

Articulated Assessment Transfer Task School and Education

Chinese

Ms. LingLing Xie, Herricks High School, NY

Context

A high school in China is developing an international exchange student program with a U.S. high school. They need your help for presenting Chinese family school and education between two countries. The program wants to combine the advantages of both Chinese and American education and meet the needs of both Chinese and American students. You are presenting to Chinese audience the best school schedule, a day on a high school campus, and a comparison of the educational system and benefits of studying abroad.

Authentic Materials

Authentic school schedule	Vlog about a day in a Shanghai High school. Vlog about a day in a Beijing High School.	Chinese college examinations Study Abroad
-------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------