21. EARLY TERMINATION CLAUSE. Tenant may, upon 60 days' written notice to Landlord, terminate this lease provided that the Tenant pays a termination charge equal to remaining balance of lease term or the maximum allowable by law, whichever is greater. 23. HABITABILITY. Tenant has inspected the Premises and fixtures (or has had the Premises inspected on behalf of Tenant), and acknowledges that the Premises are in a reasonable and acceptable condition of habitability for their intended use, and the agreed lease payments are fair and reasonable. If the condition changes so that, in Tenant's opinion, the habitability and rental value of the Premises are adversely affected, Tenant shall promptly provide reasonable notice to Landlord.

24. HOLDOVER. If Tenant maintains possession of the Premises for any period after the termination of this Lease ("Holdover Period"), Tenant shall pay to Landlord lease payment(s) during the Holdover Period at a rate equal to the most recent rate preceding the Holdover Period. Such holdover shall constitute a month-to-month extension of this Lease.

25. CUMULATIVE RIGHTS. The rights of the parties under this Lease are cumulative, and shall not be construed as exclusive unless otherwise required by law.

26. REMODELING OR STRUCTURAL IMPROVEMENTS. Tenant shall be allowed to conduct construction or remodeling (at Tenant's expense) only with the prior written consent of the Landlord which shall not be unreasonably withheld. However, Landlord does not assume any liability for the care or supervision of the Premises. As provided by law, in the case of an emergency, Landlord may enter the Premises without Tenant's consent. During the last three months of this Lease, or any extension of this Lease, Landlord shall be allowed to display the usual "To Let" signs and show the Premises to prospective tenants.

Tenant understands and agrees that during any and all repair timeframes placed upon landlord by section 8, the city/county, local and state regulating bodies, or any kind of repairs that are placed upon landlord with a specific completion date, then landlord has the right to enter the premises at all times during business hours during that time frame to complete the repairs at landlords convenience. This includes but not limited to 24h HABC violations, Annual HABC inspection repair lists etc.

Tenant hereby expressly releases Landlord and/or Agent from any and all liability for loss or damage to Tenant's property or effects whether in the Premises, garage, storerooms, basement or any other location in or about the Premises, arising out of any cause whatsoever, including but not limited to rain, flood, plumbing leakage, fire or theft, except in the case that such damage has been adjudged to be the result of the gross negligence of Landlord, Landlord's employees, heirs, successors, assignees and/or Agents.

To be absolutely clear, this includes (but is not limited to) any loss caused due to a power outage or power failure in the property, as well as to any loss that occurs in the basement. In case it shall become necessary at any time, from accident or repairs, or to improve the condition or operation of the Premises, or any equipment or utilities appertaining thereto, for Landlord to stop or curtail the operation of said equipment or utilities, Landlord may do so, but in such case due diligence shall be used to complete the work.

29. ACCOMMODATION. Landlord agrees to and is committed to complying with all applicable laws providing equal housing opportunities. To ensure compliance, Landlord will make reasonable accommodations for the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or a tenant, unless undue hardship would result. 37. ENTIRE AGREEMENT/AMENDMENT. This Lease contains the entire agreement of the parties and there are no other promises, conditions, understandings or other agreements, whether oral or written, relating to the subject matter of this Lease. This Lease may be modified or amended in writing, if the writing is signed by the party obligated under the amendment.

38. SEVERABILITY; WAIVER. If any portion of this Lease shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions shall continue to be valid and enforceable. If a court finds that any provision of this Lease is invalid or unenforceable, but that by limiting such provision it would become valid and enforceable, then such provision shall be deemed to be written, construed, and enforced as so limited. The failure of either party to enforce any provisions of this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver or limitation of that party's right to subsequently enforce and compel strict compliance with every provision of this Lease.

39. TIME OF ESSENCE. Time is of the essence with respect to the execution of this Lease.

40. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE. Tenant shall execute and return a tenant estoppel certificate delivered to Tenant by Landlord or Landlord's agent within 3 days after its receipt. Failure to comply with this requirement shall be deemed Tenant's acknowledgment that the estoppel certificate is true and correct, and may be relied upon by a lender or purchaser.

41. TENANT REPRESENTATION; CREDIT. Tenant represents and warrants that all statements in Tenant's rental application are accurate. Tenant authorizes Landlord and any broker to obtain Tenant's credit report periodically during the tenancy in connection with the modification or enforcement of this Lease. 42. BINDING EFFECT. The provisions of this Lease shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of both parties and their respective legal representatives, successors and assigns.

ADDENDUM#1

LANDLORD: LaMonte Williams

TENANT: Tiffany D. Walker, Renaud T. Browne

LEASED PROPERTY ADDRESS (THE PROPERTY):

2803 Riggs Ave, Baltimore, MD 21216

1. SMOKE DETECTOR NOTICE (BALTIMORE CITY): Landlord has installed outside of each sleeping area, and on every story, (including the basement, if present), within the dwelling unit at least one (1) approved smoke detector that senses visible or invisible particles of combustion. When activated, the smoke detector shall provide an alarm suitable to warn the occupants. Said detector(s) are either battery or alternating current (AC) powered (aka hardwired). On written notification by certified mail by the tenant or on notification in person by the tenant, the landlord shall repair or replace the smoke detector. If the tenant personally notifies the landlord of the failure of a smoke detector, the landlord shall provide a written receipt acknowledging the notification. A tenant may not remove a smoke detector or render a smoke detector inoperative. Landlord may require a refundable deposit for a smoke detector not exceeding the value of the smoke detector. On written request of a tenant who is deaf or hearing impaired, the landlord shall provide a smoke detector that, when activated, provides a signal that is approved by a nationally recognized testing laboratory for electrical appliances; and is sufficient to warn the deaf or hearing impaired tenant. Tenant must replace the batteries in the alarm as needed, and notify management by certified mail immediately of any malfunctions or other problems with the alarm, and upon such notice, the owner must repair or replace the alarm. The tenant may not remove or disconnect the alarm and may not remove the batteries or otherwise render the alarm inoperable. In the event of a power outage, an alternating current (AC) powered smoke detector without a battery backup will not provide an alarm. Therefore, the occupants should obtain a dual powered smoke detector or a battery powered smoke detector, if one is not present.
2. CARBON MONOXIDE NOTICE (BALTIMORE CITY): Carbonmonoxide is a colorless and odorless gas produced by appliances and other devices that burn gas, petroleum products, wood and other fuels. Effective March 1, 2010, any property in Baltimore City that has appliances or other devices that burn gas, petroleum products, wood and other fuels must have a working carbon monoxide alarm installed outside of all sleeping areas. The Owner is hereby notifying the Tenant that a CO alarm that is certified by a nationally recognized testing laboratory has been provided and/or installed outside all sleeping areas and is also hereby providing the Tenant with written information on alarm testing and maintenance. The Tenant is responsible for testing, maintaining and replacing batteries, if present, for the duration of this Lease. The tenant may not remove or disconnect the alarm and may not remove the batteries or otherwise render the alarm inoperable. In the event of a power outage, an alternating current (AC) powered CO2 detector without a battery back up will not provide an alarm. Therefore, the occupants should obtain a dual powered smoke detector or a battery powered smoke detector, if one is not present.

LEASE ADDENDUM
LIABILITY INSURANCE REQUIRED OF RESIDENT

1. Addendum. This is an addendum to the Lease Contract for Tiffany D. Walker, Renaud T. Browne at 2803 Riggs Ave, Baltimore, MD 21216.

The effective date of this Addendum is 1/21/2026.

2. Acknowledgment Concerning Liability Insurance Requirement

You acknowledge that we do not maintain insurance to protect you against personal injury, loss or damage to your personal property or belongings, or to cover your own personal liability for injury, loss or damage you (or your occupants or guests) may cause others. You also acknowledge that by not maintaining your own policy of personal liability insurance, you may be responsible to others (including us) for the full cost of any injury, loss or damage caused by your actions or the actions of your occupants or guests, including but not limited to fire damage. For the duration of your Lease Contract you must maintain a personal liability insurance policy, which provides limits of liability to third parties in an amount not less than $100,000 per occurrence. You will ensure that the liability insurance policy identifies this apartment community as a "Party of Interest" or "Interested Party" (or similar language as may be available). You understand and agree to maintain at all times during the Term of the Lease Contract and any renewal periods, a policy of personal liability insurance with this limit and otherwise satisfying the requirements listed below, at your sole expense.

3. Required Policy. You are required to purchase and maintain personal liability insurance covering you, your occupants and guests, for personal injury and property damage any of you cause to third-parties (including damages to our property), with the minimum policy coverage amount set forth in paragraph 2 above, from a licensed insurance carrier authorized to issue such insurance in Maryland. The carrier is required to provide notice to us within 30 days of any cancellation, nonrenewal, or material change in your coverage. We retain the right to hold you responsible for any loss in excess of your insurance coverage.

Please initial how you will meet the insurance requirement.

RB TW I have purchased an annual term renter's insurance policy satisfying the requirements of the Lease Contract and this Addendum from the carrier of my choice.

4. No Solicitation. Unless otherwise acknowledged in writing, you acknowledge that we have made no solicitations, guarantees, representations, or promises whatsoever concerning any insurance or services provided by any insurance company. You were and are free to contract for the required insurance with the provider of your choosing so long as that provider comports with the requirements of paragraph 3 above.

5. Subrogation Allowed. You and we agree that subrogation is allowed by all parties and that this agreement supersedes any language to the contrary in the Lease Contract. Accordingly, our insurance carrier may sue you for losses it pays as a result of your negligence, and your insurance carrier may sue us for losses it pays as a result of our negligence.

6. Your Insurance Coverage. By signing this Addendum, you acknowledge that you have purchased (or will purchase) the insurance described in paragraphs 2 and 3. You further acknowledge that you will keep this insurance policy in-force for the entire term of the lease.

7. Default. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, any default under the terms of this Addendum shall be deemed an immediate, material and incurable default under the terms of the Lease Contract, and we shall be entitled to exercise all rights and remedies under the law. If you fail to pay the insurance charge or if you allow your policy (from the carrier of your choice) to expire or cancel, you will be in default under the terms of your lease.

8. Miscellaneous.

a. Except as specifically stated in this Addendum, all other terms and conditions of the Lease Contract shall remain unchanged. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Lease Contract, the terms of this Addendum shall control.

b. The insurance required by the Lease Contract is not required by any law. Your obligation to provide insurance stems solely from the Lease Contract.

c. The insurance required by the Lease Contract is not an attempt to limit the landlord's liability for its own negligence or your liability for your own negligence.

d. The insurance required by the Lease Contract is not in lieu of, or in any way a component of, the security deposit required by the Lease Contract.

By signing below, you acknowledge and agree that you understand and agree to the terms of this Addendum.

REQUIRED INSURANCE ADDENDUM TO LEASE AGREEMENT

This Addendum is attached to and becomes a part of the Residential Lease Agreement. For the duration of the Lease, Lessee is required to maintain and provide the following minimum required insurance coverage:

- $100,000 Limit of Liability for Lessee's legal liability for damage to Lessor's property for no less than the following causes of loss: fire, smoke, explosion, backup or overflow of sewer, drain or sump, and water damage ("Required Insurance").

Lessee is required to furnish Lessor with evidence of Required Insurance prior to occupancy of leased premises and at the time of each lease renewal period. If at any time Lessee does not have Required Insurance, Lessee is in breach of the Lease and Lessor shall have, in addition to any other rights under the Lease, the right but not the obligation to purchase Required Insurance coverage protecting the sole interest of the Lessor and seek contractual reimbursement from the Lessee for all costs and expenses associated with such purchase.

Lessee may obtain Required Insurance or broader coverage from an insurance agent or insurance company of Lessee's choice. If Lessee furnishes evidence of such insurance and maintains the insurance for the duration of the Lease, then nothing more is required. If Lessee does not maintain Required Insurance, the insurance requirement of this Lease may be satisfied by Lessor, who may purchase such coverage through the Lessor's Legal Liability Insurance Policy ("LLIP"). The coverage provided under the LLIP will provide the Required Insurance coverage listed above. An amount equal to the total cost to the Lessor for the LLIP coverage shall be charged to Lessee by the Lessor as a recoverable expense under the Lease. Some important points of this coverage, which Lessee should understand are:

1. LLIP is designed to fulfill the insurance requirement of the Lease. Lessor is the Insured under the LLIP. This is single interest master insurance policy. Lessee is not an Insured, Additional Insured or beneficiary under the LLIP. All loss payments are made to the Lessor.
2. LLIP coverage is NOT personal liability insurance or renters insurance. LLIP does not cover the Lessee's personal property (contents), additional living expenses or liability arising out of bodily injury or property damage to any third party. If Lessee requires any of these coverages, then Lessee should contact an insurance agent or insurance company of Lessee's choice to obtain personal liability insurance or renters insurance to protect Lessee's interests.
3. Coverage under the LLIP may be more expensive than the cost of Required Insurance obtainable by Lessee elsewhere. At any time, Lessee may contact an insurance agent or insurance company of their choice for insurance options to satisfy the Required Insurance under this Lease.
4. If Lessee has purchased Renters Insurance and at any time allows such Renters Insurance to lapse in breach of the Lease Agreement, Lessor may purchase Lessor Insurance without notice and add the total cost associated therewith to Lessee's monthly rent payment.
5. Licensed insurance agents may receive a commission on the LLIP.
6. The total cost to the Lessee for the Lessor obtaining LLIP shall be $10.50 per month, subject to no proration. This is an amount equal to the actual premium charge to the Lessor including any premium taxes and fees due to state governing bodies. Additionally, an Administration Fee in the amount of $4.50 to be retained by the Lessor for processing and handling will be charged.
7. In the event that loss or damage to Lessor's property exceeds the amount of Required Insurance, Lessee shall remain contractually liable to Lessor for such amount. In the event of liability to any other party for bodily injury or property damage, Lessee shall remain liable to such other party.
8. It shall be the Lessee's duty to notify Lessor of any subsequent purchase of Renters Insurance.

As used in this Addendum: "Lease" may be interchangeable with "Lease Agreement"; "Lessee" may be interchangeable with "Resident" or "Tenant", and "Lessor" may be interchangeable with "Landlord" or "Owner".

Scheduling of the premises under the LLIP is not mandatory and Lessee may purchase Required Insurance from an insurance agent or insurance company of Lessee's choice at any time and coverage under the LLIP will be terminated by the Lessor.

MARYLAND TENANTS' BILL OF RIGHTS

(EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2025)

Maryland law requires the Office of Tenant and Landlord Affairs to publish a Tenants' Bill of Rights and update it by June 1 each year. Landlords must attach the latest version of this document to every residential lease. (Housing and Community Development Article of the Maryland Code, Sections 5-101 through 5-104 and Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, Section 8-208)

This document summarizes significant rights of tenants under Maryland law. It is not a complete list of every tenant right. It does not cover every detail, exception, or difference that may apply on a case-by-case basis.

Additional information may be available through:

- The Maryland Code references listed with each right or other applicable laws
- Independent research
- Consulting with an attorney

Some local jurisdictions within the state may offer additional rights to residential tenants. But the rights in this Maryland Tenants' Bill of Rights apply to all residential tenants in Maryland.

This is general information and does not constitute legal advice. You are encouraged to speak with an attorney if you have questions about your rights as a tenant. Contact information for legal services is listed at the end of this bill of rights.

1. RENTAL APPLICATIONS

A landlord who rents five or more units may not charge more than $25 in fees, outside of a security deposit.

Some landlords may choose to accept a tenant screening report prepared in the previous 30 days by a consumer reporting agency which the tenant obtains and pays for. If a landlord accepts such a report from you, the landlord may not charge you an application fee.

(Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, Sections 8-213 and 8-218)

2. LEASES & TENANCIES

A landlord that rents five or more units in Maryland is required to use a written lease. If the landlord does not use a written lease, tenancy is presumed to be 1 year from the tenant's first use of the unit.

However, if your landlord does give you a written lease, it must include:

- A statement of the condition of the property
- An explanation of who is responsible for utility bills and property repairs
- A receipt for your security deposit
- A copy of the most recent version of the Maryland Tenants' Bill of Rights
- Contact information for the landlord or the contact information of an agent authorized to receive notices and service of process on the landlord's behalf.

A landlord that rents four or fewer units in the state is not required to use a written lease.

Some local jurisdictions may require additional information in leases.

A lease may not include:

- Requires you to allow the landlord to "confess judgment" on a claim arising out of the lease;
- Anything that says you give up your legal rights under the law or your right to a jury trial
- Any provision that shortens any notice period required by law
- Any other provision identified in Section 8-208 of the Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, or any other provision otherwise prohibited by law

An automatic renewal term in a lease must:

- Be separate from other parts of the lease
- Be signed or acknowledged by you separately

For the landlord to end your tenancy:

- For a written lease with a stated term, the landlord must notify you in writing at least 60 days before terminating the tenancy
- For month-to-month periodic tenancies, the landlord must notify you in writing at least 60 days before terminating the tenancy
- For year-to-year periodic tenancies, the landlord must notify you in writing at least 90 days before the tenancy ends

For you to end your tenancy:

- For leases with a stated term, month-to-month tenancies, and all other tenancies but a year-to-year tenancy, you must notify your landlord in writing at least 30 days before terminating the tenancy
- For year-to-year tenancies, you must notify your landlord in writing at least 90 days before terminating the tenancy

- Exceptions to these provisions:
  - Exception #1: If you are a victim of domestic violence or sexual assault and have a protective order or peace order, you have 30 days to vacate the leased premises after giving notice. You are only responsible, however, for rent from the time following the notice, until the date that you vacate, which may be fewer than 30 days. If you vacate in fewer than 30 days after giving notice, you must provide signed, notarized, written notification to the landlord, by first class mail or hand delivery, stating that you vacated the premises.
  - Exception #2: These provisions do not apply in Baltimore City.

If neither side gives notice, your lease may automatically renew or become month-to-month, depending on the terms of your lease. Less common tenancies like week-to-week, year-to-year, or farm tenancies have different notice requirements.

(Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, Sections 8-208, 8-210, and 8-402)

3. RENT

- Rent is due as your lease states.
- If you pay rent late, your landlord can charge a late fee, but it cannot be more than 5% of the late rent amount
- Your landlord must give you a receipt for your rent payment if you pay rent in cash.
- Your landlord may only increase your rent when your lease is renewed. In most cases, they must tell you in writing 90 days in advance of any rent increase. Some local jurisdictions may limit the amount by which rent can be increased, but there is no statewide law that limits rent increases when your lease is renewed.
- Your landlord can provide notice of a rent increase by email, text, or electronic tenant portal only if you have agreed to receive notices electronically.
- If you pay utilities directly to your landlord, your landlord must give you copies of the monthly utility bills.

(Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, Sections 8-205, 8-205.1, and 8-208)

4. SECURITY DEPOSITS

In most cases, a landlord may not require you to pay a security deposit higher than one month's rent. But your security deposit may be up to two months' rent. If you qualify for utility assistance from the Department of Human Services and lease agreement requires that you make payments for utility services directly to your landlord.,

A "security deposit" is any payment you give to the landlord to cover things like breaking the lease, damage to the property, or unpaid rent, including pet deposits.

Your landlord may not require you to pay more than the sum of the first month's rent and the security deposit before you move in.

The landlord must keep your security deposit in an interest-paying bank account and give you a written receipt, which must be included with the written lease. The landlord must advise you about your rights and the landlord's responsibilities relating to the security deposit when you pay the security deposit.

At the end of your tenancy, your landlord must provide you with a written list of any charges deducted from the security deposit. They must return the rest of your deposit with interest within 45 days.

If you plan to move out, you must send your landlord a certified letter at least 15 days before leaving. The letter should say you're moving and give your new address. If you do this, you have the right to be present when the landlord inspects your unit for damage that may reduce your security deposit.

Charges a landlord may legally deduct your security deposit include

- Damage to the property beyond normal wear and tear
- Unpaid rent or utility bills
- Costs or fees from an eviction case judgment

If the landlord does not return your deposit or give you a written list of charges within 45 days after you move out, they may lose the right to keep any of the deposit. You may also be able to get up to three times any amounts they unlawfully did not return.

(Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, Sections 8-203 and 8-203.1)

5. CONDITION OF RENTAL UNITS

Every rental property must be "fit for human habitation," meaning that it is safe and suitable for people to live in and free from problems (serious defects or conditions) that could cause a fire or that are a serious and substantial threat to your life, health or safety.

If you find such a problem, notify your landlord in writing right away. You must provide your landlord with access to your property to make repairs.

If your landlord doesn't fix the problem within a reasonable time after you provide notice, you have options: you can bring suit in the District Court for damages and a decrease in rent, or you may refuse to pay rent (and then raise the issues as a defense to the landlord's suit for rent). . You may also file a rent escrow case, through which you pay rent into the court instead of the landlord.

You have the right to basic services, including heat, light, electricity, hot and cold running water, and proper sewage disposal. Depending on the specific safety or living condition problems in your unit (for example in the case of lead paint), you may

- Have the right for temporary relocation assistance from the landlord
- Take legal action if your landlord does not assist with safe relocation

If the issue is not dangerous but violates local housing codes, you may contact your local code enforcement office if your landlord does not respond.

You have the right to quiet enjoyment of your rental unit for the duration of your tenancy as well as the right to move in and use the unit starting on the date listed in your lease.

(Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, Sections 8-204, 8-211, and 8-212)

6. EVICTIONS

If you violate your lease, don't pay rent on time, or don't move out when your lease ends, your landlord may start the eviction process by filing a case in the District Court.

Your landlord may not evict you unless the District Court has given the landlord the right to the property (called a judgment of possession) and issued an order to remove you (called a warrant of restitution). Efforts to evict you include changing the locks, shutting off utilities, or other similar actions to prevent your access to the unit or ability to live safely in the unit.

You have the right to attend any court hearing in an eviction case brought against you by a landlord. You may also have the right to have an attorney provided to represent you if you are unable to afford one.

If you owe rent, your landlord must notify you in writing at least 10 days before filing an eviction case for failure to pay rent against you in District Court. The 10 day notice requirement is not required for other types of eviction filings, such as a lease violation or staying in the rental unit longer than the time allowed by your lease.

If judgment is entered against you for failing to pay rent, you have four days to appeal that decision to the Circuit Court.

In most cases, you can stop the eviction by paying all past-due amounts and any court costs the court orders you to pay before the eviction is carried out. This is called the "right of redemption."

However, redemption is not an option if you have had 3 (4 in Baltimore City) or more eviction judgments for unpaid rent in the 12 months before the current case.

(Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, Sections 8-401, 8-402, 8-402.1, and 8-902)

7. CONSTRUCTIVE EVICTIONS

In Maryland, constructive eviction occurs when a landlord's actions - or failure to act – make it difficult for a tenant to use and enjoy their rental unit, forcing the tenant to move out.

In order to successfully claim constructive eviction, a tenant must prove several things, such as the landlord's actions or neglect significantly disrupted the tenant's use and enjoyment of the property, the landlord is responsible for the interference, the tenant told the landlord about the issue, and the tenant moved out a reasonable time after the interference. If you are interested in pursuing a claim for constructive eviction, you should consult with an attorney.

If constructive eviction is proven (1) You can treat your lease as ended and you are no longer responsible for paying rent; and (2) you may be able to sue the landlord for your losses. This may include moving costs, rent differences, attorney fees, and other related expenses resulting from the constructive eviction claim.

Landlords must avoid substantial interference with the tenant's enjoyment of their rental property, ensure the rental property is safe and livable, and generally respond to tenant complaints promptly to avoid legal and financial consequences.

8. TENANT RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

If you are a named tenant on the lease and have lived in a rental property with 1, 2, or 3 units for at least six months, your landlord may be required to give you the chance to buy the property before selling it to someone else. This applies if your landlord plans to sell the property, or receives an offer to buy it from a third party. This rule does not apply in certain situations, such as when the property is transferred without a sale; for example, when the property is transferred to a family member, to a business owned by the landlord, or pursuant to a court order, among several other examples. .

If your landlord notifies you that they intend to sell the property to a third party, the notice should also include your right to make an offer to buy it. You have 30 days from the date of the notice to make an offer to buy the property or decline.

If you make an offer with the same or better terms than those in the notice, your landlord must accept it. If you decline to make an offer, your landlord may sell the property to a third party.

Some local jurisdictions may have their own laws about a tenant's right of first refusal or the opportunity to buy a rental property in cases not covered by state law.

(Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, Section 8-119)

9. PROHIBITED ACTS BY LANDLORDS

Housing discrimination is illegal under state and federal law. Landlords may not discriminate against potential or current tenants on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, disability, marital status, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, source of income, or military status. Some local jurisdictions may provide additional anti-discrimination protections.

A landlord may not retaliate, or threaten to retaliate, against you for

- a. making a good faith complaint about a violation of your lease, violation of the law, or the condition of the rental property;
- b. filing or participating in a lawsuit involving the landlord;
- c. participating in a tenants' organization;
- d. requesting police or emergency services at the property; or
- e. providing information to the landlord relating to lead paint issues.

Retaliation may include filing or threatening to file a lawsuit against you, increasing the rent, decreasing the services to you as a tenant (for example, shutting off utilities), failing to make necessary repairs, or terminating your tenancy, among other things.

Unless your lease provides otherwise, you have the right to quiet enjoyment of your residence. Your landlord has the right to enter your unit for legitimate purposes such as making necessary repairs, inspecting the unit, or showing the unit to prospective renters. Starting October 1, 2025, your landlord must notify you in writing at least 24 hours in advance of the inspection or repairs and can only enter the unit Monday through Saturday, from 7am to 7pm, unless it is an emergency. Your lease may provide more details, and your local jurisdiction may have more rules on when your landlord may enter your unit.

(Title 42, Sections 3601 and following of the United States Code; State Government Article of the Maryland Code, Sections 20-101, 20-704, and 20-705; Real Property Article of the Maryland Code, Sections 2-115, 8-204, 8-208.1, and 8-208.2)

Exceptions to the protections of these laws exist in certain circumstances.
