Tenant acknowledges that all representations on the Application are material representations that have been relied upon by the Landlord as an inducement to the rent, to the Premises, to the Tenant. If representations made by tenant in the application is false or misleading as to any material fact, Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease, to hold Tenant liable for any and all damages to the Premises, to exercise all legal and equitable rights and remedies, and to recover reasonable attorney's fees and cost. Tenant shall provide landlord or Landlord's Agent with current home and work telephone numbers at start of Lease and at any time during this Lease that such numbers change.

14. SECURITY DEPOSIT NOTICE AND RECEIPT: The Tenant shall, upon execution of this Lease, deposit with the Landlord the sum indicated above (See Section 7), which shall not exceed two (2) months rent, to be held in an escrow account to ensure full compliance by Tenant of all provisions of this Lease, including but not limited to Tenant obligations with respect to damages caused by the Tenant, Tenant family, agents, employees, guest, other invitees or pets. Failure by the Landlord to comply with this requirement forfeits the right of the Landlord to withhold any part of the security deposit for damages, although Landlord may retain the right to pursue other legal remedies against the Tenant. The Landlord's application of the Security Deposit shall not be the Landlord's sole remedy in the event of the tenant's default if the cost of repairs, replacements or other damages exceed the Security deposit, the Tenant shall pay for such excess costs. During the tenancy, the tenant may not use the Security deposit for any payment or rent or other obligations, and the Tenant shall not use the Security Deposit as the Last month's rent.

The security deposit is not liquidated damages and may not be forfeited to the Landlord for breach of the rental agreement, except in the amount that the Landlord is actually damaged by the Tenant's breach.
