

Exercise C12.2: Sentences to translate into Latin

1. No young men will die today because the city is being defended by our allies.
2. I thought that no one was saving the temple of the gods.
3. No one will be killed because our men always fight most fiercely.
4. O son, do not stray! It is much safer for you to stay on the road.
5. Because he had conquered more tribes, this leader was much more famous than that one.
6. The enemy, who had gathered together at first light, were being guarded. When night came, they were killed.
7. Despairing, the sailors, who were the first to escape, guarded their ships and asked for help.
8. The women could neither read nor write, but they were very often praised on account of their children.
9. The sad sailor, sitting near the sea, was weeping for many hours. He was despairing because he could not return to his own homeland.
10. The sailor said that the sea was very cruel and there was great danger in the waves.