

Exercise C4.1: Nouns and adjectives in the nominative, genitive and dative cases

Each of the noun and adjective pairs in purple below is either in the nominative, genitive or dative case. Choose the correct Latin for each noun and adjective pair.

e.g. He wanted to give a gift to the happy king.

(rēx laetus / rēgis laetī / rēgī laetō)

1. We built a temple for the cruel goddess.

(deae crūdēlis / deae crūdēlī / dea crūdēlis)

2. They were the wives of the daring Romans.

(Rōmānī audācēs / Rōmānīs audācibus / Rōmānōrum audācium)

3. I loved the daughter of the good father.

(patrī bonō / pater bonus / patris bonī)

4. You took the weapons of the brave Greeks.

(Graecōrum fortium / Graecī fortēs / Graecīs fortibus)

5. She gave help to the terrified wives.

(uxōrēs perterritae / uxōribus perterritīs / uxōrum perterritārum)

6. They persuaded the evil fathers.

(patrum malōrum / patrēs malī / patribus malīs)

7. He trusted the fortunate daughter.

(fīliae fēlīcis / fīliae fēlīcī / filia fēlīx)

8. You brought gold for the great gods.

(deīs magnīs / deī magnī / deōrum magnōrum)

9. Once I was a fortunate daughter.

(filia fēlīx / fīliae fēlīcis / filiae fēlīcī)

10. The brave women punished the bad queen.

(fēminae fortēs / fēminārum fortium / fēminīs fortibus)