CASCA

Omexco's latest collection CASCA encapsulates our passion for the most exquisite gifts that nature has to offer.

A curated selection of the most stunning variations of mulberry and cork oak barks is showcased page after page, exposing the richly sensuous experience of these soft and matt natural textures.

Playing into the irregular and authentic quality of the material, our artisans are able to give shape to inspired designs.

Our choice to work with cork – its use prolongs the tree's longevity – reflects our commitment towards a more virtuous industry, and allows us to honour our environmental values.

The designs are available in a harmonious palette of nature-inspired shades, where warm earth tones are brought to life by bolder accents, like a lapis lazuli blue.
