

SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Introduction

At Anda-Olsen AS, we promote high standards for working conditions and environmental responsibility throughout our supply chain. We cooperate closely with our Suppliers and business partners to achieve this aim. Accordingly, we have established this Code of Conduct to outline our expectations for Suppliers and business partners. The Code of Conduct covers human rights, workers' rights, environmental responsibility, anti-corruption, and product quality.

Anda-Olsen aims to continuously enhance policies and practices that support Suppliers in complying with this Code of Conduct.

2. Principles

Anda-Olsen's Suppliers are to supply goods and services that are produced in compliance with this Code of Conduct. Moreover, Suppliers are expected to communicate the Code of Conduct to their sub-Suppliers and ensure effective implementation.

A Supplier must be able to document compliance with the Code of Conduct at Anda-Olsen's request. Such documentation may take the form of self-declarations, review meetings, and/or inspections of working conditions at production sites. The Supplier will be obliged to provide the name and contact information of any sub-Supplier that Anda-Olsen wishes to inspect.

In the event of a breach of the Code of Conduct, Anda-Olsen and the Supplier will jointly prepare a plan to remedy the breach. Remediation must take place within a reasonable period. The contract will only be terminated if the Supplier remains unwilling to remedy the breach following multiple requests.

3. Requirements for Internal Practices

When selecting new Suppliers, priority will be given to social and environmental performance.

Neither Anda-Olsen nor any of its employees shall offer or accept bribes or other improper financial incentives to secure business-related or personal advantages, including benefits for Customers, Agents, or Suppliers.

Anda-Olsen and Anda-Olsen's Suppliers shall avoid partners that operate in countries subject to international boycott by the United Nations and/or Norwegian Authorities.

4. Requirements to Supply Chain Conditions

IEH's Ethical Trade Principles are founded on key UN and International Labour Organization conventions and OECD guidelines.

National laws shall be respected, and where the provisions of law and IEH's ethical trade principles address the same subject, the most stringent shall apply.

5. Forced and compulsory labour

There shall be no forced, bonded or involuntary prison labour.

Workers shall not be required to lodge deposits or identity papers with their employer and shall be free to leave their employer after reasonable notice.

6. Freedom of Association and the Right to Collective Bargaining

Workers, without distinction, shall have the right to join or form trade unions of their own choosing and to bargain collectively. The employer shall not interfere with, or obstruct, the formation of unions or collective bargaining.

Worker's representatives shall not be discriminated and shall have access to carry out their representative functions in the workplace.

Where the right to freedom of association and/or collective bargaining is restricted under law, the employer shall facilitate, and not hinder, the development of alternative forms of independent and free workers representation and negotiations.

7. Child Labour

The minimum age for workers shall not be less than 15 years and comply with

- i) the national minimum age for employment, or
- ii) the age of completion of compulsory education, whichever of these is higher. If local minimum age is set at 14 years in accordance with developing country exceptions under ILO Convention 138, this lower age may apply.

There shall be no recruitment of child labour defined as any work performed by a child younger than the age(s) specified above.

No person under the age of 18 years shall be engaged in labour that is hazardous to their health, safety or morals, including night work.

Policies and procedures for remediation of child labour prohibited by ILO conventions no. 138 and 182, shall be established, documented, and communicated to personnel and other interested parties. Adequate support shall be provided to enable such children to attend and complete compulsory education.

8. Discrimination

There shall be no discrimination at the workplace in hiring, compensation, access to training, promotion, termination or retirement based on ethnic background, religion, age, disability, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, union membership or political affiliation.

Measures shall be established to protect workers from sexually intrusive, threatening, insulting or exploitative behaviour, and from discrimination or termination of employment on unjustifiable grounds, e.g. marriage, pregnancy, parenthood or HIV status.

9. Harsh or Inhumane Treatment

Physical abuse or punishment, or threats of physical abuse, sexual or other harassment and verbal abuse, as well as other forms of intimidation, is prohibited.

10. Health and Safety

The working environment shall be safe and hygienic, bearing in mind the prevailing knowledge of the industry and of any specific hazards. Hazardous chemicals and other substances shall be carefully managed. Adequate steps shall be taken to prevent accidents and injury to health arising out of, associated with, or occurring in, the course of work, by minimising, so far as is reasonably practicable, the causes of hazards inherent in the working environment.

Workers shall receive regular and documented health and safety training, and such training shall be repeated for new or reassigned workers.

Access to clean toilet facilities and to portable water, and, if appropriate, sanitary facilities for food storage shall be provided.

Accommodation, where provided, shall be clean, safe and adequately ventilated, and shall have access to clean toilet facilities and portable water.

11. Wages

Wages and benefits paid for a standard working week shall as minimum meet national legal standards or industry benchmark standards, whichever is higher. Wages should always be enough to meet basic needs, including some discretionary income.

All workers shall be provided with a written and comprehensible contract outlining their wage conditions and method of payments before entering employment.

Deductions from wages as a disciplinary measure shall not be permitted.

12. Working Hours

Working hours shall comply with national laws and benchmark industry standards, and not more than prevailing international standards. Weekly working hours should not on a regular basis be more than 48 hours.

Workers shall be provided with at least one day off for every 7-day period

Overtime shall be limited and voluntary. Recommended maximum overtime is 12 hours per week, i.e. that the total working week including overtime shall not exceed 60 hours. Exceptions to this are accepted when regulated by a collective bargaining agreement.

Workers shall always receive overtime pay for all hours worked over and above the normal working hours (see 8.1 above), minimum in accordance with relevant legislation.

13. Regular Employment

Obligations to employees under international conventions, national law and regulations concerning regular employment shall not be avoided by short-term contracting (such as contract labour, casual labour or day labour), sub-contractors or other labour relationships.

All workers are entitled to a contract of employment in a language they understand.

The duration and content of apprenticeship programmes shall be clearly defined.

14. Marginalized Population

Production and the use of natural resources shall not contribute to the destruction and/or degradation of the resources and income base for marginalized populations, such as in claiming large land areas, use of water or other natural resources on which these populations are dependent.

15. Environment

Measures to minimize adverse impacts on human health and the environment shall be taken throughout the value chain. This includes minimizing pollution, promoting an efficient and sustainable use of resources, including energy and water, and minimizing greenhouse gas emissions in production and transport. The local environment at the production site shall not be exploited or degraded.

National and international environmental legislation and regulations shall be respected, and relevant discharge permits obtained.

16. Corruption

Corruption in any form is not accepted, including bribery, extortion, kickbacks and improper private or professional benefits to Customers, Agents, Contractors, Suppliers or Employees of any such party or government officials.

17. Management systems of Suppliers

The management system is key to the implementation of the Code of Conduct. Anda-Olsen emphasises the importance of Suppliers having systems that support such implementation. Anda-Olsen's expectations in this regard are summed up in the following measures:

- The Supplier should make a centrally placed employee responsible for the implementation of the Code of Conduct in the Supplier's business.
- The Supplier must make the Code of Conduct known in all relevant parts of its organisation.
- The Supplier must inform Anda-Olsen prior to outsourcing production or parts of production to a sub-Supplier/contractor.
- The Supplier must be able to give an account of where goods ordered by Anda-Olsen are produced if requested.

In some cases, political or cultural circumstances may make it difficult to comply with certain standards or to obtain the identities of or contact with all subcontractors. In such cases, Anda-Olsen will be open to discuss an alternative approach.
