

Dam Terms and Conditions

1. Use of Water:

The use of the dam, including swimming, boating, fishing, and any other water-related activities, is undertaken at your own risk. The Dam Committee is not responsible for accidents, injuries, or damage to personal property resulting from the use of the dam or its surrounding areas.

2. Safety:

All users must exercise caution and follow appropriate safety guidelines when engaging in any activities at the dam. The Dam Committee is not liable for any personal injury, loss of life, or property damage that occurs while using the dam or its facilities.

3. Adherence to SAMSA Rules:

All users of the dam must strictly adhere to the South African Maritime Safety Authority (SAMSA) rules and regulations. These rules apply to all boating and watercraft activities to ensure safety and compliance with national water use standards. Failure to adhere to these rules may result in penalties or restricted access to the dam.

4. Supervision:

Children and non-swimmers must be supervised at all times by a responsible adult. The Dam Committee will not be held responsible for any incidents involving minors or inexperienced swimmers.

5. Environmental Protection:

Users must respect the natural environment of the dam. Littering, pollution, or causing damage to the ecosystem is strictly prohibited.

6. Liability:

By using the dam, you agree that the Dam Committee is not liable for any injuries, fatalities, or property damage. You assume full responsibility for your safety and the safety of those in your care while using the dam.

By accessing and using the dam, you acknowledge and agree to these terms and conditions, including compliance with SAMSA rules.
