I can't take any more. The neb. treatments are doing no good. I made up my mind last Wednesday when I came home from the hospital that I was not going to the hospital again. I have seen too much of doctors and hospital in the last three months. I have tried to keep a positive attitude but I can't do it any more. Ive never been a quitter but there comes a time when enough is enough. I have lost my independence which I valued right below my dog. I had hopes that coming from the [?] I would get better. Any walking on my part brings bad shortness of breath. [sentence deleted] Ive had a pretty good life and I [deleted] I've had two good partners and good friends. I will try to make it thru the night and call [Name] in the morning to have [Dog Name] put down, I will take her to [?] myself. After that I can end my life with no regrets.

Sue if you want a memorial service for me. I want it at Unitarian church with a lesbian minister. [section not clear]

This is my version of Rainbow Bridge My dogs and I are not going to cross it.

Rainbow Bridge

Just this side of heaven is a place called Rainbow bridge. When an animal dies that pet goes to rainbow bridge. Through meadows and hills for all our special friends so they can run and play together. The animals who were strays or were abused come to the Rainbow bridge too. They never knew a special one nor and they ever know love.

All the animals who had been ill or old are restored to health and vigor; those who were hurt or maimed are made whole and strong again just as we remember them in our dreams of days gone by. The animals are happy and content except for one small thing. Those who had a loving home miss someone very special who had to be left behind. The little guys who never knew anyone special run and play too but there is a sadness in their eyes and in their actions.

My dogs and I are going to foster these little guys who never had a special person in their life. When an animal person comes to Rainbow bridge I'll ask them to take one or two of the little guys who never had a chance in life to know the love of a person or maybe even another dog to love.
