

Turn Turn Turn: There is a Time for Everything

BELLARMINE

Jesuit Retreat House

November 15-17, 2024

*Ignatian, Semi-Silent
Weekend Retreat for Men & Women*

Our lives are full of changing seasons. This retreat explores the wisdom of natural seasons, the liturgical calendar, and the Spiritual Exercises to draw us into a deeper relationship with our God who constantly and unconditionally loves us and invites us to grow and change.

Lauren Hackman-Brooks

Director of Mission Engagement at Gonzaga University (Spokane, WA); spiritual director trained in the Ignatian tradition; previous experience working in Jesuit institutions.

Fr. Eric Sundrup, SJ

Pastor of Bellarmine Chapel at Xavier University (Cincinnati, OH); founder of the weekly podcast, Jesuitical; co-founder of the blogsite, The Jesuit Post; writer for America Magazine online.

The Bellarmine Retreat Experience

What to Expect

This retreat includes several presentations, daily Mass, communal prayer, six delicious meals, a one-on-one conversation with a spiritual director, and many other opportunities to explore the retreat house and grounds. Come to the quiet to read, sleep, pray and reflect. All activities are optional.

- Bellarmine has two libraries, a resource center, two chapels, dining room, and many other places to relax.
- Located on 80 acres, with both woodlands and prairie grasses.
- Outdoor spaces include walking trails, prayer gardens, a gazebo, stations of the cross, as well as patios and outdoor chairs and benches.
- Each retreatant has their own bedroom.

Graces and Blessings of a Retreat

"I enjoy coming to a Bellarmine retreat to let go of the worldly distractions and reconnect and refocus on Our Lord and what is important in life."

"Time to be silent, to grow in my relationship with Jesus. Excellent "tools" given to help make that happen."

"The silence. It's the only time in life where I have access to silence for this long and it opens my heart to hear God."
