Holy Week

Ignatian, Silent Weekend Retreat for Men

Enter into the sacred journey of Holy Week with prayer, reflection, and silence. As we walk alongside Jesus, from the Upper Room to the Cross and into the hope of the Resurrection, we'll listen deeply to His call and open our hearts to His grace. Through Scripture, Ignatian contemplation, and quiet time with God, this retreat invites you to experience the depth of Christ's love and the promise of new life.

Retreat Leader: Fr. Roc O'Connor, SJ

Bellarmino Ministry Team member; full time composer and writer; published his collection of eight new songs, All Shall Be Well: The Hand of God in June 2020.

The Bellarmine Retreat Experience

What to Expect

This retreat includes several presentations, daily Mass, communal prayer, six delicious meals, a one-on-one conversation with a spiritual director, and many other opportunities to explore the retreat house and grounds. Come to the quiet to read, sleep, pray and reflect. All activities are optional.

- Bellarmine has two libraries, a resource center, two chapels, dining room, and many other places to relax.
- Located on 80 acres, with both woodlands and prairie grasses.
- Outdoor spaces include walking trails, prayer gardens, a gazebo, stations of the cross, as well as patios and outdoor chairs and benches.
- Each retreatant has their own bedroom.

Graces and Blessings of a Retreat

"I enjoy coming to a Bellarmine retreat to let go of the worldly distractions and reconnect and refocus on Our Lord and what is important in life."

"Time to be silent, to grow in my relationship with Jesus. Excellent "tools" given to help make that happen."

"The silence. It's the only time in life where I have access to silence for this long and it opens my heart to hear God."
