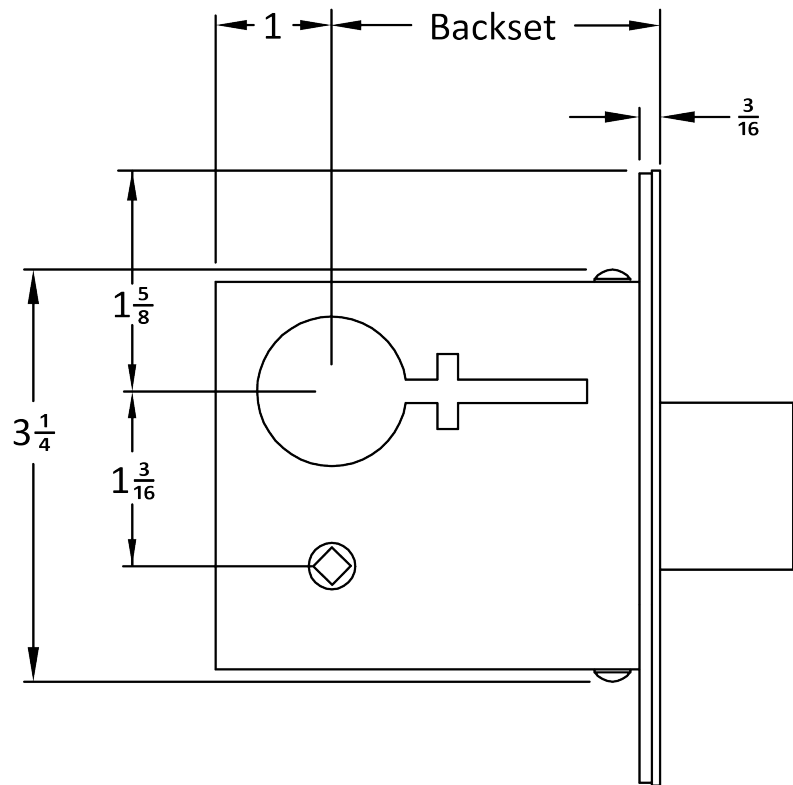

7200SEC High Security Deadlock

ADDITIONAL PROTECTION

This auxiliary deadbolt features the same heavy-duty bolt with absorption technology as the High Security Mortise Lock. It is commonly used above a standard latch or entry lock wherever security and durability is paramount. The 7200SEC is an ideal solution for commercial and residential applications, as well as behavioral environments that may require an extra layer of security.
