

Exercise B5.7: Present participles – recognising endings

Each of the sentences below contains present participles of verbs from the vocabulary lists for Chapter 4 and Chapter 5.

Translate each sentence and choose the correct participle from the options in brackets to agree with the noun in purple. Remember the participle must agree with its noun in case, gender and number.

e.g. deus hominem vīnum (bibentem / bibentēs) pūnīvit.

The god punished the man drinking wine.

1. fēmina (clāmāns / clāmantēs) ad vīllam festīnāvit.
2. liberī per silvam (festīnāns / festīnantēs) rīdēbant.
3. rēx deīs (rīdentī / rīdentibus) dōna dedit.
4. difficile erat servō vīnum (bibentibus / bibentī) cēnam parāre.
5. pater filiae cibum (cōnsūmentium / cōnsūmentis) trīstis erat.
6. equus ad flūmen (veniēns / venientēs) bibere volēbat.
7. servus agricolam aquam ad agrum (ferentem / ferentēs) cōnspexit.
8. dea ē caelō (spectāns / spectantēs) hominēs terruit.
9. mātērēs et patrēs liberōrum (clāmantium / clāmantis) irātī erant.
10. Rōmānae Rōmānōs arma fortiter (parantem / parantēs) laudāvērunt.