

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

3rd edition

THE GRANT FOR A NEW HUMANITARIAN PERSPECTIVE

The profound upheavals experienced by NGOs over the last few months have prompted us to change the format of the third edition of our Grant for a New Humanitarian Perspective. This year, Action Against Hunger is offering a prize of 5,000€ for a project that has been completed, is in progress or is still to be carried out.

What do we mean by humanitarian? Taking human beings into account and supporting them to gain access to the fundamental rights that every individual should enjoy from birth. What do we mean by a new humanitarian perspective? A human approach that is more inclusive, egalitarian and supportive.

The aim of the Grant is to launch a debate on the future of humanitarian imagery, so that we can work together to think about its further development and initiate a new way of looking at it. A view that goes beyond the usual reproductions, that is fairer, more inclusive, more ethical and that allows for a more balanced exchange with the people represented.

As well as highlighting the work of content creators, the aim of this grant is to increase the visibility of people who are suffering, and the situations in which they live, wherever Action Against Hunger is active.

Following the call for applications, 20 projects will be shortlisted by Action Against Hunger and submitted to a multidisciplinary internal jury with equal representation in order to identify the winner. The winner will receive a grant of 5,000€ for his/her project, which will be digitally displayed from October 2026 onward. This presentation could be physical if Action Against Hunger does not incur any costs for the location and production of the event.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

The call for entries is open to all photographers, videographers and content creators (illustration, design, animation, etc.), regardless of nationality or age, provided they are over 18.

Current and former service providers to Action Against Hunger France and its international network can take part in this competition. Please include this information in your biography.

If necessary, candidates undertake to use their own equipment (photographic, video, sound, etc.) to carry out the project.

Employees of Action Against Hunger and their families are not allowed to take part in this competition. Members of the jury, the technical team directly involved in the grant, and their families are also not eligible.

Entry to the competition is free.

The Action Against Hunger's Grant for a New Humanitarian Perspective will be awarded to a single project (individual or collective).

The projects submitted will be judged on a number of mandatory and cumulative criteria:

- ➔ Innovation in writing and direction
- ➔ Relevance of the project's subject to the activities carried out by Action Against Hunger
- ➔ Development of a humanitarian theme linked to Action Against Hunger's areas of intervention, in a country where Action Against Hunger is present
- ➔ Alignment with Action Against Hunger's values in terms of content that:
 - ➔ Is inclusive
 - ➔ Respects people's dignity
 - ➔ Bears witness to observed realities
- ➔ Quality and credibility of the candidate's previous work

PUTTING TOGETHER YOUR APPLICATION

Applications – which must detail the project, its aims and its future development as precisely as possible – must be submitted online via the dedicated application form between June 30, 2025 and August 31, 2025 at midnight: Link to form.

The form must be duly completed in English, French or Spanish and must contain the following information:

- ➔ A synopsis of the overall project.
- ➔ A note detailing the subject, its originality and its link with the work carried out by Action Against Hunger.
- ➔ A precise description of the narrative processes and technical means used - if the project is finished or in progress - or planned - if the project still needs to be carried out. It may be accompanied by numbered photographs if the project is finished or in progress, sketches or any other medium that the candidate deems useful to add to his/her file.

- ➔ A candidate bio.
- ➔ A link to the candidate's previous work and/or a link to download any previous work the candidate thinks relevant enough to add to their application.

Action Against Hunger recognises that the author will maintain ownership of all rights to the project and work submitted. A rights transfer agreement between Action Against Hunger and the participant will be written up in order to set the conditions for the transfer of the intellectual property rights pertaining to the work so that it can be used by the Association.

The work created must not breach any third party's rights. The participant must comply with the legal intellectual property and image rights provisions in effect, and she/he must be the sole holder of the usage rights associated with these images. If applicable, she/he must ensure that they obtain the authorisations required from any natural persons whose image is used.

Information transmitted via the Action Against Hunger's website or by e-mail is governed by the provisions relating to the RGPD. The necessary personal data (surname, first name, address, e-mail, telephone) as well as the documents relating to the candidates will be kept from the call for applications until the finalist project is submitted, after which Action Against Hunger will delete them.

THE CALENDAR

UNDERTAKING BY THE CANDIDATE SELECTED BY THE COMMITTEE

In the event of preselection or selection by the committee, and simply by participating in the Grant for a New Humanitarian Perspective, candidates and the grant recipient authorise Action Against Hunger to reproduce one of the visual and/or intellectual creations they send when submitting their project (the first photograph in the series if the project is under way, the photograph numbered '1' in the series submitted for the grant, sketches, texts or any other medium), free of charge and with the participants' agreement, on any of Action Against Hunger's communication channels (including its website and social media), strictly for the purpose of promoting the Grant, for a period of one (1) year starting from when the aforementioned visual and/or intellectual creations are first shared by Action Against Hunger.

When sharing the aforementioned visual and/or intellectual creations, Action Against Hunger undertakes to include the caption "By" followed by the full name of the participant who is the author of the visual and/or intellectual creation. When sharing the creations on social media, Action Against Hunger will also include links to the participants' social media accounts. Action Against Hunger undertakes to refrain from harming the integrity of the visual and/or intellectual creations submitted within the framework of the Grant in any way. Nonetheless, Action Against Hunger may juxtapose the visual and/or intellectual creations with other visual and/or intellectual creations. Action Against Hunger may also associate the visual and/or intellectual creations with any visual element of its corporate identity or of that of its official partners.

PRESENTATION OF THE WINNING PROJECT

The winning project will be presented in October 2026.

Action Against Hunger will not provide any support for the production of the exhibition/event, but the following counterparts will be offered:

- Distribution of a digital exhibition on the NGO's website
- Publicising the project through Action Against Hunger's communication channels (social networks, Action newspaper (100,000 copies))
- Human resources, if a physical format is proposed at the initiative of the prizewinner, in the search for a venue that can be made available free of charge, and to facilitate access to our areas of intervention depending on the project. Action Against Hunger will not, under any circumstances, bear the relative costs that would be generated by the physical production of the exhibition/event.

Action Against Hunger may use the images produced by the grant recipient for the legal duration of the intellectual property rights and any extensions, starting from the presentation, in October 2026, of the work produced, for the promotion and marketing of the Action Against Hunger Grant and for the promotion of the Association's activities, digitally and in print, in accordance with the rights transfer agreement established between the two parties.

Action Against Hunger may organise other exhibitions in the two years following the presentation of the project in October 2026, in France and worldwide.

If she/he so wishes, the grant recipient may provide Action Against Hunger with one or several prints to promote the Grant or for a future exhibition involving various grant recipients. The prints will not be used for commercial purposes, unless an agreement to the contrary is made with the grant recipient.

By submitting their application, the grant recipient agrees to participate in certain marketing actions, especially for the internal presentation of the project among Action Against Hunger employees and the launch of the exhibition (a preview). The grant recipient must include "Recipient of the Action Against Hunger Grant for a New Humanitarian Perspective" in all publications and communications regarding the project carried out thanks to the grant from Action Against Hunger.

IN THE EVENT OF CANCELLATION

The Action Against Hunger Association reserves the right to terminate, postpone or modify the aforementioned regulations for its Grant for a New Humanitarian Perspective for any reason. It will not be held liable for these changes. Any costs incurred by candidates will therefore not be refunded.

AGREEMENT TO THE RULES

The submission of a project to be considered for the Action Against Hunger Grant for a New Humanitarian Perspective will not be valid unless the candidate accepts the regulations in their entirety, as well as any amendments. Should any amendments be made after the project is submitted, Action Against Hunger undertakes to notify participants in compliance with the principle of loyalty.

ABOUT ACTION AGAINST HUNGER

Action Against Hunger is an NGO that has been fighting hunger all over the world for over forty years. It leads a coordinated response in almost fifty countries. Its priority is to take concrete action on the ground and to bear witness to populations' experiences, while combatting the causes and consequences of malnutrition in France and internationally. As the causes of hunger are multiple, ACF's action is global, sustainable and effective, thanks to its unparalleled expertise in nutrition and health, food security, water and sanitation, and mental health.
