

Date: February 17th, 2020
To: Vaddio Dealers and Distributors
From: Andy Garrido, Product Manager – Connectivity
Subject: End of Life (EOL) Product discontinuation and transition notification

Effective immediately, Vaddio is announcing its discontinuation of the Ceiling Mounting Kit for Indoor and Outdoor Pendant Domes (material # 998-9300-002). This kit will be replaced with the Junction Box Assembly Ceiling Plate (material # CMA106). CMA106 is a product within the Chief® brand mounting solutions portfolio and can be ordered through any Legrand | AV customer service representative.

For existing customers, the current kit will be available for sale until stock is depleted. We recommend that for new projects, you request a quote using the new part number.
