Exercise C5.3: Sentences to translate into Latin

Translate these sentences into Latin.
1. Now the tired slaves are away from the fields.
2. The women, eating food, are present at the dinner.
3. The farmers go to the inn because they want to drink wine.
4. It is easy for the children, running quickly, to come to the city.
5. The cruel goddess, laughing happily, punished the men with arrows.
6. For a long time the god had sacred temples in the Greek city.
7. The mother ordered her crying son to hurry to the house.
8. The woman orders the slave-girls to carry much water from the river.
9. The good king gives money to wretched men.
10. Why do the sad cry?

I am present at - adsum ad + accusative