

Patricia Ballard is a Benedictine Oblate of St. Scholastica Monastery in Chicago. She completed her Internship in Spiritual Direction at Bellarmine. She has been teaching young children for many years and has served as a high school teacher, college campus minister, DRE, retreat leader, and speaker on the Spiritual Life of Children. Patty holds a BA and an MA in Religious Studies from Mundelein College and an MA in Reading/Literacy from Northeastern Illinois University. She has studied at Loyola University, the Catholic Theological Union, and the former Institute for Spiritual Leadership. Patty has three grown children and is the grandmother of twin babies.

Directing: June 23 - July 1 and July 15 -23, 2022

Rachel Forton holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Public Relations and Religious Studies from Loras College (Dubuque, Iowa). She served as the Retreat and Communications Coordinator for Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House for six years and completed Ignatian Spiritual Direction Training there. She has a passion for helping others find God in all things through spiritual direction and retreat ministry, writing, and editing. Her most recent writings may be found at www.coraevans.com/blog/author/IO2. Originally from Des Moines, Iowa, Rachel now lives with her husband and young daughter and son in Palatine, IL.

Directing: July 15 -23, 2022

Fr. James Gschwend, SJ, PhD is a member of Bellarmine's resident staff. His background includes administrative positions in Jesuit high schools, working at Community Mental Health in San Francisco, and serving as Director of Spirituality in the sabbatical program at the School of Applied Theology in Oakland and Berkeley. In Berkeley he also served as Assistant Rector for the Jesuit School of Theology. Following a fellowship year on the clinical staff at the Southdown Institute in Canada, Fr. Gschwend served the Chicago Jesuit Provincial as assistant for personnel, assisting men with healthcare needs and transitions in ministry.

Directing: To Be Determined

Fr. Mark Henninger, SJ is a Chaplain at Loyola University Hospital in Maywood, IL and a Campus Minister for the medical and nursing schools. His training in spiritual direction includes an internship at Loyola University's Institute of Pastoral Studies. For many years he was a professor of medieval philosophy, most recently at Georgetown University in Washington DC, but with prior positions at Loyola University in Chicago, University of Detroit Mercy, the Gregorian University in Rome, and Arrupe College in Zimbabwe.

Directing: June 23 - July 1 and July 15 -23, 2022

Fr. Rick McGurn, SJ is a member of Bellarmine's resident staff. He has been an associate pastor at Jesuit parishes in Chicago and Cincinnati, and has directed the training program for Spiritual Directors at the Jesuit Retreat House in Cincinnati. Fr. McGurn has been the Socius – Executive Assistant – to the Provincial of the Chicago Province Jesuits, as well as the Provincial's Assistant for Formation where he oversaw the studies of men preparing for ordination and ministry. Just prior to coming to Bellarmine, he was superior of the Jesuit community at Loyola Academy, the Jesuit high school in Wilmette, IL.

Directing: June 23 - July 1 and July 15 -23, 2022

Rev. Carol Ann Munro is an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ. She has served as a parish pastor, hospital chaplain, development officer, retreat leader and spiritual director. Primary areas of focus for her ministry have been 12-step spirituality, adult faith formation and biblical literacy. She is currently a volunteer with the Ignatian Spirituality Project, which provides spiritual companionship for people recovering from homelessness and addiction, and she serves as a spiritual resource for the Peace and Justice Ministry of St. Gertrude Roman Catholic Church in Chicago.

Directing: June 23 - July 1, 2022

(See reverse side for more Bellarmine Retreat Directors)

Deacon Gerald Nora is a permanent deacon who provides spiritual direction at Bellarmine and Cardinal Stritch Retreat House. A graduate of Bellarmine's spiritual direction internship program, Jerry also ministers as a hospital chaplain and to the homeless. He has done substantial graduate work in biblical theology at Catholic Theological Union and holds graduate degrees from Georgetown and University of Chicago. A retired attorney, Jerry has been married for 42 years and has four children and eight grandchildren.

Directing: June 23 - July 1 and July 15 -23, 2022

Fr. Roc O'Connor, SJ is a member of the Ministry Team and Jesuit Community. He has served in a number of parishes around the country as well as in campus ministry settings. He taught Eucharist and Sacraments courses at Creighton University from 2000 to 2013. OCP published his collection of eight new songs, All Shall Be Well: The Hand of God in May 2020. During COVID he submitted the first of a three volume writing project about liturgical spirituality publication. Fr. Roc is one of the original members of the St. Louis Jesuits who composed many of the familiar hymns we sing at Mass.

Directing: July 15 -23, 2022

Tim Reuland completed Bellarmine's internship in spiritual direction in May 2021. He and his wife of 46 years, Kate, have 3 children and 4 grandchildren. He is a member and past chair of the Bellarmine Board of Directors, and a life member of the Board of Trustees of Marmion Academy in Aurora. Tim has a B.A. in philosophy from Loyola University of Chicago where he was introduced to Ignatian spirituality. He has a law degree from Northwestern University School of Law, and recently retired from a 48-year career as a trial lawyer. Tim currently accompanies both lay people and clergy in spiritual direction.

Directing: June 23 - July, 1 2022

Barbara Ritson completed a 3-year Internship in Ignatian Spiritual Direction at Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House. She is a retired Religious bookshop Manager at the (Benedictine) Buckfast Abbey Bookshop in Devon, England. She is presently in the 4-year Scripture Program at Loyola's Institute of Pastoral Studies. Barbara is an active member of St Patrick's Parish in St Charles where she is an Extraordinary Minister. She has many years' participation in Bible study, contemplative prayer groups and Ignatian guided retreats.

Directing: June 23 - July 1 and July 15 -23, 2022

Fr. Michael Sparough, SJ is a member of Bellarmine's resident staff. He holds a Master of Fine Arts from the Yale School of Drama and a DMin from St. Mary of the Lake in Mundelein, IL. He is the founder of Charis Ministries, the Jesuit retreat ministry for outreach to young adults in their twenties and thirties, and has trained spiritual directors at Loyola University Chicago's Institute of Pastoral Studies. A prolific writer and speaker, Fr. Michael has published on prayer and the sacraments. His latest book, What's Your Decision? is published by Loyola Press.

Directing: June 23 - July 1 and July 15 -23, 2022

Lynn Sprehe is a Spiritual Director trained in the Ignatian tradition. She is a team member of Bellarmine's training program for Spiritual Directors. She enjoys giving the Spiritual Exercises to individuals and small groups, as well as offering workshops based on Ignatian Spirituality. Lynn HAS graduate degrees in Pastoral Studies and Clinical Psychology. She is married and the mother of three sons.

Directing: June 23 - July 1 and July 15 -23, 2022

Fr. Jim Strzok, SJ is a member of Bellarmine's resident staff. He has extensive retreat ministry experience and a varied background that includes expertise in cosmology, Earth sciences, chemistry and physics. Fr. Strzok spent 13 years working with Sioux Indians in South Dakota. He then began a 33-year-long ministry in East Africa where he helped form religious women and clerics at a spirituality center and trained religious and lay leaders to give the Spiritual Exercises at Mwangaza Retreat Center.

Directing: June 23 - July 1 and July 15 -23, 2022