

Retreat for Liturgical Musicians & Ministers

April 4-6, 2024

Thursday - Saturday

Ignatian, Semi-Silent
Weekend Retreat
for Adults

Liturgists, liturgical musicians, cantors, choirs and many others are usually so busy and so immediately focused on the details of Triduum that it's all we can do to just collapse the week afterwards. Fr. Roc O'Connor, SJ invites you to come to Bellarmine to rest, pray, and reflect on "What the heck just happened?"

Retreat Leader: Fr. Roc O'Connor, SJ

- Bellarmine Ministry Team member
- Full time composer and writer
- Published collection of eight new songs, All Shall Be Well: The Hand of God in June 2020

The Bellarmine Retreat Experience

What to Expect

This retreat includes several presentations, daily Mass, small group sharing, six delicious meals, a one-on-one conversation with a spiritual director, and many other opportunities to explore the retreat house and grounds. Come to the quiet to read, sleep, pray and reflect. All activities are optional.

- Bellarmine has two libraries, a resource center, two chapels, dining room, and many other places to relax.
- Located on 80 acres, with both woodlands and prairie grasses.
- Outdoor spaces include walking trails, prayer gardens, a gazebo, stations of the cross, as well as patios and outdoor chairs and benches.
- Each retreatant has their own bedroom.

Graces and Blessings of a Retreat

“Coming to Bellarmine has always aided me in my connection to God. It’s the oil that gets the gears movin’!”

“I hope I touch others in a positive way in their faith. I hope it helps me with my prayer. Nice thing about a silent retreat is you just have to listen.”

“Beautiful hospitality, generous gifts and guidance/direction. Inspires/renews hope, reverence, growth, and inspiration for my faith journey.”
