

Exercise C6.2: Sentences to translate into Latin

Translate these sentences into Latin.

1. The sad slave-girl, crying, will not be able to go to the city.
2. Son, carry my wine to the inn!
3. Terrified, we ran for three hours from the city.
4. The king orders his brave men to fight.
5. For ten years the mother wanted a new house.
6. O gods, you will have temples in the high mountains.
7. Father, praise your brave sons.
8. We could see your friend carrying much gold.
9. Surely he won't buy the small slave for the king?
10. Romans, carrying weapons, will you fight against our men?

The vocative sg of filius is fili. For the vocative case endings for other nouns, see the Book 1 Grammar reference section on pp214–215.