news, stories, and photos from Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House

A Place of Spiritual Comfort By Executive Director Fr. Michael Class, SJ

reetings! Let me begin by introducing myself. I am Fr. Michael Class, SJ, the new Executive Director at Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House. I am a member of the United States Midwest Province of the Jesuits (made up of the former Chicago, Detroit, and a native Chicagoan. For the past ten years I taught Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

"Bellarmine has been a place of Wisconsin provinces) and spiritual comfort and growth for at Marquette University in me virtually all of my Jesuit life."

I would like to begin by thanking my predecessor, Fr. Paul Macke. Fr. Macke has done a wonderful job here at Bellarmine and the folks in Cincinnati are really lucky to have him.

Bellarmine has been a place of spiritual comfort and growth for me virtually all of my Jesuit life. In my training years, all of us in studies would gather for a three-day period at the end of the year for prayer and spiritual development. We would alternate between Bellarmine and our retreat house in Milford, Ohio for those gatherings, so Bellarmine became a regular venue for my own formation for priesthood. Fr. John Dillon, one of my predecessors as Executive Director, has been my spiritual director most of my Jesuit life, and I regularly visited him here. Bellarmine's halls and grounds were a familiar place to return to each visit, an experience I am sure most of you share.

A few years ago I made a pilgrimage to Spain to visit sites important in the life of St. Ignatius Loyola as part of my tertianship (preparation for final vows). I visited the castle where he was born and places where he studied and worked, to gain a deeper appreciation of him as I prepared to profess my final vows.

I concluded the pilgrimage in Manresa, Spain in the basilica built over the cave Ignatius lived in while on his own pilgrimage. It was in that cave where Ignatius began writing the Spiritual Exercises. Having made my second 30-day retreat during tertianship, the power of the Spiritual Exercises was vivid for me there.

Those same Spiritual Exercises are the mission and ministry of Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House. Our weekend silent retreats, individually directed retreats, and the Kairos student retreats all flow from the Exercises Ignatius practiced in that cave. I, and each of you, share this experience with St. Ignatius, and it has been transformational for each of us. I am writing this in mid-July looking forward to celebrating the Feast of St. Ignatius on July 31st. I will be praying for you that day. I ask you to remember all of us at Bellarmine in your daily prayers.

Shepherd and Host By Associate Director Erin Maiorca

We say so long and thank you to Fr. Paul Macke this summer. He has been a wonderful Executive Director. Fr. Paul exemplifies Ignatius' teaching that "love ought to manifest itself more by deeds than by words." He is a true contemplative in action, with an emphasis on action. Setting meetings, approving agendas, discerning and implementing - this is all in a day's work for Fr. Paul. He was in constant motion, moving from one end of the house to the other with an eagle eye for detail, ensuring that hospitality and safety were at the forefront.

Over the years, Fr. Paul helped us set a vision for the ministry, create a strategic plan to achieve the vision, and articulate and bring to life our core values. This may not surprise you, as so often we hear that the place is looking better than ever. But our team wondered from time to time... how did he do it?

I believe Fr. Paul was motivated by one of his favorite Scripture passages, Psalm 23: The Lord, Shepherd and Host. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. I invite you to focus for a moment on the title, Shepherd and Host.

Fr. Paul is a great priest, spiritual director, and homilist. But he is also an outstanding administrator, tuned into the importance of hosting, welcoming, and caring for all who come to Bellarmine. He knew that part of hospitality is ensuring the retreat house and grounds are cared for as sacred and holy. There has been, as the Psalm says, care for the green pastures as our Lord restores our strength. We set the table as God overflows our cups. We strive for only goodness and love as we dwell in the house of the Lord.

We are grateful for Fr. Paul, who poured his love of Christ into his work, team, and the sacred place of Bellarmine. Blessings on your journey, Fr. Paul. ▼

The Bellarmine staff gathers for a farewell Mass for Fr. Macke.

A New Space for Prayer

This summer, we have added a garden on the northwest lawn near the St. Joseph Gazebo Shrine in loving memory of Suzi Jo Hanson. While you are here on retreat, we invite you to visit Suzi's Memorial Garden to pray, meditate, and reflect in this new sacred space in the beauty of God's creation. ♣

St. Ignatius Says...

"He who carries God in his heart bears heaven with him wherever he goes."

Ambassadors for Bellarmine

You can help support Bellarmine's ministry by becoming an Ambassador for Bellarmine: inviting loved ones to join you on retreat and talking about your experiences here.

In our 2017-2018 Program Guide, we included a postcard retreat invitation. Please help us invite new people to Bellarmine. We want to enrich the lives of as many people as possible through our silent retreats.

If you wish to share information about Bellarmine with your friends and family, please contact the office at 847-381-1261. We would be happy to send you materials about our retreats and programs.

"What we have seen and heard we proclaim now to you, so that you too may have fellowship... with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ."

- I John I:3

Welcoming the Stranger By Development Director Kathy Caudill

Tesus teaches us how we should live and love: "I was ... a stranger and you welcomed me." The Oxford English Dictionary seems to take into account Jesus' wise words, defining "hospitality" as: "the friendly and generous reception and entertainment of guests, visitors, or strangers."

Bellarmine's retreat ministry is blessed with the generosity of many individuals who follow St. Ignatius' call "to love that manifests itself in deeds rather than words." We appreciate the prayers of our friends and benefactors for this retreat ministry. We are grateful for the volunteers who serve at Mass while on retreat. We are thankful for the captains and retreatants who invite others to join them on retreat, and then warmly welcome these new retreatants and help them feel "at home" when they first arrive here.

Each day at Bellarmine, we see evidence of the ripple effect of the hospitality and generosity of our retreatants. Some deeds undertaken may seem small (such as seeking a retreat room without a private bathroom so that others with special medical needs can have one) but play an important role in welcoming a stranger to this sacred place. Other actions (like donating to the Fr. Fussner Fund or remembering Bellarmine's endowment fund in a will or trust) help Bellarmine to continue welcoming strangers for years to come. In each instance, great and small, individuals who were once strangers feel the warm welcome of God, His people, and His creation. Truly, finding God in all things.

Pope Francis on Hospitality

"A guest doesn't need to be merely served, fed, and cared for in every way. Above all it is necessary that he is listened to - recall well this word - to listen. That the guest might be welcomed as a person, with his history, his heart rich in sentiments and thoughts, so that he might feel truly that he is among family."

- Sunday Angelus given in St. Peter's Square, July 17, 2016

Welcome, Teresa!

Next time you come to Bellarmine, a new face will greet you! Meet Teresa Larson, our new Weekend Retreat & Spirituality Program Coordinator. Teresa has over 20 years of administrative experience, parish ministry, and volunteer work with veterans. Rachel Fitzgibbon now serves as Bellarmine's Marketing & Retreat Coordinator.

Celebrating 50 Years

This summer, Fr. Rick McGurn, SJ of our Ministry staff and the Superior of the Bellarmine Jesuit Community is celebrating 50 years as a Jesuit.

Fr. McGurn brings much wisdom and good humor to the Bellarmine family. We are grateful that our retreat ministry benefits from his prayerful discernment, and our retreatants enjoy his spiritual direction and outstanding homilies.

Join all of us in remembering Fr. McGurn in your prayers this summer as he celebrates this Jubilee! ▼
