

Love is God's Religion

February 23-25, 2024

Ignatian, Silent Weekend Retreat for Adults

These days of retreat will explore how we are to put love in action at the margins, seeking exquisite mutuality and relational wholeness in the vicinity of the poor. The ministry of Homeboy Industries and outreach to gang members and returning citizens, will animate this time of reflection.

Retreat Leader: Fr. Greg Boyle, SJ

- Founder of Homeboy Industries in Los Angeles, CA, the largest gang-intervention, rehabilitation, and re-entry program in the world
- Previous pastor of Dolores Mission Church in Boyle Heights

The Bellarmine Retreat Experience

What to Expect

This retreat includes several presentations, daily Mass, communal prayer, six delicious meals, a one-on-one conversation with a spiritual director, and many other opportunities to explore the retreat house and grounds. Come to the quiet to read, sleep, pray and reflect. All activities are optional.

- Bellarmine has two libraries, a resource center, two chapels, dining room, and many other places to relax.
- Located on 80 acres, with both woodlands and prairie grasses.
- Outdoor spaces include walking trails, prayer gardens, a gazebo, stations of the cross, as well as patios and outdoor chairs and benches.
- Each retreatant has their own bedroom.

Graces and Blessings of a Retreat

“Coming to Bellarmine has always aided me in my connection to God. It’s the oil that gets the gears movin’!”

“I hope I touch others in a positive way in their faith. I hope it helps me with my prayer. Nice thing about a silent retreat is you just have to listen.”

“Beautiful hospitality, generous gifts and guidance/direction. Inspires/renews hope, reverence, growth, and inspiration for my faith journey.”
