VOLUNTEER: TRAILDAY

HELP REPAIR THE LITTLE COTTONWOOD TRAIL!

The Wasatch Mountains receive more annual visits than Yellowstone National Park. Due to high traffic, weather, and other factors, our trails require regular maintenance and repair. Come out for this trail day to help us protect the trails we all use and love!

Friday,
July 15th

8:30am

MEET AT THE LITTLE COTTONWOOD PARK AND RIDE LOT!
Friday, July 15th at 8:30am

To kick-off the formation of the Wasatch Watershed Legacy Partnership, and its mission to "undertake creative and effective actions that conserve and sustain critical resources, create resilient ecosystems, and enrich the quality of life for the region, its residents, businesses, and canyon visitors," local citizens are encouraged to volunteer to help repair, maintain and open the Little Cottonwood trail. There will be a variety of work for all abilities, but participants must be 18+ to attend.

Call Save Our Canyons today at (801) 363-7283 to register for this event!

BE PREPARED!

Wear long pants, sturdy work boots, sunscreen, and sunglasses.

Bring gloves, plenty of water, lunch, and snacks!

Sign up to volunteer by calling the Save Our Canyons office at (801) 363-7283.
