Collection

1 - New Suction Cover for Collection Systems

Please note that as of November 10th, the suction cover design for the below Collection systems has changed.

Impacted Collection systems when single suction is installed:

004 and 008 (Hydromax whirlpool system)

054 (Hydrofeel whirlpool system)

056 (Combined Hydrofeel and Aerofeel)

094 (Combined Hydromax and Aerofeel)

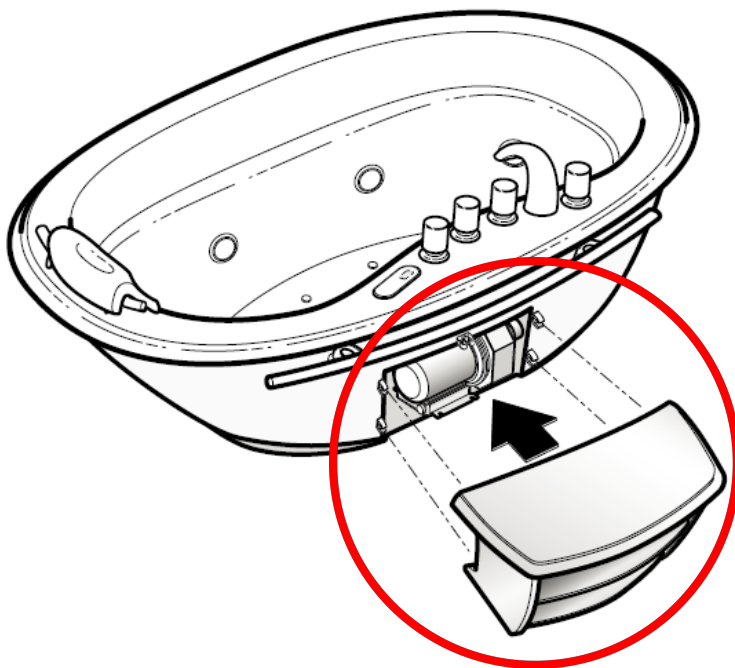

Please contact the Customer Care department for any additional information.

2 - Storage Solution - Souvenir Freestanding Bathtub

Please note that the Storage solution (sold separately) is highly recommended when a Souvenir freestanding bathtub with apron (100084) is purchased with a system. When systems are installed, the pump/blower is exposed and there is no cover provided to conceal the mechanical systems, which makes it loud. The storage solution would act as a cover and thus reduce the noise.

Available storage solutions can be found in the accessories section:

- 10007311 Mahogany storage cabinet
- 10007312 Chestnut storage cabinet
- 10007313 Natural (non-treated) storage cabinet

The Storage Solution covering the mechanical part of the bathtub system.

Please contact the Customer Care department for any additional information.

Professional

3 - 2017 Price List Update

Please note that some modifications were made to the MAAX Professional National USA price list. These changes include the update of a few technical drawings as well as minor corrections on some product information. The updated PDF version of the price list is available to download on the Pros Corner.

The most crucial changes were made to the new Radia doors product pages (p.418-424), where the technical information regarding minimum and maximum widths, the access, the adjustment and so forth, as well as the technical drawings, have been modified to ensure accuracy. Please note these changes are not reflected in the printed version, and we therefore recommend you print out the Radia doors pages in order to guarantee you have the most up-to-date technical information.

Effective change date: Immediately (October 10, 2017)

Impacted Models:

6 - Redesign of Base Support

Please note that for the below AKER Drop-in Bathtub models, we will transition to a new base support, which will include 4 pre-levelled feet, instead of the current Fiberglass base. This transition will take place starting February 2018. During this transition, it is possible that some units will continue having the current fiberglass base support.

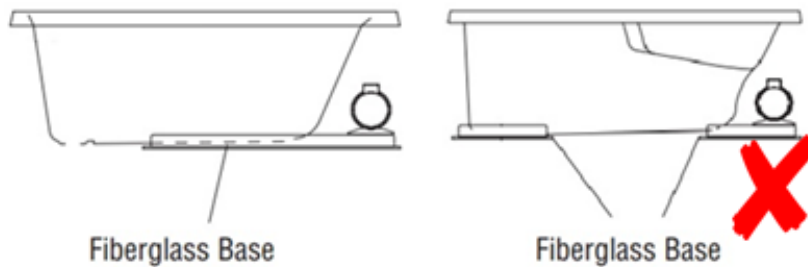

Below is a visual example of this new change. Both support provide the same function benefits and do not alter the installation instructions.

Please note that technical drawings will be update to reflect the new base structure with the 4 pre-levelled feet.

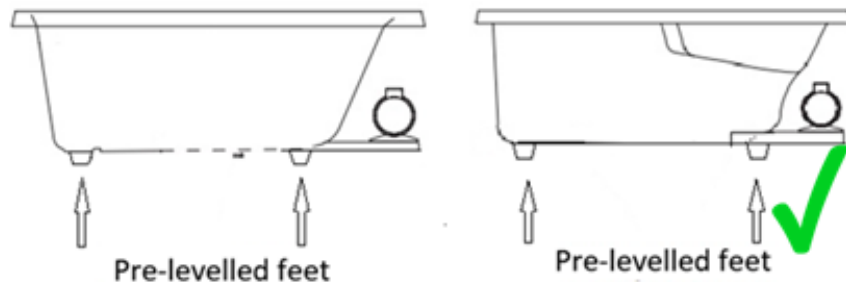

Impacted Models:

Model #	Product Name
141120	CT2-6060
141118	CT-6060
