

Journeying in Friendship with Jesus

BELLARMINE

Jesuit Retreat House

October 23-25, 2026

*Ignatian, Silent
Weekend Retreat for Adults*

This weekend will provide an opportunity to reflect upon the joys and challenges within friendships while discerning how to root these experiences through the context of Christ's life by examining his relationships with the apostles and the people whom he encountered in the gospels. This retreat will include applied personal reflections from Fr. Nick while drawing upon examples from scripture and the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola as prayerful invitations to deepen one's friendship with Jesus.

Retreat Leader: Fr. Nick Albin, SJ

Assistant to the President for Mission at Creighton Preparatory School in Omaha, NE; passionate about helping people grow closer to Christ as they discover their God-given gifts and talents.
