

I wish everyone could experience the love of God the way I have. I love everyone. To the victims' families, I pray that you have peace and all that you are in need of. Into thy hands I commit my spirit, O Lord.