

I know in my heart what has happened. Now that I am being convicted falsely, this event will forever remain a burden in my life.

Living a life of false accusation is worse than living handicapped. The mental frustration is too unbearable.

I have been labelled a liar, and the police constable does not believe what I say. The worst part about this is that I'm a liar on paper. You, my family, know that in your hearts that this is not so. I cannot live on with a title that does not belong to me.

Someone hits me and I can still get blamed for it? This is how the secular world works. The liar title will haunt me forever.

You are the first person to have convicted me of such a terrible action. I do consider myself a responsible individual.... How the witness statements have put me at fault boggles my mind and comes to a severe shock.... I am not able to dispute, I usually would not dispute because it creates unwanted tension. I pray that at this time you will continue to search for the truth for this case.

I have tried my hardest to make you proud.... You will be hurt and I apologize for that.
