

CIRCEO APPOINTS CORNELIUS WALTER AND LOUIS CHAUVEL AS NEW MEMBERS OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

Luxembourg, November 13, 2020

The General Assembly of shareholders of Circeo has appointed Cornelius Walter and Louis Chauvel as new members of the Supervisory Board of the company

Cornelius Walter is an impact investor committed to mitigating climate change & improving E2E food chains, having spent 23 years with McKinsey & Company in Germany and Hungary.

Louis Chauvel is a professor at the University of Luxembourg, with 30 years of experience in quantitative, structural and behavioral social sciences.

Laurent Clerc, the President of Circeo Group declared: “We are very happy to welcome Cornelius and Louis to our Board, they will bring a diversified perspective on the activities and the further development of our company”.

- END -

About Circeo:

Circeo was established in 2014 with the goal of helping banks use technology to resolve complex lending problems. The organization's signature software tool, TheLoanFactory, is an innovative approach to lending that makes the management of the loan life cycle easier for both banks and their customers. Headquartered in Luxembourg with offices in Hungary, France, and the UK.

Should you have any questions, feel free to visit our website and contact us.