26AUG2025 12:30, spoke with HV and foster parent David Manowitz (11/05/1976). Manowitz reiterated the details of the initial report, adding that Kai seemed to be easily overstimulated and that the incident was a result of such behavior. Manowitz stated that DC was a difficult city to navigate with a dog that exhibited such a behavior, especially when basic leash manners were still being worked on. Together with Fancy Dogs and Cats Rescue Team, it was decided that Kai would be moved to an emergency foster in Baltimore, MD. Manowitz and his wife will be heading to the new foster today at 16:30. I was instructed to speak with the director of the rescue, Kathy (703-674-9463) for further information. I called Kathy at 13:23. Kathy, familiar with the process, disclosed that Kai was UTD (administered at PG County Animal Services, 1 yr, exp 07/14/2026) and provided the contact information for the new foster, Lisa Smith. I attempted to contact Smith at 17:15 but received no answer. LVM requesting callback to discuss quarantine procedures. //hs
