

We Remember™

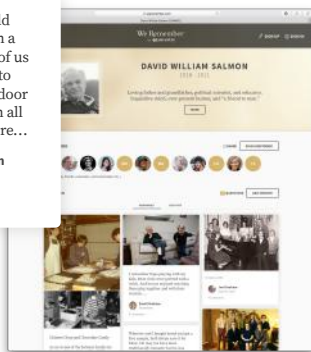

by  Ancestry

Capture memories before they fade

When Papa would come home from a business trip all of us kids would rush to meet him at the door and hug on him all together. I am sure...

 Linton Salmon
Son

1 Comment

Collect, share and discuss memories of loved ones with free online memory pages. We Remember is the best way to remember your loved one and celebrate their life, bringing together all the lives they touched and collecting memories that paint a rich picture of who they are. It's easy to get started—ask us how!

Click “Activate” in the email you will be receiving soon

National Hospice and Palliative Care
Organization

Activate your free We Remember page

Start from a computer, tablet, or even a phone

1. LOOK FOR THE ACTIVATION EMAIL

- You will get an email from We Remember with a link to the page we started for you.
- Just click "Activate" to claim the page and get started.

2. COMPLETE THE TRIBUTE SECTION

- Add a photo to the main tribute section at the top.
- Add a short headline. It can be a bio, a favorite quote, or even something they used to say.

3. ADD MEMORIES AND QUESTIONS

- Add a few of your own memories to get the page started.
- You can upload photos and tell stories. Feeling stuck? Answer a starter question. Have your own questions? Add them for others to answer.

4. SPREAD THE WORD

- Invite family, friends, coworkers, schoolmates who knew them to visit the page and share their memories and experiences.
- You can share the page link via email, a post on Facebook, or a simple text message.

We Remember™
by Ancestry

Need inspiration? See an example page at WeRemember.com/Example