

Brenda

I have trying very hard to write the girls on my own. I found out that I cant do it on my own Megan always getting into trouble with school. She had to go to court for missing alot of school and she got probation and she is not saposed to miss any more school and she keeps on missing. Amber is also been missing school lately on Mon and tuesday and some Wednesday every other week. And I know Megan had CPS coming here at the back she wrote alot of stuff down and said that she would be back on the 3rd of Jan to check on the girls and if they werent done for what she wrote down then I could lose the girls. So I am writting you to let you know that I am willing to give the girls to you before January I am giving Nancy the trailer so she has a place to live.

I tried very hard to raise my girls but the girls did not want to work with me Them not going to school and Megan always getting into trouble. So I am just going to give up and let Brenda have them and then I am moving on I'll leave the trailer and all the stuff in it. I just want to be left alone I cant deal with the girls and stress any more so all I want to say is I love you all and thank you for trying to help me...

I'm sorry I let you down girls I love you

Love

Gary
