

Dear [Name],

Thank you for all your love & concern for me. I have been on this medication for a long time now and still do not seem to be any better.

Therefore, I have decided to end my life. My children are happy and do not need me any more. I hope God will forgive me and I am now placing myself in his care for always

Yours sincerely,

[Name]