

Waiting in Hope — Becoming an Advent People

BELLARMINE

Jesuit Retreat House

December 8, 2026

9 am - 3 pm

Day of Reflection for Adults

This day of reflection offers a quiet space to explore the spiritual practice of waiting and the hope that grounds the Advent season. Through Ignatian reflection, you will consider how to live with greater patience and trust as you prepare your heart to welcome God's presence.

Retreat Leader: Rosanne Coury

Certified spiritual director; previous Director of Religious Education and Pastoral Minister; public speaker and professional writer; avid reader and musician.

The Bellarmine Retreat Experience

What to Expect

A day or evening of reflection, grounded in the Jesuit tradition, is a shorter version of the Ignatian Weekend Retreat. Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, a day or evening program is sure to give you the peace and serenity needed to be still and to rest in God's loving embrace.

- Bellarmine has two libraries, a resource center, two chapels, dining room, and many other places to relax.
- Located on 80 acres, with both woodlands
- and prairie grasses.
- Outdoor spaces include a labyrinth, walking trails, prayer gardens, a gazebo, stations of the cross, as well as patios and outdoor chairs and benches.
- Each retreatant has their own bedroom.

Graces and Blessings of a Retreat

"I enjoy coming to a Bellarmine retreat to let go of the worldly distractions and reconnect and refocus on Our Lord and what is important in life."

*"Time to be silent, to grow in my relationship with Jesus.
Excellent "tools" given to help make that happen."*

"The silence. It's the only time in life where I have access to silence for this long and it opens my heart to hear God."
