

Exercise C9.1: Sentences to translate into Latin

1. The soldier defended by his huge shield was not killed by the spears.
2. The town was set on fire. The houses and shops were destroyed quickly.
3. The inhabitants invited the wounded soldiers into their town.
4. Although our comrades were defending themselves bravely, they were easily conquered.
5. Weapons seized in the battle were handed over to the troops.
6. Overpowered and wounded, my comrades at last perished.
7. The leader was wounded by the sword seized by the bad soldier.
8. Very often our fathers waged wars and defended the homeland most bravely.
9. The inhabitants feared death because their town was destroyed.
10. Surely the soldiers who had fought most fiercely in many battles were not overpowered by spears and arrows?