

Aaron,

I want you to know that no matter what you think I do love you with all my heart and soul. You have been on my mind all day and I wish that you knew how sorry I truly am. I never meant to hurt you and if I could go back and undo the hurt that I have caused you I would, but we both know that isn't possible. Instead the only thing that I can do is tell you I'M SORRY!!!! I know that probably doesn't mean very much to you, but I am. I wish that I had been honest with you about those stupid insignificant events a long time ago. I don't know I was scared of losing you and not prepared to face my past. The moment that I met you I knew that you were the one I was going to spend the rest of my life with and I wanted to put my past in the past and move on in the future with you. I made mistakes in the past that I wish I could undo, but it's too late. I know that I have been and always will be 100% faithful to you. There is no one in this world that could ever treat me the way that you do and make me feel that way that you do. I know that I don't always show it but I do appreciate every thing you do for me and I wouldn't trade you for anyone in the world. I haven't even talked to another guy since we met and I don't intend on doing so anytime in the future. You promised that you were going to be with me forever and that is a promise that I take very seriously. I can't imagine one day of my life without you in it, there isn't a single person who could fill your place. It isn't that I don't want to be alone it's that I don't want to be without you. Every plan for my future has you in it. It's like one of those fairy tale stories and without you in it, it just isn't complete. You are my "Prince Charming" and sooner or later you will realize it. When I was little I dreamed of meeting a wonderful guy who would love me unconditionally, we would get married, buy a house, and start a family of our own.....you are the person that I want to do that with. No I am not be the best girlfriend in the world, but I am trying and I will try harder. You probably imagined spending your life with someone better, but I don't think that anyone could possibly love you as much as I do. You hold my heart in the palm of your hands so it is up to you what you will do with it. I hope that you will treasure it and stay with me in order to keep it from breaking. Like I told you last night I am willing to do whatever it takes to make you want to stay. This is our home and I don't want you to leave. I know that deep down in your heart you know we are meant to be together but I also know that I hurt you. I am asking for your forgiveness or at least one last chance. I want to prove my love to you and make you see that I'm not a slut or a lying bitch, but I am the girl that you fell in love with and I hopefully am the one that you want to spend the rest of your life with. As I am writing this the tears are slowly rolling down my cheeks and I don't know how to make them stop. I would love nothing more than to be here with you right now looking into your eyes while you hold me and tell me that everything is going to be alright. When you say "I Love You" I fall in love with you all over again. I never truly knew what love was until I met you and now I know. It is the heart beating faster when you walk into the room. Getting warm inside when you tell me that you love me. Getting that tingly feeling throughout my body every time you kiss me. Not wanting to go to sleep without you by my side. Not wanting to go to school or work because I don't want to be away from you. Seeing our kids in the future. Planning our wedding. Not imagining one day without you. Not being able to get close enough. Not being afraid to be myself. Making you a part of my family. Trying hard to impress the people that you care most about. And most importantly I believe that love is "US". I know that you may not feel the same way as I do but there is no way of getting around it, we truly do love each other and I am not going to give up on us, I also don't want to let you give up on us either. My life would be incomplete without you in it. I know that at times I am more trouble than I'm worth, but I really do love you. I need you in my life more than you could ever imagine and I'm not going to let you give up on me without giving me a chance. I just wanted to let you know that I am going to make this work, all you have to do is give me the chance to do so. I am begging you for this one last chance and I promise you that I won't screw it up. I was just talking to my sister today over lunch and we were looking at her Jamaica book and that's where I want to go to get married, the only thing that is missing is you wanting to become my husband because if you don't want to be then I'm never getting married because you are the only man that I could honestly imagine spending the rest of my life with. So you can take this for what it is worth to you, but I hope that some of it will stick in your heart, I know that writing this has made a big impact on me and I hope that it made an equally large impact on you. I will love you unconditionally until the day I die and I hope that you choose to spend forever with me. I will do whatever I can to make you want to make this last forever all you have to do is say the words. The one thing I know is that "forever will not be long enough to love you", but I am willing to try to make it last forever.

Love always and forever yours,
Lacey

I tried to get out of work today, but they really need me for at least a couple of hours. Brian did say that as soon as it slowed down he would let me go home. I hope to be home by 7, but no promises. I hope that you will stay here and be here when I get home, but if there is something you want to do I understand. I am going to clean house and then study when I get home, but I want to be with you. So please try to be here when I get home from work so that we can hold each other and I can be in the one place that I have thought about being all day, in your arms. If you do decide to leave home, can you please call my cell phone and leave me a message telling me where you're going?? The other thing is that I put your phone on the charger so can you take it with you so that I can get a hold of you if I need to or else when I get off work??? The last thing that I have to say is that I don't want you to leave while I am gone, even if you do choose to leave me I would like to be here to say goodbye when you do. I love you with all of my heart and I WANT YOU TO STAY!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I hope that my opinion matters and that you are here when I get home, but either way let me know what you are going to do. I LOVE YOU AND I ALWAYS WILL!!!!!!!!!!!!
