

LP® ARCHFORM™ CONCRETE EDGE FORM

Lightweight and Flexible Concrete Forming Solution

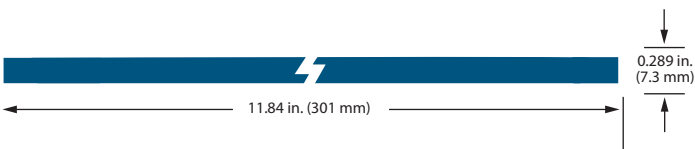

LP® ArchForm™ Concrete Edge Form is an engineered wood strand product designed for use in flatwork concrete forming applications, such as residential landscaping, patios, walkways, pool decks and more. It is flexible enough for curving to fit the contours of formed concrete projects and is backed by LP's industry-leading technology, service and support.

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

- 5/16-inch category thickness
- 16-foot lengths can result in time savings
- Resin-saturated overlay resists moisture intrusion
- Lightweight, flexible and easy to handle on the jobsite
- Cost-effective alternative to metal or plastic forming products
- Strong, durable and manufactured to consistent dimensions
- Designed to resist warping, cupping, shrinkage and splintering
